THE 2011 WYOMING FOOTBALL GUIDE IS DEDICATED TO THE MEMORY OF RUBEN NARCISSE

"Always a Cowboy"

RUBEN NARCISSE WILL CONTINUE TO BE HONORED BY HIS WYOMING TEAMMATES IN 2011

The 2010 college football season started on a sad note for the Wyoming Cowboys when the Monday following their season opener linebacker Ruben Narcisse was killed in an early morning car accident on Labor Day, Sept. 6, 2010. Narcisse was a 19-year old freshman from Miami, Fla. He played his high school football at Chaminade-Madonna Prep in Miami.

On Sept. 13, a public memorial service was held for Narcisse in the UW Athletics facilities.

Throughout the 2010 season, his teammates and coaches chose to honor him in a variety of ways. All the Cowboy football players wore a helmet decal that featured his initials "RN" in honor of their fallen teammate. That decal will once again be worn on the Cowboys' helmets in 2011. His name remained on the Wyoming roster in 2010 as his team wished to continue to recognize him as being a member of the team. His name will remain on the Wyoming roster until his class graduates from UW. Narcisse's locker was enclosed in glass and left as it was the last time he left the Cowboy locker room.

In 2010, one Wyoming player wore Narcisse's #12 jersey each week during the season.

Beginning in the 2011 season rather than having a different player wear Narcisse's jersey each week, redshirt freshman defensive end Sonny Puletasi will wear the #12 jersey for the remainder of his career. Puletasi was Narcisse's roommate when they both arrived on campus as freshmen.

Ruben's teammates and coaches also wish to honor him by dedicating this year's Wyoming Football Guide to him.

The Wyoming Cowboys Meet the 10th Special Forces Airborne Group at Fort Carson, Colo.

Wyoming head coach Dave Christensen has termed his special teams units as "Special Forces". In May 2010, the Wyoming Cowboy coaching staff traveled to Fort Carson, Colo., to meet with the United States Army 10th Special Forces Airborne Group.

WYOMING FOOTBALL CONTINUES TO HONOR THE U.S. ARMY SPECIAL FORCES

Cowboys Carry Special Forces and Wyoming Flags With Them as They Enter the Field for Each Game

A new tradition was begun by the Wyoming Football team in 2009. After being presented a Special Forces Flag by the United States Army, head coach Dave Christensen decided to have Wyoming's Special Forces Player of the Week carry that flag as the Cowboys enter the field for each game. An added part of that new tradition is that a Cowboy player who is a native of the state of Wyoming will also carry the Wyoming State Flag onto the field for every game.

Dear Coach Christensen:

I understand your special teams are known as "Special Forces." We expect that these collegiate warriors will perform without fear and with distinction. We do not expect mercy from our opponents, and give none in return. We have men of uncommon valor and character in our ranks, and we expect no less from your players who bear our name.

United States Army Special Forces Recognize Wyoming Football

When the United States Army Special Forces became aware that the Wyoming Cowboys special teams were called "Special Forces", Brigadier General Michael S. Repass, the Commanding General of the U.S. Army Airborne Special Forces at Fort Bragg, N.C., sent Wyoming head coach Dave Christensen and his team a letter. An excerpt from that letter has been placed on the wall outside the Cowboy Football locker room.

Dear Cowboys and Future Cowboys,

Welcome to the 2011 college football season and Wyoming Football. Our team can't wait to get on the field to start this season. The young men and coaches in our program have been working extremely hard since the conclusion of the 2010 season.

Entering our third year here at University of Wyoming, we look forward to the opportunities ahead of us in 2011. We took a positive step forward our first year in 2009, earning a bowl bid and winning the New Mexico Bowl. In 2011, we welcome back a core of talented and experienced players, who are anxious to bring the level of Cowboy Football back to its glory days.

There is a strong tradition of excellence at Wyoming, including numerous conference championships and bowl appearances, All-America and All-Conference players, national and conference award winners and academic award winners. We can't wait to add to that list of greatness. We are going to play an exciting and energizing brand of football.

Wyoming has some of the best fans in college football. The University of Wyoming is the only NCAA Division I football program in the state, providing our players with the opportunity to play in front of full crowds at scenic Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium. In 2009, we hosted the University of Texas Longhorns before a sellout crowd in Laramie. In 2011, we will host the University of Nebraska in what is expected to be an even bigger game as Nebraska makes its first-ever appearance in Laramie.

Our football facilities here at Wyoming are some of the best in the NCAA. With the addition of our brand new Indoor Practice Facility and the opening of the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites last fall, our student-athletes will have the best of the best when it comes to practice and competition facilities.

As you tour our beautiful campus, you will also notice that facilities throughout campus are expanding. The University of Wyoming and the people of Wyoming are providing our students with some of the best resources available, including the new library and business school expansions.

In conclusion, we hope you will join us this fall for what promises to be another exciting season of Cowboy Football.

Sincerely,

Dave Christensen

The Cowboy Sports Network

Dave Walsh

Kevin McKinney

All Wyoming Cowboy Football games can be heard live on the 25 affiliate radio stations of the Cowboy Sports Network throughout the states of Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota. The flagship station for the network is KFBC 1240 AM in Cheyenne, Wyo.

Each Wyoming Football game is also broadcast on the official University of Wyoming athletics website: www.wyomingathletics.com.

Dave Walsh will be serving as the "Voice of the Cowboys" for his 28th season in 2011. He will be joined by longtime Cowboy color analyst Kevin McKinney, who will be adding color commentary on Wyoming Football games for the 13th consecutive season.

A native of San Diego, Calif., Walsh received his degree in radio and television in 1975 from San Diego State. He was the sports director at KVOC Radio in Casper, Wyo., prior to joining the Cowboys. He is a nine-time Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year as selected by his peers of the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters.

McKinney, a Cheyenne native and University of Wyoming graduate, has also been honored during his distinguished career as a Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year. McKinney serves as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs at UW.

Wyoming Wins the Bronze Boot in 2009 and 2010

The Cowboys lift the Bronze Boot overhead as they celebrate their 17-16 road victory over Colorado State in 2009.

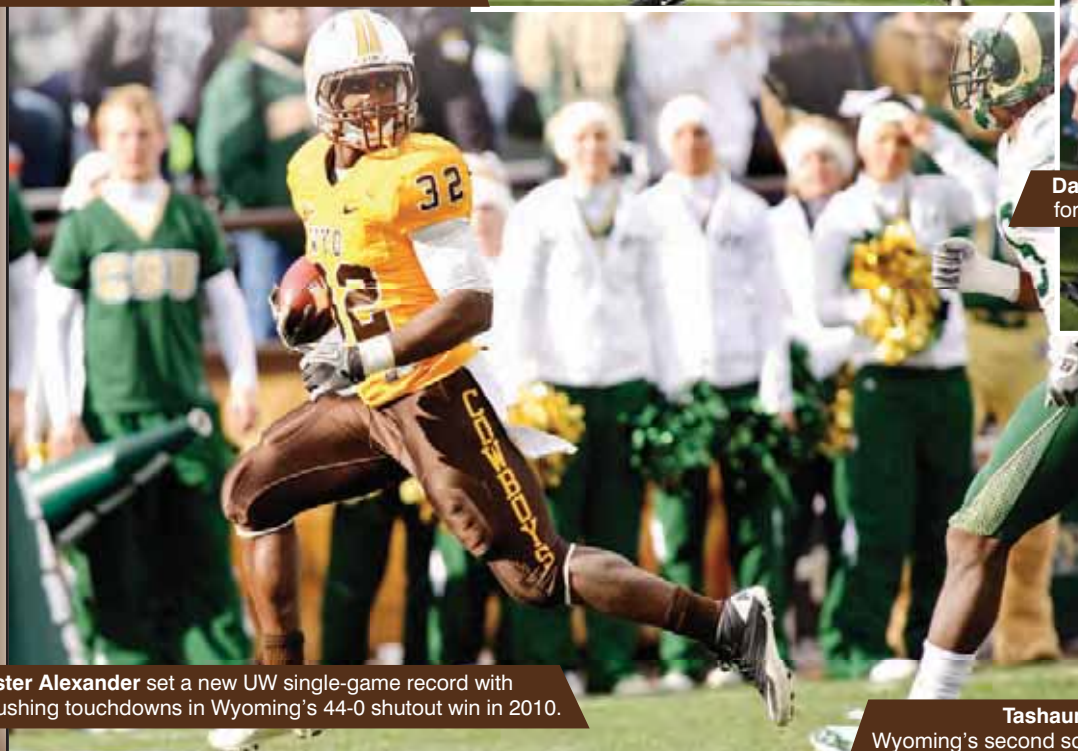

Chris Prosinski (#24) and Gabe Knapton (#52) led an outstanding Wyoming defensive effort with 10 and 11 tackles, respectively, versus CSU in the 2009 victory.

David Leonard's 53-yard punt return in the second quarter set up Wyoming's first touchdown, and gave the Cowboys a 7-6 halftime lead.

Dave Christensen holds the Bronze Boot for the first time as Wyoming head coach.

Alvester Alexander set a new UW single-game record with five rushing touchdowns in Wyoming's 44-0 shutout win in 2010.

Tashaun Gipson's 26-yard interception return set up Wyoming's second score of the first quarter, a field goal, giving the Cowboys a 9-0 lead on way to the 44-0 victory in Laramie in 2010.

Dave Christensen holds the New Mexico Bowl Championship Trophy up for his team and Cowboy fans to see following Wyoming's 35-28, double-overtime victory over Fresno State.

The Cowboy Defense recorded a memorable goal-line stand in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl. Wyoming held Fresno State on four-straight plays from the one-yard line in the first overtime, leading to a 35-28 double-overtime win.

In 2008, Wyoming defeated the Tennessee Volunteers, 13-7, in Knoxville's Neyland Stadium, becoming the first team from a non-automatic qualifying BCS conference to win there since 1986.

Wyoming hosted the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns before a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium in 2009. Texas made its first-ever appearance in Laramie, and went on to finish the '09 season as the national runnerup.

FOOTBALL

The biggest home game in University of Wyoming school history will take place in 2011, as Wyoming will host Nebraska for the first time.

In the 2009 season, Wyoming hosted the then No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns. It was the Longhorns' first-ever appearance in Laramie, Wyo. Wyoming led the Longhorns 10-6 late in the first half before losing to the eventual BCS national runnerup in front of a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium.

Not only have the Cowboys played the best in the nation, but over the past six seasons, Wyoming has enjoyed success against those teams, recording victories over:

- Tennessee of the Southeastern Conference (13-7 in Knoxville, Tenn., in 2008);
- Virginia of the Atlantic Coast Conference (23-3 in Laramie, Wyo., in 2007);
- Ole Miss of the Southeastern Conference (37-32 in Laramie, in 2004, and 24-14 in Oxford, Miss., in 2005) and
- UCLA of the Pacific-10 Conference (24-21 in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl in 2004).

UW has faced numerous Top 25 ranked programs over the past dozen years, including: Ohio State (1997); Colorado (1997); Georgia (1998); Tennessee (1999, 2002 and 2008); Auburn (2000); Texas A&M (2000, 2001, 2004); Kansas (2001, 2003); Washington (2002); Oklahoma State (2003); Ole Miss (2004, 2005); Florida (2005); Virginia (2006, 2007) and Texas (2009 and 2010).

Looking to the future, Wyoming has upcoming games with: Texas (2012); Nebraska (2011, 2013 and 2016); Oregon (2014, 2015); and Missouri (2017, 2018). Each of those teams will appear once each in Laramie.

Wyoming Cowboy Football is accustomed to playing on national television and against some of the top college football programs in the country — and they've enjoyed success against the best in the country.

During the 2011 season, 9 of Wyoming's 12 regular-season games will be televised.

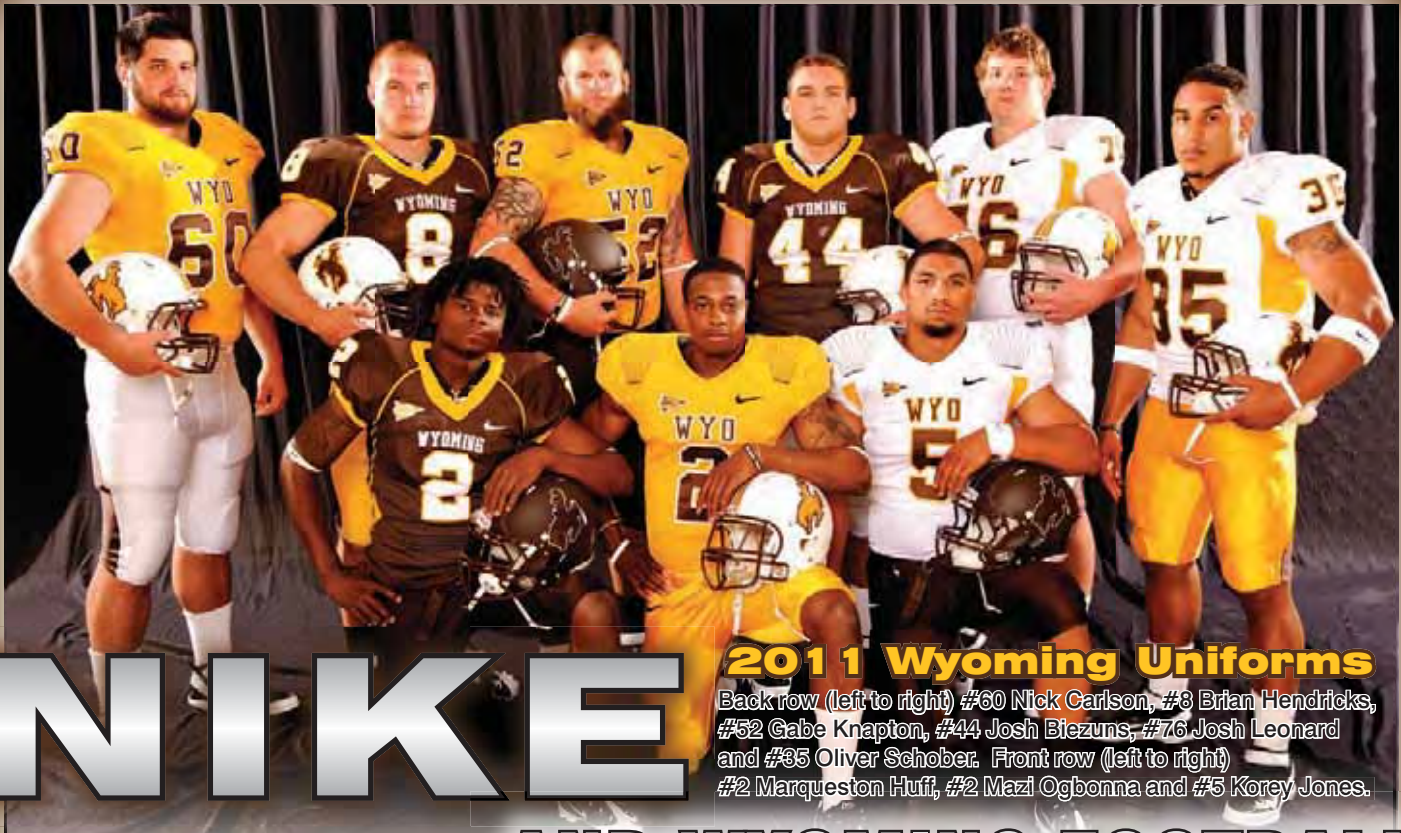

The Cowboys kicked off the 2009 bowl season in an ESPN nationally-televised game that was one of the most exciting of the college bowl season. In double overtime, Wyoming defeated Fresno State, 35-28.

The Mountain West Conference's television package includes partnerships with CBS Sports Network, VERSUS and The Mtn. (Mountain West Sports Network).

The Mtn. is the first-ever super regional sports network dedicated exclusively to covering one conference — the Mountain West Conference. The Mtn. began broadcasting in the fall of 2006.

In addition to more wide-ranging television coverage of University of Wyoming football games. The Mtn. has also provided more in-depth coverage of Wyoming Football, including an eight-part series on Wyoming Spring Football that aired during the spring of 2008.

In 2010, CBS Sports Network aired a special on Wyoming Football entitled "College Football Confidential".

Wyoming Football Reveals Complete Line of Nike Uniforms for 2011

New White Jersey and Brown Helmet Added to Cowboys' Uniform Options for 2011

The University of Wyoming football team revealed its full line of 2011 uniforms on Tuesday, July 12, 2011, including nine different jersey and pant combinations manufactured by Nike. The newly-designed jersey in the line is a white road jersey. Three helmet options were also displayed, highlighted by a unique new brown helmet. Wyoming's helmets are manufactured by Riddell, Schutt, Rawlings and Xenith.

The debut of the 2011 uniforms was revealed online at the official website of UW Athletics, WyomingAthletics.com, where a video of the new uniforms and a photo gallery of the various jersey, pant and helmet combinations can be found. Included in the video are comments from current Cowboy Football players about their favorite uniforms.

"We've developed an outstanding relationship with Nike during our time here at Wyoming," said Cowboy head coach Dave Christensen. "Nike provides us the highest quality game and practice gear available, and they have worked with our equipment staff to develop a variety of uniform options for our team. Our goal is to build a first class program, and that means playing first class, acting first class and looking first class. Nike helps us look first class, and that also carries over to how recruits perceive our program. We couldn't be happier with the look of our new uniforms."

Home uniform options feature a traditional combination of brown jersey with gold or white pants, as well as an option of brown jersey and brown pants. The brown home jerseys feature the traditional "WYOMING", in white letters, across the front of the jersey and a gold panel down the sides.

Gold jerseys may also be worn for home games. The gold jerseys can be paired with brown, white or gold pants. The gold jersey features the letters "WYO" in brown, outlined in white. There is no secondary color panel on the side of the gold jerseys.

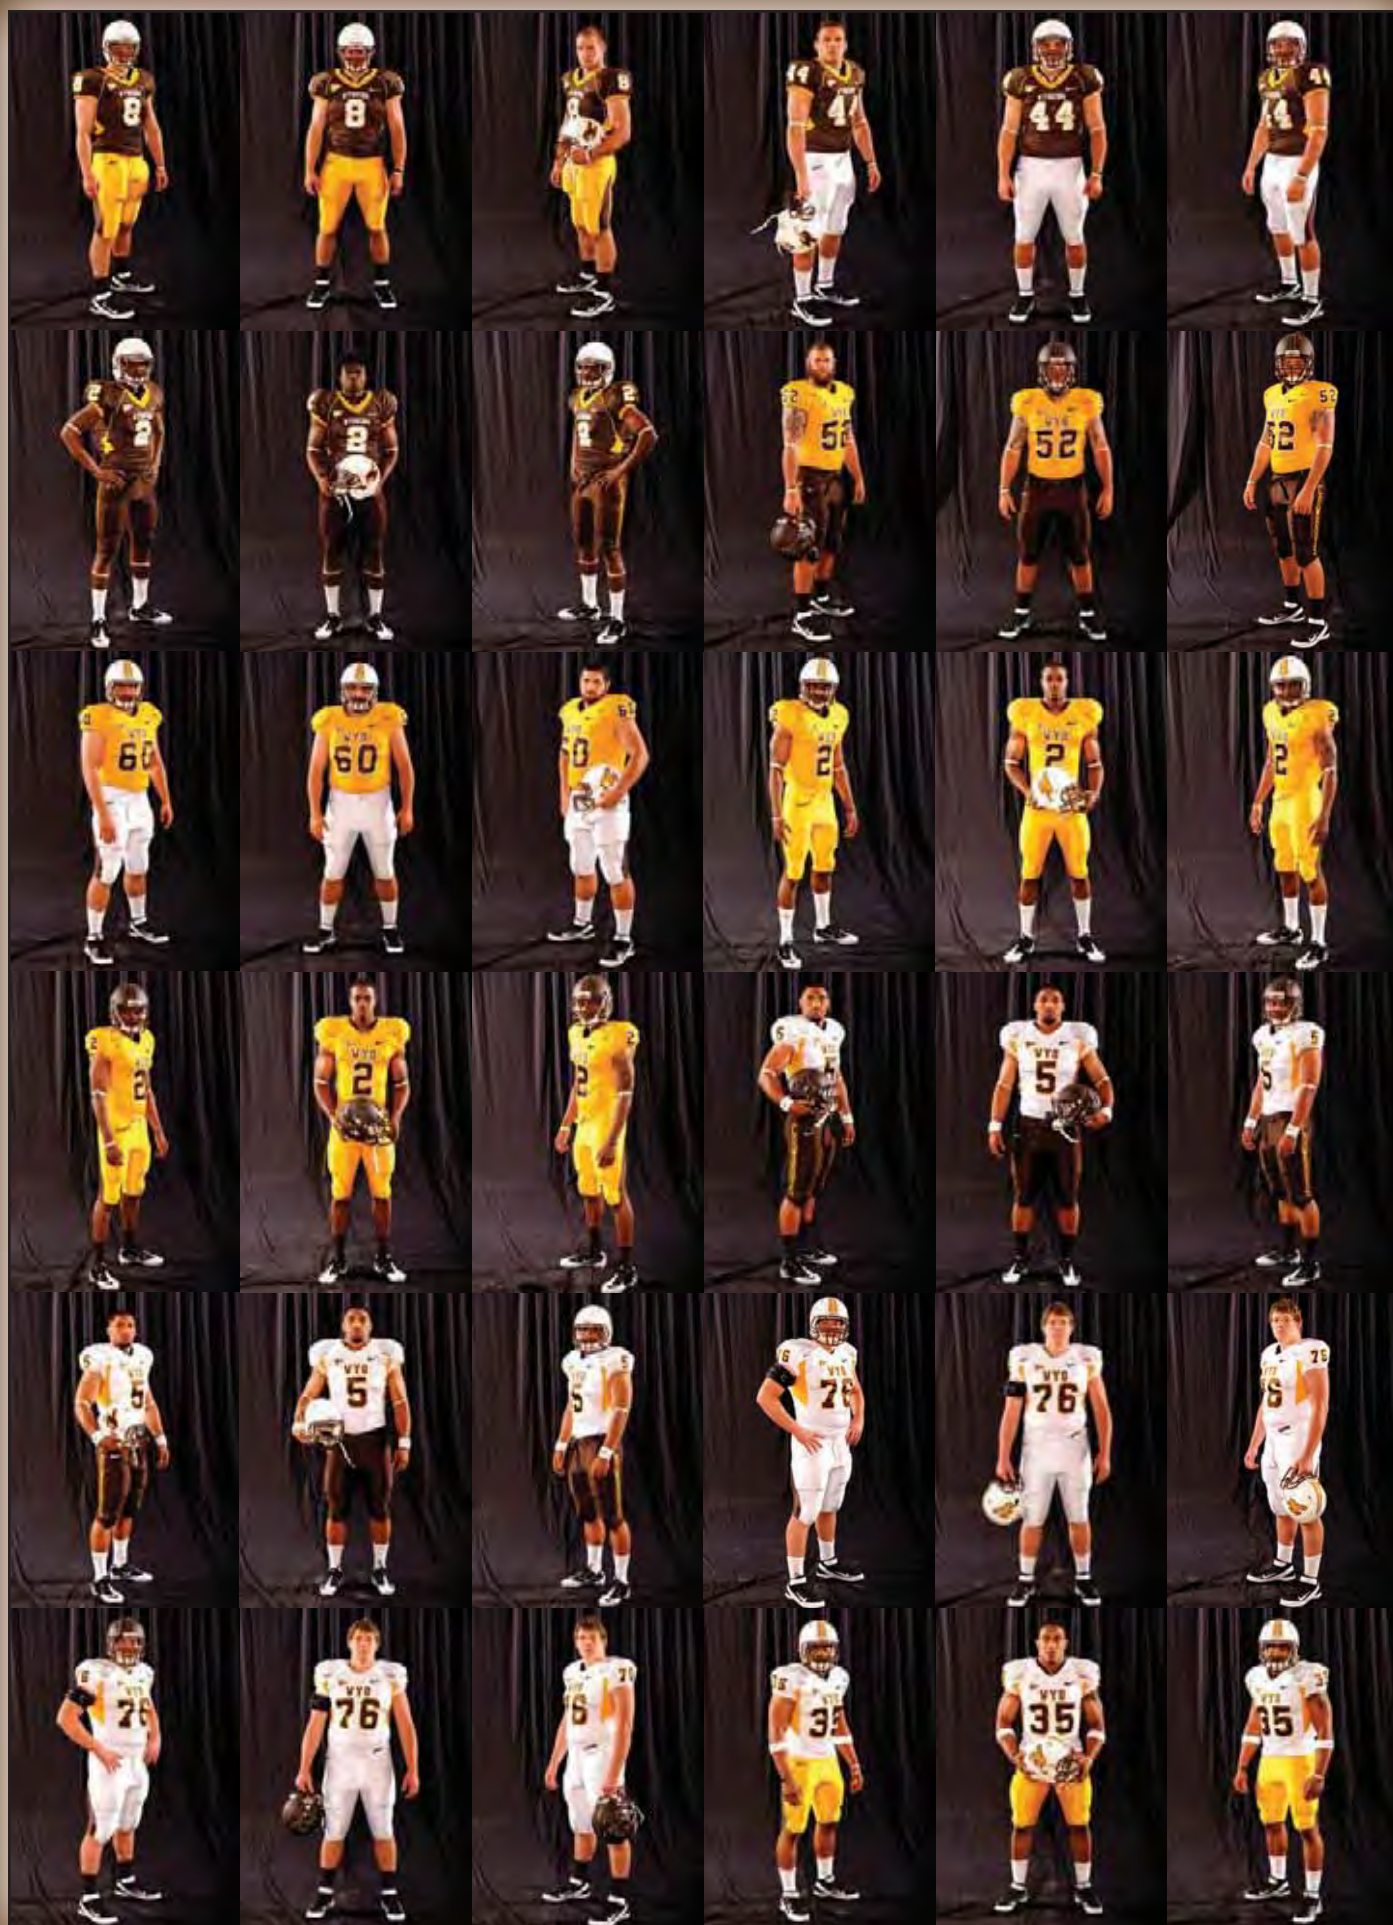

Road uniform combinations are built around a newly-designed white jersey for 2011. The redesigned white jersey features the letters "WYO" across the front and gold panels down the side of the jersey. The "WYO" letters on the white jersey are in brown, outlined in gold. They replace the word "WYOMING", which was in brown on the previous version of the road whites. The road white jerseys can be combined with brown, gold or white pants, and when paired with the new brown helmet give a very modern, distinctive look to the Cowboy uniform.

Pant options include gold and white pants, both highlighted with a brown panel down the outside of each leg. Brown pants have the word "COWBOYS" in gold down the outside of each leg. All pants feature the Nike "Swoosh" at the top of the right leg.

The new brown helmet features a flat finish with a glossy brown "Bucking Horse" logo, trimmed in dark brown and white, and a matching, glossy single stripe down the center of the helmet. The last time Wyoming wore a brown helmet was the 1975 and '76 seasons under then head coach Fred Akers.

The Cowboys' other two helmet options include: the traditional metallic white helmet, with brown "Bucking Horse" logo trimmed in gold; and an alternative metallic white helmet option, with a metallic gold "Bucking Horse" logo trimmed in brown. The alternative white helmet also includes two matching metallic gold stripes trimmed in brown down the middle of the helmet. The alternative white helmet option was debuted in the 2010 season. All three helmets have brown face masks.

GAMEDAY

ATMOSPHERE

Gameday at War Memorial Stadium is the place to be in the state of Wyoming on Saturdays. As the only NCAA Division I university in Wyoming, everyone is a Cowboy fan.

There is nothing like a college football gameday. From pregame tailgating to the pageantry of bands, cheerleaders and mascots entertaining loyal fans, college football is unmatched in the excitement it generates.

Sharing the day with a group of close friends makes the experience that much more exciting.

And when the game is over and another Wyoming home victory is a reality, the team and Cowboy fans celebrate together by singing the traditional victory song — Ragtime Cowboy Joe.

The 2011 season will see the rich tradition of Wyoming Football mark its 115th season of college football.

GAMEDAY

TRADITIONS

There are many traditions associated with Wyoming Football gamedays. From Pistol Pete to the Cowboy Joe Pony and a new tradition, the Cowboy Walk, that was begun in Dave Christensen's first season as head coach in 2009.

The Cowboy Walk sees fans lineup to wish the Cowboys well as they make their way to the locker room prior to each home game.

And of course prior to the game plenty of tailgating activities can be found centered around Wyoming's Tailgate Park.

Don James

Head Coach University of Washington From 1975-1992

National Coach of the Year in 1984 and 1991

Led Washington to the 1991 National Championship

"I've followed Dave's career a good deal through the years — ever since he was a player for me at Washington. As a player, I had an idea he might be a good coach one day. He was a very intelligent player, who knew and could play all five offensive line positions. Later as a graduate assistant on my staff, we had one of our full-time coaches leave, and I put Dave in charge of his group and had him help with recruiting. He stepped right in and did as good a job as any full-time coach I had on my staff.

"The spread offense he installed at Missouri a few years ago is an offense I know I wouldn't want to try and defend. We used to coach our defense to swarm the ball. You can't swarm the ball against the spread — there are too many options. Dave has done a really good job of continuing to develop that offense into one of the best in the country."

ABOUT HEAD COACH DAVE CHRISTENSEN

Gary Pinkel

Head Coach University of Missouri From 2001-Present

Led Missouri to Big 12 North Titles in 2007 and 2008 and No. 4 National Ranking in 2007

"I'm very proud of Dave (Christensen), and I think it's a great reflection on our program that he has been selected the next head football coach at Wyoming. He's just done a great job,"

Kirk Herbstreit

ESPN and ABC College Football Analyst

"In my opinion, in terms of offensive coaching and spread offenses, Dave's is one of the most complicated and most difficult to prepare for. His spread has so many different ways of attacking defenses. Not only is he on the cutting edge of coaching, but he is an extremely personable guy. He has a great way of interacting with players, understanding their needs and wants, and I'm excited to watch his teams in the coming years at Wyoming."

Jack Arute

ESPN and ABC College Football Reporter

"Dave Christensen embodies what makes a good coach great. His game philosophy challenges his opponents and motivates his team. His passion for his players stretches beyond the field. He is a winner with a capital W."

Ed Cunningham

ESPN and ABC College Football Analyst

"I've known Dave (Christensen) since his graduate assistant days at Washington, and it's been a pleasure to watch such a good man and coach influence so many players. Wyoming Football will certainly benefit from his energy, passion and knowledge."

John Anderson

ESPN SportsCenter Anchor

"Here's hoping the scoreboard at War Memorial Stadium is in good working order, because Dave Christensen's offense will test it.

"Dave's work at Mizzou saw the Tigers reach unprecedented levels of success and required a complete re-writing of the school's record book. First on the ground with quarterback Brad Smith then through the air with QB Chase Daniel.

"It's that kind of versatility, adaptability and inventiveness that will give Wyoming fans Saturday afternoons full of points and victories.

"Don't sit down, because with Dave in charge the Cowboys will always be in scoring position."

DAVE CHRISTENSEN'S PROMINENT

PUPILS

Colin Brown

Missouri OT From 2004-08

2007 and 2008 Honorable Menton All-Big 12 Conference and Former Walkon to Missouri Football
Fifth Round Pick of the Kansas City Chiefs in 2009 NFL Draft

"Coach (Christensen) taught me more about football and life than any other coach I've been around. He not only helped me become the player I became, but he helped me become a better man. He helped me grow from a walkon into an NFL Draft pick."

Chase Coffman

Missouri TE From 2005-08

2008 John Mackey Award Winner as Nation's Top Tight End and 2008 Consensus All-American
Third Round Pick of the Cincinnati Bengals in 2009 NFL Draft

"He's a great coach, who had outstanding success with our offense at Missouri. I know he will work just as hard to make the team at Wyoming successful."

Chase Daniel

Missouri QB From 2005-08

2007 Second Team All-American and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, Fourth in 2007 Heisman Voting
A Member of the 2009 New Orleans Saints World Championship Team

"Coach C is one of the most intelligent and brightest offensive minds in college football today. He helped me constantly improve and get to where I am today."

Jeremy Maclin

Missouri WR From 2006-08

2007 and 2008 Consensus All-American and 2008 Biletnikoff Award Finalist
First Round Pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in 2009 NFL Draft (19th Overall Pick in 2009 NFL Draft)

"His knowledge of the game and offensive play calling is the best I've ever seen. He knows how to utilize individual players' talents, and knows in what situations he wants to get the ball in certain players' hands."

"Off the field, he's a great guy. He was always laughing and joking with us as players. I always felt I could go to Coach C's office and talk to him about football or whatever else was going on in my life."

William Moore

Missouri FS From 2004-08

2008 Fourth Team All-American (Phil Steele's) and 2008 First Team All-Big 12 Conference
Second Round Pick of the Atlanta Falcons in 2009 NFL Draft

"Coach Christensen is a great person. I think that is just as important as being a great coach. We were on opposite sides of the ball during my time at Missouri, but we developed a really close relationship. He and his family welcomed me into their lives. Getting a chance to become a head coach is well deserved for Coach C. He not only recruited good players to Missouri, but he helped players develop into being the best they could be. I know he will do well at the University of Wyoming."

Martin Rucker

Missouri TE From 2003-07

2007 Consensus All-American and 2006 and 2007 First Team All-Big 12 Conference
Fourth Round Pick of the Cleveland Browns in the 2008 NFL Draft

"Coach C is not only a great football coach, but also a great man. He lives by the same code he preaches to his players — honesty, integrity and accountability. As a football coach, he's very smart and creative. He identifies mismatches well and puts playmakers in the best position to help the team succeed."

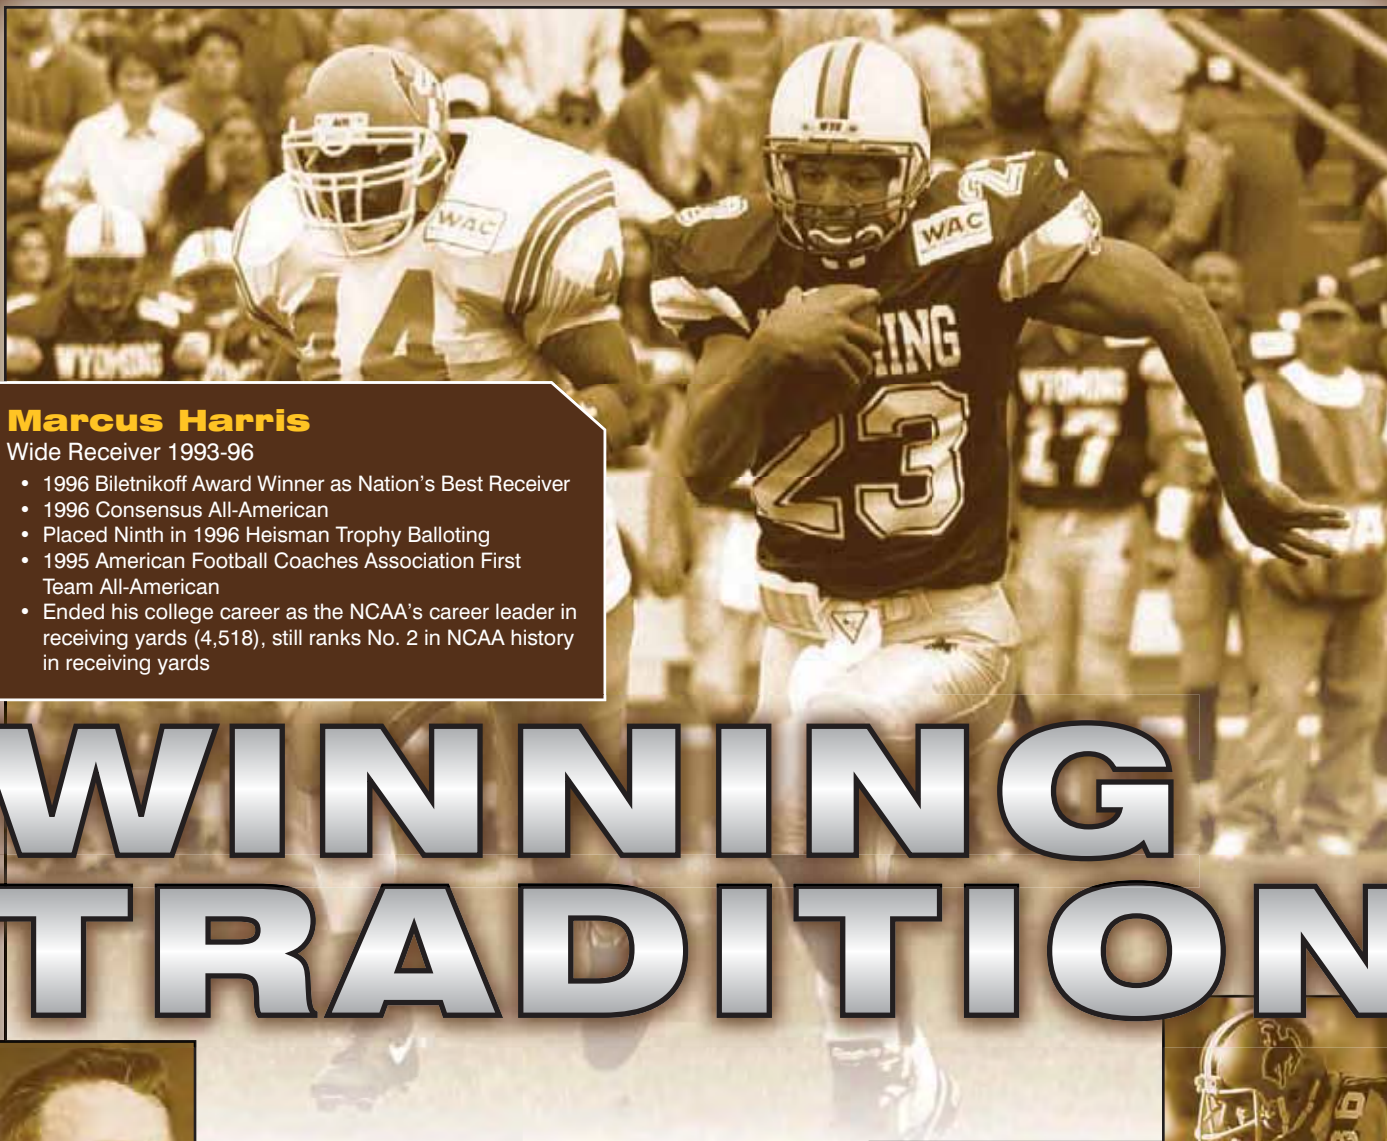

Brad Smith

Missouri QB From 2002-05

2005 First Team All-Big 12 Conference
Fourth Round Pick of the New York Jets in the 2006 NFL Draft

"During my time at Missouri, I got to see the kind of man Coach Christensen is. I spent time with he and his family, and I can say he is a man of great character. That to me is the biggest compliment I can pay anyone. On the field, he was a very innovative coach. We put up a lot of points, which made it exciting for both us, as players, and our fans. I wish him all the best at Wyoming."

Joe Tiller

Wyoming Head Coach 1991-96

Paul Roach

Wyoming Head Coach 1987-90

With the hiring of Dave Christensen as Wyoming's new head football coach in December of 2008, Wyoming fans couldn't help envisioning the return of a wide-open offense to Cowboy Football. An offense that would resemble those that successful Cowboy teams in the 1980s and 90s were built upon.

Christensen brings to Wyoming his up-tempo, spread offensive attack that made the University of Missouri one of the highest-scoring and most productive offenses in the country the past four seasons. In 2007, Missouri ended the season ranked No. 4 in the final Associated Press poll — the school's highest year-end ranking in history.

Wyoming fans can remember some high-powered offenses of their own under Paul Roach and Joe Tiller. Those Cowboy offenses of the late 1980s and 1990s were not only among the most explosive and exciting in school history, but they fueled a period of success that resulted in four conference championships, four bowl berths and numerous national rankings for the Cowboys.

Roach implemented a three-wide receiver, one-back system from 1987-90. That system was refined by his former offensive coordinator, Tiller, who enjoyed great success of his own as head coach at UW from 1991-96, culminating in Wyoming leading the nation in passing in 1996.

During the Roach-Tiller era, quarterbacks like Craig Burnett, Randy Welniak, Tom Corontzos, Joe Hughes and Josh Wallwork posted passing numbers that Wyoming had never seen before. And their receiving targets were some of the greatest names not only in Wyoming history but in NCAA history — names like Shawn Wiggins, Ryan Yarbrough and Marcus Harris. Harris still ranks No. 2 in NCAA history in career receiving yards, and captured the 1996 Biletnikoff Trophy, as well as finishing ninth in the '96 Heisman Trophy balloting.

While at Missouri, Christensen coached, among others, Biletnikoff finalist Jeremy Maclin in 2007 and 2008 and quarterback Chase Daniel in 2006, '07 and '08. Daniel finished fourth in the 2007 Heisman voting.

Combining the great tradition of Wyoming Football with one of the nation's most innovative offensive minds in Dave Christensen has the Wyoming faithful excited about the future of Cowboy Football.

Mike Dirks

Defensive Tackle, 1967 All-American

Mike Dirks, #66 in the photo, was one of the leaders of a Wyoming defense that led the nation in rushing defense in both 1966 and '67. Dirks and his teammates actually held opponents to a negative rushing average for both the 1966 and '67 seasons. His senior season the Cowboys earned a berth in the Sugar Bowl, and Dirks was named an All-American by the Football Writers and Look Magazine.

Steve Scifres

Offensive Tackle, 1996 All-American

Steve Scifres was one of the greatest offensive linemen in school history, starting every game of his college career — 47 consecutive. He was selected by the Football Writers of America as a First Team All-American in 1996.

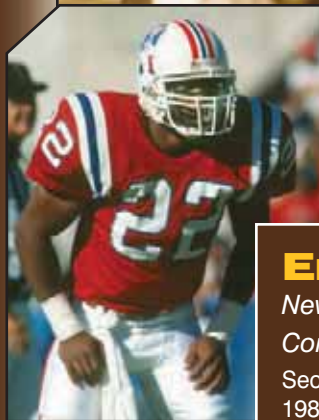

Jim Crawford

Running Back, 1956 All-American

A native of Greybull, Wyo., Jim Crawford led the nation in rushing his senior season of 1956 to earn All-America recognition from the Football Writers Association of America. Among the running backs he beat for the rushing title in '56 were Jim Brown of Syracuse and Tommy McDonald of Oklahoma.

WYOMING BOWL HISTORY

Bowden Wyatt

Wyoming Head Coach of 1951 Gator Bowl Champions

Bowden Wyatt guided the Wyoming Cowboys to its first-ever bowl appearance in the 1950 season, when on Jan. 1, 1951, Wyoming defeated Washington & Lee, 20-7, to complete an undefeated, 10-0, season.

1968 Sugar Bowl

Wyoming had posted a perfect 10-0 record in 1967 entering its game versus LSU in the 1968 Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 1968. While Wyoming lost to the Tigers, 13-20, the Cowboys appearance in the Sugar Bowl is still remembered by Cowboy fans as one of the greatest moments in school history.

1987 Holiday Bowl

The Wyoming defense, seen swarming an Iowa ballcarrier here, played an outstanding game in the 1987 Holiday Bowl. UW's defense held the Hawkeyes to only one offensive touchdown. But Iowa returned a blocked punt for a TD and returned an interception for another score to give the Hawkeyes a one-point, 20-19, victory.

Wyoming senior defensive end Mitch Unrein, flanked by head coach Dave Christensen, accepts the Defensive Most Valuable Player Award for his performance in Wyoming's 35-28, double-overtime win over Fresno State in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl.

Tom Corontzos

Quarterback of 1990 Copper Bowl Team

Tom Corontzos threw for 226 yards against the California Bears in the 1990 Copper Bowl. The game came down to the last 49 seconds, but Wyoming lost a 15-17 heartbreaker.

Jim Kiick

MVP of the 1966 Sun Bowl

Wyoming running back Jim Kiick scored two touchdowns, including one on a 43-yard run in leading Wyoming to a 28-20 victory over Florida State in the 1966 Sun Bowl to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

1955 Wyoming Cowboys

Capture Sun Bowl Championship, Jan. 2, 1956

The 1955 Wyoming Cowboys defeated Texas Tech, 21-14, on Jan. 2, 1956, to capture the 1956 Sun Bowl Championship. The following season of 1956, Wyoming posted a perfect 10-0 record.

IN THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Former Wyoming All-American Jay Novacek Becomes the Fifth Cowboy to be Inducted Into the College Football Hall of Fame

Jay Novacek

receives his Hall of Fame Award from NFF Board of Director and 1974 and '75 Heisman Trophy Winner Archie Griffin

THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION AND COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The University of Wyoming is proud to have five former football greats inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Former Cowboy head coaches Bob Devaney, Pat Dye and Bowden Wyatt, and former Wyoming All-Americans Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom and Jay Novacek have all been elected to the distinguished Hall.

The mission of the National Football Foundation is to promote the power of amateur football in developing the qualities of leadership, sportsmanship, competitive zeal and the drive for academic excellence in America's young people. The NFF was founded in 1947.

The Wyoming Chapter of the National Football Foundation (NFF) was founded in 1993 by former UW head coach and athletics director Paul Roach when he gathered a group of interested ex-players, businessmen, coaches, athletic administrators, educators and football fans together. The group decided it was time to honor Wyoming High School and University of Wyoming football student-athletes for their dedication to the sport of football, as well as their academic achievements, school leadership and community involvement.

In the Wyoming Chapter's first 18 years it has received 45 nominations for UW football players and 1,133 nominations for High School football players for its annual Scholar-Athlete scholarship awards program. All 62 Wyoming high schools, that play football, have had at least one student-athlete nominated during that timespan. A total of $204,150 in scholarships has been awarded to 183 High School and 36 UW Scholar-Athlete Finalists, 15 Courage Award Winners, four Perseverance Award Winners and nine Scholar-Athlete nominees, representing 57 high schools and the University of Wyoming.

The Wyoming Chapter has had three West Regional Winners, competing against 25 other chapters in the West, and three Regional Runner-ups. That speaks volumes for the outstanding young men in Wyoming. Present Cowboy, Chris Prosinski, was the NFF West Regional High School winner in 2006. Former Cowboy, John Wendling, was one of only 17 national finalists for the 2006 Draddy Trophy. The Draddy Trophy, which was renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often called the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded annually to the top college football scholar-athlete in the nation. By being named one of the Draddy finalists in '06, Wendling received an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the NFF. Wendling is also the first individual to be both a Wyoming NFF Chapter High School scholarship winner, as well as a Wyoming Chapter College scholarship winner. Jake Edmunds a UW graduate in 2009 and Chris Prosinski in 2010 were the 2nd and 3rd individuals to be honored as both a Wyoming high school and University of Wyoming Scholar-Athlete Finalist.

The Wyoming Chapter is now ranked second in the nation out of 119 chapters and has its sight set on being number one in the nation.

If you would like to become a part of this outstanding organization, as it strives to be No. 1, contact former Cowboy Football letterman and current Wyoming NFF Chapter Membership Chairman, Mike Schutte at 3608 Green Spring Drive, Fort Collins, CO 80528 or email him at MShootee@gmail.com.

Stadium Dedication

Sept. 23, 1950, Versus Baylor

War Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Sept. 23, 1950, in a game versus Baylor. The Bears came to Laramie nationally ranked. They were led by quarterback Hayden Fry, who later went on to a College Hall of Fame career as head coach at SMU and Iowa. But Wyoming recorded a 7-0 victory over the Bears led by single-wing tailback Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom, who would also later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a player. Wyoming went on to achieve an undefeated season, 10-0-0, and earned the school's first bowl bid to the 1951 Gator Bowl.

2005 — First Season of Artificial Turf

In 2005, artificial turf was installed in War Memorial Stadium for the first time after 55 seasons of featuring a natural grass surface in the stadium. This photo from the 2005 TCU game shows the Desso Challenge Pro 60 surface that was installed in the summer of 2005 at a cost of slightly more than $1 million.

In conjunction with the installation of the artificial surface, the field at War Memorial Stadium was named Jonah Field to recognize a very generous gift of $5 million by the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families to the UW Athletics Department. The Martin and McMurry families developed the Jonah Field natural gas field in western Wyoming.

THE “BORDER WAR” AND THE “BRONZE BOOT”

The annual Wyoming-Colorado State “Border War” football game has evolved into one of the most bitterly contested rivalries in college football.

The series began in 1899, and has been played in three different centuries. Wyoming and CSU have waged the “Border War” every year but six since the schools began playing, and the 2011 season will mark the 66th consecutive season the two border rivals will meet, dating back to 1946. In fact, this is one of the oldest rivalries west of the Mississippi River.

In 1968, the ROTC detachments of the respective schools initiated the “Bronze Boot”, traveling trophy awarded to the winner of the contest each year. The Boot was originally worn in Vietnam by a CSU graduate. The boot has rested in UW’s possession in 22 of the 43 years since its inception.

The “Bronze Boot” has become one of the most famous traveling trophies in college football. This year’s 2011 meeting will be the 44th time the trophy has been fought over.

Wyoming 22 Wins, CSU 21 Wins

Senior wide receiver Jonathan Aiken stands in front of the statue “Fanning a Twister”, depicting the great Wyoming bucking horse Steamboat. The statue was erected in 1991 north of War Memorial Stadium to welcome visitors to the University of Wyoming Athletics complex. Sculptor Peter Fillerup from Cody, Wyo., created “Fanning a Twister”.

BUCKING HORSE AND RIDER — SYMBOL OF WYOMING

Cowboy Tough Statue

The sculpture “Cowboy Tough” was added to the UW Athletics facilities in the early 2000s. Casper, Wyo., artist Chris Navarro created this new bucking horse and rider sculpture.

There are two full-size originals of the statue that are located in the UW Athletics Department — one is on the second floor of the Rochelle Athletics Center and the second sits at the north endzone of War Memorial Stadium. It has become a tradition for the Wyoming Cowboy players and coaches to touch “Cowboy Tough” as they enter and exit the field at War Memorial Stadium on gamedays.

The symbol on the Wyoming Cowboy football helmet depicts a Cowboy riding a bucking horse. That symbol has been a part of the University of Wyoming Athletics Department since the early 1920s, when UW equipment manager Deane Hunton obtained a photograph of cowboy Guy Holt riding the world famous bucking horse “Steamboat” at the Albany County fairgrounds in 1903. Hunton traced the photo of Steamboat and Holt and turned it into a logo for use on athletics equipment. Steamboat was born on a ranch between Laramie and Bosler, Wyo., in 1901, and is regarded as one of the greatest bucking horses in history.

In later years, the symbol used by Wyoming Athletics more closely resembled the logo on the state’s automobile license plates., which depicted another famous bucking horse “Deadman” with a rider by the name of “Stub” Farlow atop it. “Deadman” was owned by the Jackson Hole Frontier Association. The license plate design was developed by the then Secretary of State, Lester C. Hunt, who later became the Governor of Wyoming and a United States Senator in 1935. Hunt utilized a photograph of “Deadman” and Farlow for the design of the state’s license plates, which first appeared in 1936.

While there are differing opinions on exactly which horse and rider are depicted on all of UW’s athletics uniforms today, it is the symbol that is important. The bucking horse and rider represents the toughness, and the never-say-die spirit that is Wyoming. Whether it is “Steamboat” or “Deadman”, the bucking horse and rider logo is without a doubt one of the best and most distinctive symbols in college sports.

SUCCESSFUL COWBOYS

RETURN HOME TO LARAMIE

The wonderful college experience that is offered by attending the University of Wyoming is one that remains with student-athletes long after they complete their eligibility as Wyoming Cowboys. The University, the Laramie community and the beauty of the Rocky Mountains draw UW alumni back to the region.

Included among the many former Cowboys who have returned to Wyoming to make their homes is the Cowboys' all-time leading tackler, Galand Thaxton. Thaxton was an Associated Press All-American in 1987 as a middle linebacker. He was part of the Cowboys' 1987 WAC Championship season. Thaxton returned to Laramie in 1999 to manage his own State Farm Insurance agency. He is a native of Denver, Colo.

Randy Welniak returned to Laramie in the summer of 2007. The 1988 WAC Offensive Player of the Year as a quarterback, Welniak led the Cowboys to the 1988 WAC Championship. A native of Ord, Neb., he is currently an officer with Wyoming State Bank.

Al Rich

Matt Lehning

Another former Cowboy who is making his home in Laramie, is Al Rich, one of the greatest safeties Wyoming has ever had. Rich is a police officer in Laramie. An All-America candidate for the Cowboys, his career was cut short by injury. He was an All-Conference safety for the Cowboys as a sophomore, and was one of the fiercest tacklers of all time. He is a native of Colorado Springs, Colo.

Eric Worden, a four-year letterwinner from 1988 through 1991, is an engineer for the TriHydro Corporation, an environmental engineering firm located in Laramie. A native of Loveland, Colo., Worden was an outstanding offensive linemen for the Cowboys during that era. He was a member of the 1988 WAC Championship team.

Matt Lehning, retail manager for Brown 'N Gold Outlet, a retail apparel company in Laramie, was a standout player for the Cowboys. Lehning, who lettered in 1998 and 1999, was a First Team All-MWC free safety in 1999. Lehning's hometown is Sublette, Kan.

These individuals are only a few of the former Cowboys who make Wyoming their home.

The Wyoming Cowboy Football program has built a national recruiting base, with student-athletes from as far away as California, Florida, Texas and three foreign countries on the 2011 roster.

Among the facts that indicate the wide-reaching recruiting efforts of Cowboy Football are:

- Wyoming's 2011 roster includes players from 21 different states.
- There are 11 states that have multiple players currently on the Wyoming roster. Those states include California, Colorado, Florida, Illinois, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Washington and Wyoming.
- Three foreign countries are also represented on the 2011 Cowboy Football roster. American Samoa, Canada and Germany each have a student-athlete on this year's Wyoming Football team.

(For a state-by-state breakdown of the 2011 Wyoming Football team please refer to the 2011 Season Outlook information in this publication.)

WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM ADDS WILDCATTER STADIUM CLUB AND SUITES

A look inside one of the 12 suites contained in the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites.

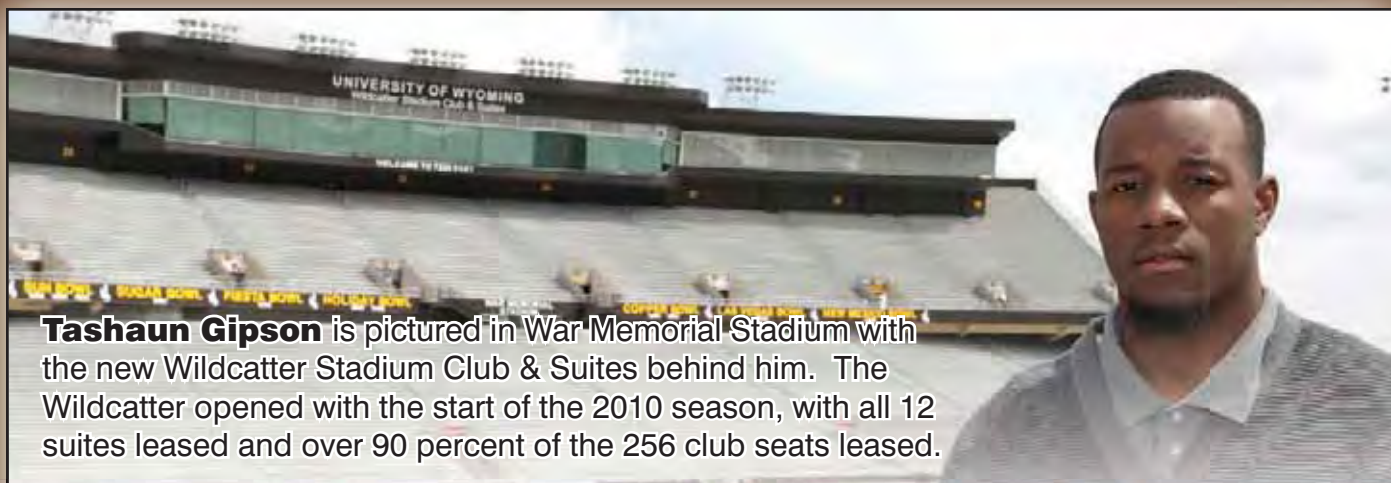

An exciting new facility, offering University of Wyoming Football fans the advantages of indoor, luxury seating, began construction in the spring of 2009 and was named the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. The new facility project was completed for the start of the 2010 football season.

A total of 12 individual suites along with a stadium-club area that contains 256 indoor seats is located on the upper east side of War Memorial Stadium and is named after the many successful "Wildcatters" of Wyoming. A Wildcatter is a person who displays the strength and courage to risk drilling oil or gas wells in areas where there is no guarantee that oil or gas will be found.

The project was funded with private donations and matching funds appropriated by the Wyoming State Legislature.

The world-renown architecture and design firm Populous served as designer for the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. Populous has designed athletic facilities around the world for the past 25 years. Included in its recent projects are: the University of Phoenix Stadium, home of the Arizona Cardinals of the NFL; Heinz Field, home of the Pittsburgh Steelers; a renovation of the University of Oklahoma Stadium; an expansion of Penn State University's Beaver Stadium; the new Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals; AT&T Park, home of the San Francisco Giants; the new Yankee Stadium; and the London 2012 Olympic Stadium.

In connection with the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium, the new War Memorial Stadium east side renovation was completed at the same time. The renovation of the east side of War Memorial included improved seating, enhanced concession areas and improved and expanded restroom facilities for fans.

Tashaun Gipson is pictured in War Memorial Stadium with the new Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites behind him. The Wildcatter opened with the start of the 2010 season, with all 12 suites leased and over 90 percent of the 256 club seats leased.

“THE WAR”

HIGHEST STADIUM IN THE LAND
— 7,220 FEET

Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium, "The War", is the highest NCAA Football stadium in the country at 7,220 feet. It has gone through extensive renovations and new construction over the past decade. The new Wildcatter Stadium Club and Suites, pictured above, were completed in 2010. An extensive renovation of the east side seating, bathroom and concession areas was completed at the same time the Wildcatter addition was constructed.

The expansive club-seating area, containing 256 seats, is at the center of the new Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites.

Senior punter Austin McCoy, from Winter Haven, Fla., is shown inside Wyoming's expansive Indoor Practice Facility. In the background, the many banners commemorating Wyoming's bowl appearances through the years hang from the ceiling. The banners span the time of Wyoming's first bowl appearance in the 1951 Gator Bowl through the Cowboys' victory in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl.

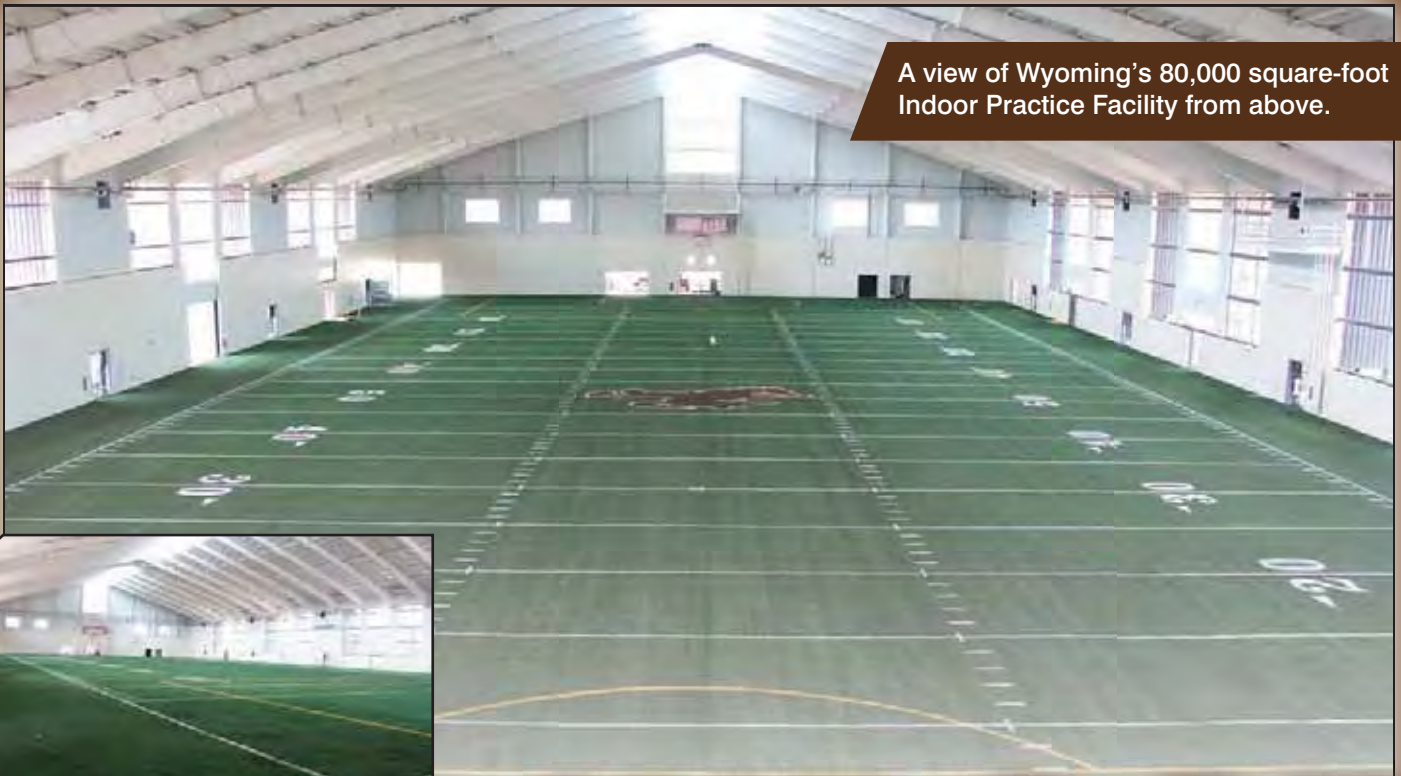

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

In the fall of 2007, Wyoming's new Indoor Practice Facility (IPF) opened for use. Containing over 80,000 square feet, the facility includes a full-size 100-yard by 50-yard football field featuring the same Desso Challenge Pro 60 artificial turf that is utilized on Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium.

The Indoor Practice Facility was built at a cost of $11 million.

Unlike some other college indoor facilities, Wyoming's Indoor Practice Facility is a full-size football field, allowing the Cowboys workouts to be as efficient as possible with no limitations due to size.

EXCELLENCE PRIDE TRADITION JONAH FIELD

AT WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

The words Jonah Field are displayed prominently on the playing surface in War Memorial Stadium to recognize the generous gift of the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families.

Martin and McMurry Gift Makes Jonah Field Surface Possible

The University of Wyoming named the playing surface at War Memorial Stadium, "Jonah Field" following a $5 million gift from the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families. Pictured at the press conference are left to right: UW's former NCAA 400-meter hurdle champion Shauna Smith, Senator Alan K. Simpson, Susie McMurry, Mick McMurry, John Martin, Mari Ann Martin and former UW quarterback Corey Bramlet.

As the Cowboys took the field of War Memorial Stadium to open the 2005 home season, they ushered in a new era for one of the most picturesque stadiums in America. For the first time in its history, the stadium had a new, artificial playing surface, known as Jonah Field.

Sporting one of the finest grass gridirons for its first 55 seasons, "The War" is now showing off a state-of-the-art artificial turf. Thanks to the generous gifts of alumni, friends and Cowboy supporters through the Strategic Plan for Intercollegiate Athletics, the new surface was completed in August of 2005.

As part of a $5 million gift from Casper entrepreneurs John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry and their families, matched by the state of Wyoming for a total of $10 million, the new surface was named Jonah Field to recognize not only the prolific natural gas field in Sublette County (Wyoming) that made the Martin-McMurry gift possible, but also to recognize the financial contributions to state funding projects, including higher education, made over time by Wyoming's extractive industries. The gift was made in May of 2005.

Gifts totalling $2 million by George and Dianna Archuleta of La Barge and Ron and Linda Flack of Cheyenne, launched UW's Intercollegiate Athletics capital campaign for facilities. Their gifts were made in March of 2004.

Known as the Desso Challenge Pro 60 Monofilament Synthetic Turf System, the new surface is equipped with artificial grass fibers specifically developed for football. The turf was developed by DESSO DLW Sports Systems of Dendermonde, Belgium. Cost of the entire project was slightly over $1 million.

The fiber replicates the shape and structure of natural grass so that it wears horizontally rather than vertically. Consequently it retains the same shape and structure throughout its life. The unique ribbed structure of the surface considerably increases its resilience. Just like the structure of natural grass, the monofilament turf's ribbed structure ensures that the fibers return to their original shape and position after use.

In addition to its Belgium location, Desso has offices in Germany (Stuttgart), the Netherlands (Oss), Great Britain (London), Spain (Madrid), Italy (Milan) and France (Paris).

As an assistant coach, head coach and athletics director at the University of Wyoming, Paul Roach was a part of six of Wyoming's 12 bowl teams and six of seven Western Athletic Conference Championships. Among his other accomplishments was establishment of the UW Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in 1993.

ATHLETICS CENTER

The Rochelle Athletics Center as Seen From War Memorial Stadium

The proximity of the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) and Indoor Practice Facility to War Memorial Stadium make the UW Football Complex one of the finest in the country. The RAC and Indoor Practice Facility are pictured here in a photo taken from the west upper deck of War Memorial Stadium.

The University of Wyoming has experienced remarkable success nationally through the years on the field and in the classroom. The Curtis and Marian Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) ensures a continuation of that success, as well as enhancing the Cowboys' reputation across the country. The Rochelle Athletics Center has allowed UW to continue its tradition of providing quality academic programs side-by-side with a quality football program.

Thanks to a $4.2 million gift from the Rochelles, the largest in school history at the time, the facility began construction in May of 2000. It was completed in August of 2001 at a total cost of $9.4 million. The project was funded totally by private donations.

Located just north of War Memorial Stadium, the RAC occupies 46,140 square feet. It includes a state-of-the-art sports medicine and treatment center, a strength and conditioning center, an academic and counseling area and large meeting rooms.

The expanded academic support area provides a full range of services for student-athletes. Included are networked computer stations, a student counseling area and study tables.

A broader scope and greater availability of sports medicine services includes space for treatment, practice preparation, examination/diagnosis and hydrotherapy. The strength and conditioning center allows improved weight and agility training for the Cowboys.

"We wanted our gift to help create a lasting athletic legacy for the University and for the State of Wyoming," Rochelle said after presenting the gift. "The University of Wyoming has had a major influence in our lives. We are proud to be a part of the tradition of academic and athletic excellence at the University of Wyoming."

Born in Lusk, Wyo., Rochelle received a B.S. degree in animal science from UW in 1941. While a student, he was president of his senior class.

Rochelle served as a UW Trustee from 1983 through 1989, and received a UW Trustee Award of Merit. In 1994, he was awarded the UW Medallion Service Award recognizing his outstanding service and dedication to the University. Marian, a native of Denver, is a graduate of Stephens College in Columbia, Mo., and Colorado College in Colorado Springs.

Curtis Rochelle passed away in the spring of 2005.

Wyoming's strength and conditioning program is led by Director of Strength and Conditioning Trent Greener. A former Wyoming Football letterman in 1987 and '88 as a defensive lineman, Greener returned to his alma mater in 2009 to lead UW's strength program. He is entering his 22nd season as a coach at the NCAA Division I level and his 13th as a head strength and conditioning coach. He returns to Wyoming from the University of Washington where he was the Head Coach for Sports Performance and the Husky Football strength coach from 2005-08.

Before working at Washington, Greener was the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach at Oregon State University for six seasons (1999-2004), working with the sports of football and volleyball.

He has coached teams that appeared in seven bowl games during his coaching career, and has trained over 20 individuals who went on to sign with NFL teams. While at Wyoming in 1987 and '88, he was a member of two Western Athletic Conference Championships teams that appeared in the '87 and '88 Holiday Bowls.

Greener is both a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and a USA Weightlifting (USAW) certified club coach.

He and his staff not only coordinate workouts for UW student-athletes, but they also consult with Wyoming student-athletes on how to maximize their health and performance by effectively managing their diet and nutrition.

Waller serves as the head athletic trainer for the Cowboy Football program, as well as overseeing the athletic-training unit. He came to Wyoming from the University of New Mexico, where he was the associate athletics trainer from 2003-09.

In addition to serving as the associate athletics trainer at New Mexico from 2003 to the present, Waller spent four summers, from 2002-2005, working in NFL Europe. He was an assistant athletics trainer for the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe in 2002. During the summer of 2003, he was hired as the head trainer for the Barcelona Dragons. In the summer 2004, Waller was head athletics trainer for the Scottish Claymores, and his final year in NFL Europe he was the head trainer for the Hamburg Sea Devils.

He served an internship with the Arizona Cardinals of the NFL, and has worked with the Justin Sports Medicine Team at rodeo events since 1999.

Waller holds a certification from the National Academy of Sports Medicine as a corrective exercise specialist. He has been certified by the National Athletic Trainers Board of Certification.

Waller has been an accredited clinical instructor at the University of New Mexico since 2003, teaching among other things therapeutic modality, therapeutic rehabilitation exercises and athletic training mock/muscle testing.

Should injuries occur, the staff at Gem City also is able to provide expertise in treatment and rehabilitation through their clinic located in Laramie, Wyo.

As a demonstration of its support of UW Athletics, Gem City Bone & Joint made a major commitment of support to the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) at the University of Wyoming for a medical treatment facility. In recognition of that support, the medical area of the RAC is named the "Gem City Bone & Joint Sports Medicine and Rehabilitation Center." The financial arrangement with Gem City benefitted UW Athletics in the amount of $750,000.

ALL-AMERICANS

Trenton Franz was a First Team Academic All-American in 2004, and earned a prestigious Postgraduate Fellowship from the National Football Foundation. After completing his bachelor's degree in civil engineering, he pursued his graduate studies at Princeton. Franz was also a team captain of Wyoming's 2004 Las Vegas Bowl Championship Team.

The University of Wyoming Football program has enjoyed a rich tradition of attracting outstanding student-athletes to UW. The quality of these young men is perhaps best represented by the number of Academic All-Americans who have worn the Cowboy colors.

Since 1952, when the College Sports Information Directors of America began selecting Academic All-America teams, the University of Wyoming has produced 16 First Team Academic All-Americans.

In both 1996 and 1997, Wyoming's football program led the nation in First Team honorees with two First Team selections in 1996 and three in 1997.

The most recent honoree was one of the school's most decorated of all time. Offensive center Trenton Franz was honored as a First Team Academic All-American in 2004 by CoSIDA. The civil engineering major, finished his academic career with a 3.81 cumulative grade-point average. An Academic All-Mountain West Conference honoree and Scholar-Athlete for three consecutive seasons, Franz earned a prestigious Postgraduate Fellowship from the National Football Foundation. He was one of only eight NCAA Division I-A football players to be awarded that postgraduate scholarship in 2004. In addition, he was one of six finalists from the state of Wyoming in consideration for a Rhodes Scholarship. After completing his bachelor's degree in civil engineering at Wyoming, he pursued his graduate studies at Princeton.

Academic All-America criteria require a student-athlete to achieve a minimum 3.20 cumulative grade-point average while making a significant contribution to his team on the field.

Cory Wedel and Jay Korth

Two-Time Academic All-Americans

Teammates Jay Korth and Cory Wedel share the distinction of being the only two Wyoming Cowboys to earn First Team Academic All-America honors twice. Wedel and Korth were both named to the Academic All-America First Team in 1996 and 1997.

Brian Lee

First Team Academic All-American and Consensus All-American

In 1997, Brian Lee accomplished a very rare feat as he earned First Team Academic All-America honors and Consensus All-America honors in the same season. He is the only Cowboy in school history to achieve both those honors.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION

SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

John Wendling was one of only 17 national finalists for the National Football Foundation's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded each year to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. Here Wendling is pictured with 2006 NFF College Football Hall of Fame Inductee Emmitt Smith at the annual NFF & College Hall of Fame Awards Dinner.

Hampshire Honor Society

Beginning in 2007, the National Football Foundation created the Hampshire Honor Society to honor college football players across the country who achieved both on and off the football field.

Wyoming has had three players receive the honor each of the first five years of the award's existence. Those former Cowboy honorees are listed below.

Each year since 1959, the National Football Foundation (NFF) has honored the nation's best all-around college football players with its National Scholar-Athlete program. The top college football student-athletes have been recognized by the NFF for their athletic ability, academic prowess and civic leadership.

Through the years, four Wyoming Cowboys have received this prestigious honor. Pat Smyth in 1959, Marty Eliopoulos in 1986, Trenton Franz in 2004 and John Wendling in 2006 were chosen by the National Football Foundation for this elite honor.

Wyoming's most recent honoree, John Wendling, was named one of only 17 national finalists for the NFF's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is presented annually by the NFF to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. It is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". By being named a finalist, Wendling was also named to the NFF's National Scholar-Athlete team, and he was awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

The 2006 winner was fullback Brian Leonard from Rutgers. Other 2006 Draddy finalists included: quarterback Chris Leak of Florida and All-America offensive lineman Joe Thomas of Wisconsin.

Wendling became the second Wyoming Cowboy in three seasons to be named a Draddy Finalist. Former Cowboy center Trenton Franz earned the honor in 2004. Franz went on to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Princeton University.

Former Wyoming Cowboy Chris Prosinski joined some very elite company when the National Football Foundation (NFF) selected him as one of only five high school student-athletes in the nation to be honored in its 2006 NFF High School Scholar-Athlete Class. Prosinski was the West Region honoree.

Over one million high school student-athletes play football each season. The NFF, through its 120 chapters nationwide, honor approximately 2,500 of these high school student-athletes with over $800,000 in annual scholarships.

From that group of 2,500 scholarship recipients, the NFF chooses only five for the distinct honor of National High School Scholar-Athlete.

The annual National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame Awards Dinner is perhaps the greatest collection of football royalty found anywhere. In addition to honoring current college and high school student-athletes, the event marks the induction of a new class into the College Hall of Fame.

All of the college and high school honorees gather together with the Hall of Fame Class at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City in December each year, to be recognized for their accomplishments.

Wyoming's Law School

The Classroom Building

If you are looking for a wonderful college environment, look no further than the University of Wyoming. From its' beautiful mountain setting in Laramie, to its wide range of academic offerings and its nationally-respected football program, UW offers a memorable college experience to its students.

UW provides an atmosphere that allows you to achieve both your academic and athletic goals.

The University was founded in 1886. It opened with one building, five professors, two tutors and 42 students. Programs of study included philosophy, arts, literature and science. We've come a long way since then.

Today, UW offers approximately 180 undergraduate, graduate and professional degree programs through the colleges of Agriculture, Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, Engineering, Health Sciences and Law, as well as through the Graduate School and the Outreach School, including the University of Wyoming/Casper College Center. This wide range of choices allows each student to explore many options to find his or her career niche. Another way we contribute to the success of our students is by offering a large number of courses each semester, making it possible for most to graduate in four years.

Our comfortable size and hands-on approach give students ample access to their professors who have as their primary responsibility the education of undergraduate students. Unlike faculty at most other major research universities, our faculty teach more than 90 percent of all credit hours. In fact, many of our most accomplished professors teach first-year courses — beginning the mentoring process with students from the first day of class. Our students have a chance to work with world-class faculty on cutting-edge projects that benefit people across Wyoming and around the world — projects like creating super-strong artificial spider silk or studying stressors that contribute to cardiovascular disease.

At UW, we encourage students to develop their full potential by becoming involved as active members of the university, local community and the world. Opportunities for involvement in some 200 recognized student organizations include student government, publications, the speech and debate team and religious and cultural organizations. Many of our students also take advantage of exceptional international opportunities to become part of the world community through Study Abroad and International Programs. With so many choices, our students enjoy the benefits of meeting new people, making good friends, developing leadership skills and gaining invaluable life experiences.

UW offers a true college-town atmosphere. Laramie has a population of approximately 30,000 with a student enrollment of 13,476. The Laramie campus is composed of 80 major buildings on 785 beautifully landscaped acres. There is a pleasant mix of modern and traditional structures, many built of native Wyoming sandstone quarried northeast of Laramie. At the heart of the campus is the Wyoming Union, our "living room." Fresh from a new multi-million dollar renovation, the union is where students can kick back between classes, have a sandwich, meet friends, check out an art exhibit or study.

UW is the perfect place for learning in a friendly yet achievement-oriented environment.

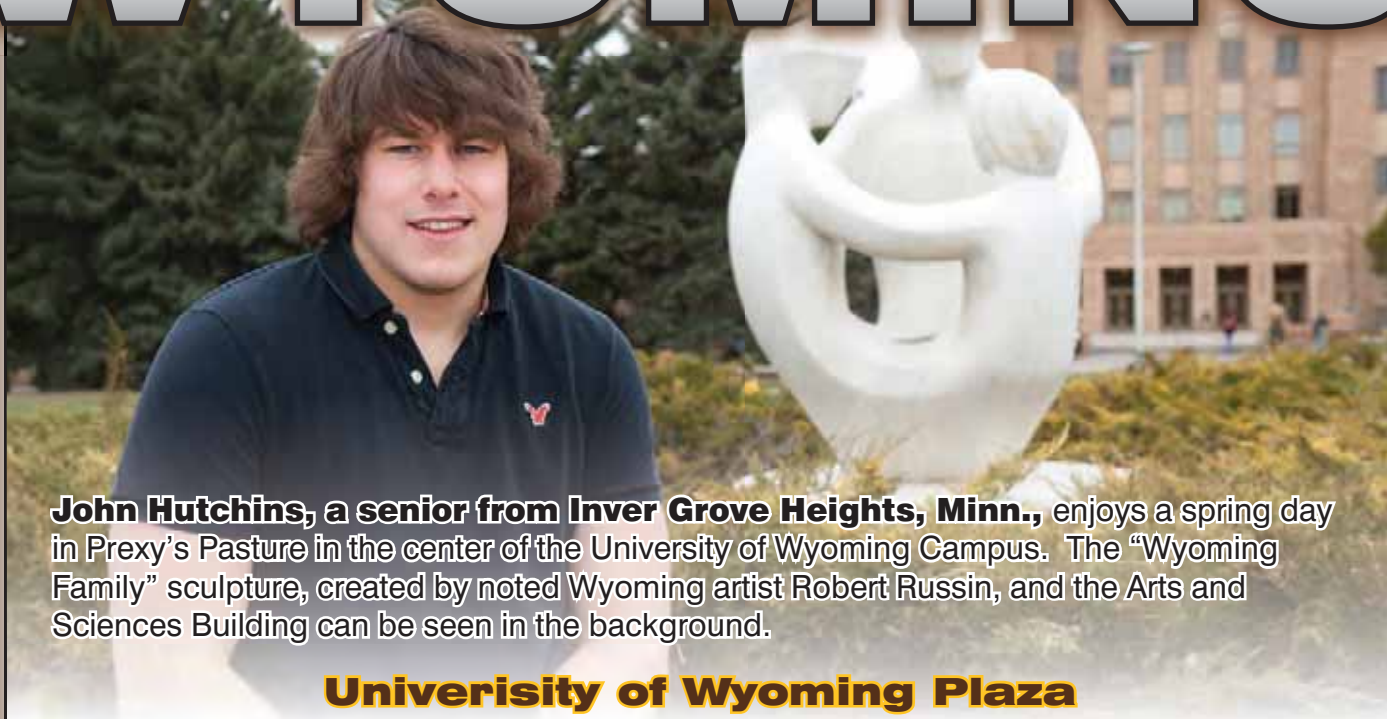

As the state's sole four-year educational institution, the university receives strong support from the state and its residents. There is a dedication to making UW the best it can be in terms of its facilities, programs, people and aesthetics. Capital improvements on campus are a high priority, reflecting a commitment to maintaining UW's world-class stature.

National Publications Rank Wyoming as One of the Nation's Best

- In August of 2009, Forbes ranked the University of Wyoming No. 5 among its "America's Best College Buys", and it ranked UW No. 17 among its list of "America's Best Public Colleges".
- The Princeton Review's 2009 edition of "The Best 371 Colleges" ranked Wyoming as "One of the Nation's Best Institutions for Undergraduate Education" and as a "Best Western College".
- Barron's Best Buys in College Education ranked UW among the top four-year United States institutions in its fifth edition.

The Grand Avenue Land Partners, LLC was formed in December of 2005 to develop and operate the University of Wyoming Plaza Commercial Shops. The Plaza has had numerous shops open since 2008, with additional shops expected to be added in the future.

Currently the UW Plaza includes such businesses as Coal Creek Coffee, Grand Avenue Newstand, Great Clips, Jimmy John's Gourment Sandwiches, McAlister's Deli and Union Wireless. There is a total of 58,000 square feet available for retail shops and restaurants and another 30,000 square feet of Class A office space available for sale or lease.

The anchor for the University of Wyoming Plaza Development is the Hilton Garden Inn. The Hilton Garden Inn opened in the spring of 2008, and includes 135 guest rooms and the 22,000 square foot University of Wyoming Conference and Education Center.

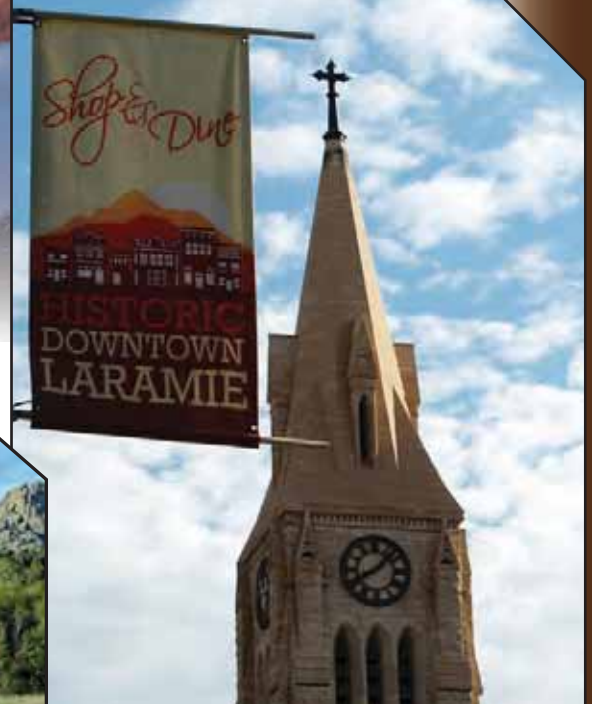

Beginning in the fall of 2009, the Wyoming Cowboy Football team began spending Friday nights before home games at the Hilton.

Also in 2009, the Cowboys began a new Saturday morning tradition, "The Cowboy Walk", in which the team walks across 22nd Street to their locker room in the Rochelle Athletics Center just north of War Memorial Stadium. Cowboy fans are encouraged to participate in "The Cowboy Walk" on gamedays, which provides fans an opportunity to see the Cowboys up close as they make their way to the stadium.

LARAMIE

...BEAUTIFUL COLLEGE TOWN

One of the best things about Laramie is its location between two beautiful mountain ranges. It's a place of blue skies and clean air. Much of the area surrounding Laramie is public National Forest land. That means great access! You can head for the nearby mountains and find yourself on a hiking, biking or skiing trail within 15 minutes. There's also nearby rock climbing at the impressive Vedauwoo formations. You can be downhill skiing in the Snowy Range within 45 minutes. Laramie is convenient to the world-class skiing offered in Steamboat Springs and other Colorado resorts.

For a different kind of fun, you can be in Denver within two and a half hours. There is an amazing array of culture throughout the area, plus the tremendous sports heritage of the Rockies, Broncos, Nuggets and Avalanche.

With its colorful Western heritage, cultural activities and outstanding outdoor recreation, the Laramie area captivates visitors from all over the world.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The University of Wyoming Athletics Department believes that a student-athlete's college education reaches beyond the classroom and the playing field. UW student-athletes are encouraged to participate in a variety of community activities.

Among some of the outreach activities that Wyoming athletes have been involved in are: Summer Sports Festivals around the state of Wyoming, fundraising events for local United Way agencies, Habitat for Humanity, family fitness nights at local elementary schools, community events for the March of Dimes and Big Brothers and Big Sisters, and speaking engagements at public schools and youth groups around Wyoming.

The speaking engagements include involvement of UW student-athletes in the "Just Say No Program" which encourages young people to say no to drugs and alcohol. Another program that University of Wyoming student-athletes participate in is the "Teach Them to Read" program, whereby athletes go to local elementary schools and assist children with reading and writing skills.

It is hoped that by interacting with the community, UW student-athletes and the people they touch will develop a closer relationship and be able to learn from one another.

With student-athletes from Florida to California, it is also reassuring to those athletes and their families that they have an opportunity to become a part of the Wyoming community during their years in college.

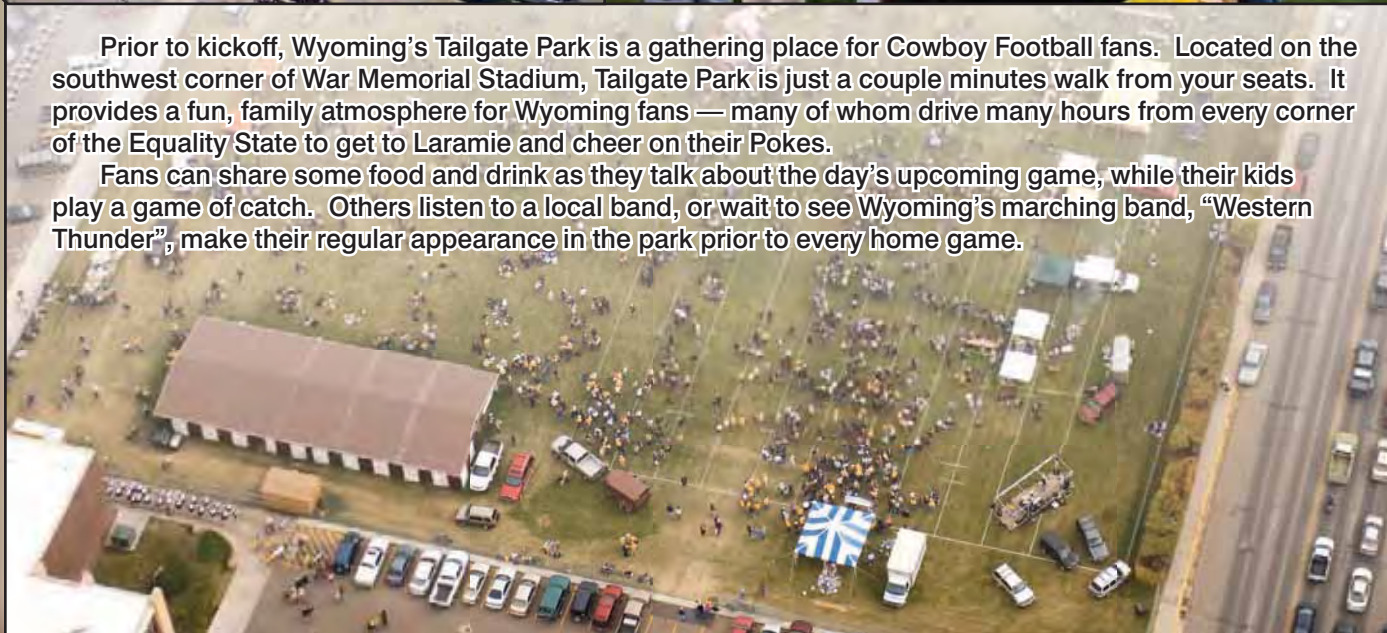

TAILGATING

AT WYOMING

Prior to kickoff, Wyoming's Tailgate Park is a gathering place for Cowboy Football fans. Located on the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium, Tailgate Park is just a couple minutes walk from your seats. It provides a fun, family atmosphere for Wyoming fans — many of whom drive many hours from every corner of the Equality State to get to Laramie and cheer on their Pokes.

Fans can share some food and drink as they talk about the day's upcoming game, while their kids play a game of catch. Others listen to a local band, or wait to see Wyoming's marching band, "Western Thunder", make their regular appearance in the park prior to every home game.

War Memorial Stadium is the only state-and privately-funded memorial to Wyoming veterans, but when it was dedicated it honored only those who served in World War II. This Veterans' Memorial Plaza now adds the veterans of all other wars, thereby making the entire stadium truly a Wyoming veterans' memorial.

THE

MEMORIAL PLAZA

Gen. Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff who lettered for the Cowboys from 1966 to 1968, spoke to the team prior to a recent game.

It has been 61 years since the inaugural football season at War Memorial Stadium. Over 5 million Cowboy fans have witnessed the glory of Wyoming football in its beautiful confines. The Pokes have won 67 percent of their games in War Memorial Stadium, making it one of the most feared places to play for opponents. However, the magnificent football venue, along with its fieldhouse counterpart, had very humble beginnings. The very thought of the two structures started out as just a dream by the UW Board of Trustees at the end of World War II in 1946.

The 'War to End All Wars' hit the University of Wyoming hard, as many of its students left school to serve their country. But at the conclusion of the war, UW President George 'Duke' Humphrey, Athletics Director Glenn 'Red' Jacoby and the UW Board of Trustees started a state-wide campaign to help raise additional money for the construction of a new football stadium and basketball fieldhouse for the Cowboys. The two structures would be living memorials to honor those Wyoming natives who served in World War II. The Board of Trustees believed that such facilities would serve an important role in the physical development of Wyoming's future generations.

On September 16, 1950, the Cowboys downed Montana State 61-13 in their new stadium. A week later, September 23, 1950, President Humphrey, along with Athletics Director Jacoby, dedicated War Memorial Stadium to over thirty-thousand Wyoming veterans who bravely served in World War II. The Pokes went on to win their second home game in the stadium, 7-0 over Baylor.

"War Memorial Stadium is a state memorial to our war heroes. Surely, there could be no better way the people of Wyoming could memorialize the men and women of our state who served so bravely in World War II," said Jacoby in 1950.

Since World War II many citizens of Wyoming have served their country during times of conflict. Some even gave the ultimate sacrifice for the values of freedom, independence and liberty — values every person in Wyoming holds close to their heart.

The University of Wyoming, along with the Veterans' Memorial Plaza committee dedicated an addition to this beautiful stadium in 2003. The Veterans' Memorial Plaza recognizes all Wyoming veterans who have bravely and faithfully served their country in any time of armed conflict. This dedication makes true to the title "War Memorial Stadium".

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza was funded almost identically to how the stadium was funded over 50 years ago. The committee received funds from the Wyoming State Legislature, University of Wyoming, the Wyoming Governor's Office, along with veterans, corporations and general public donations. War Memorial Stadium was funded in the same manner as the Wyoming State Legislature and public donations footed much of the cost of its construction.

The Plaza is separated into two sections in the north end zone. As you look north, the section on the right displays flags of every military branch; Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard and Merchant Marines. That structure also features a dedication plaque to all Wyoming veterans as well as two plaques listing all contributors to the memorial funding. The section to the left proudly displays the United States flag and Wyoming's state flag along with the P.O.W./M.I.A. banner. The original plaque that dedicated War Memorial Stadium to the veterans of World War II on September 23, 1950, also is located there, as is a plaque presented to UW by Vice President Dick Cheney on Veterans Day 1999 (during the 20th Century Commemorative of Veterans' celebration).

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the bravery and faithful service Wyoming veterans have given our country for over half a century. A nation, along with the state of Wyoming, will forever be indebted.

WYOMING

...THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE IT

They say it's beauty is like no other, and you fall in love with its people.

Wyoming, it is like no place on earth. Within it's boundaries is America's first and largest national park, Yellowstone. The unbounding beauty there includes "Old Faithful" geyser and Yellowstone Lake, the world's largest high-mountain lake. There is Yellowstone Falls, so awe-inspiring, it'll take your breath away. There are over 260 different species of animals and birds located there.

Wyoming's wonders seem to be unending. There is Grand Teton National Park, whose centerpiece is the spectacular Teton Mountain Range. There is Devil's Tower, America's first national monument. There is the world's largest mineral hot springs located in Thermopolis. There is the beauty of Ten Sleep Canyon and a hundred other places.

For breathtaking beauty, Wyoming is unmatched. Its reputation brings millions of visitors to its borders each year. Plus, some of the best skiing in America can be found in Wyoming. Tourists and sportsmen can't wait to get here to enjoy the clean mountain air and limitless outdoor attractions.

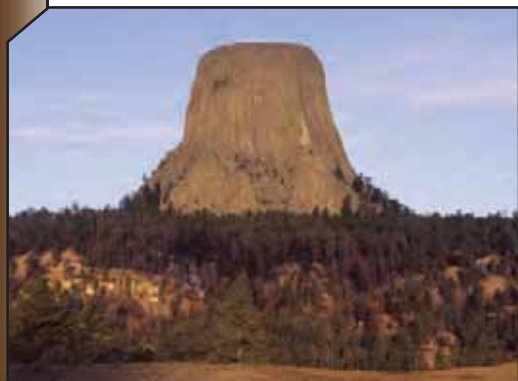

The history of the great American West can be heard whistling through the trees of Wyoming. Wyoming had an historic place in the taming of the West in the late 1800's. Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were two of Wyoming's most famous citizens during the era of lawlessness. There remain plenty of reminders of an age that will live forever in American lore.

People are Wyoming's strongest resource. These folks are down to earth, friendly and helpful. And, oh how proud they are of their Cowboys. Wyoming has some of the best fans in America. As their only four-year university, Wyoming folks are tremendously supportive of their teams.

Yet, as down to earth as they are, many Wyomingites are on the cutting edge of politics, entertainment and business. Among some of the most famous are: former Vice President of the United States Dick Cheney; Dr. Jerry Buss, owner of the Los Angeles Lakers; Dean Conger, former chief photographer of the National Geographic Society; Curt Gowdy, the most decorated national sportscaster in history; Alan Simpson, former United States Senator; Gerry Spence, attorney and television personality; and General Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff.

For great people, great scenery and a great education, there is no place quite like Wyoming.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Wyoming Cowboys Looking Forward to a 2011 Season That Will be Led by a Strong, Experienced Defense and a Young, Exciting Offense

As the Wyoming Cowboys prepare for the 2011 college football season there are a number of obvious strengths. The most obvious being a talented, experienced defense led by the likes of seniors Josh Biezuns, Tashaun Gipson, Brian Hendricks, Gabe Knapton and Oliver Schober. There are also some obvious question marks entering the season, most notably determining a starting quarterback among two freshmen contenders.

The Cowboy defense has added depth to both the defensive line and linebacker units. Both of those areas were already filled with experience, but the addition of some new, talented individuals this season should make the defense even more effective. Add to those two areas the encouraging development of the secondary, despite having three new starters, and the defense looks to be Wyoming's strength entering the 2011 season.

Offensively, there is one sure thing about the Wyoming quarterback competition — the starting quarterback will be a freshman. True freshmen Brett Smith and Adam Pittser will compete for that starting spot. Those young quarterbacks should benefit from the talents of some exciting players on the offensive side of the ball such as running back Alvester Alexander and receivers Chris McNeill and Robert Herron, to name a few. Another exciting addition to the offense is new offensive coordinator and quarterbacks' coach Gregg Brandon. Brandon will be entering his 30th season as a college coach in 2011. Included in his coaching experience have been stops at Wyoming, Northwestern and Colorado as an assistant coach and Bowling Green as an assistant and head coach.

A total of 16 starters return for the Cowboys — seven on offense, eight on defense and senior punter Austin McCoy. Of those 16 returning starters, seven earned All-Mountain West Conference recognition in 2010. Senior Biezuns was a Second Team All-Conference choice at defensive end. Cornerback Gipson, linebacker Hendricks, and defensive end Knapton were all Honorable Mention selections on defense. Running back Alexander and center Nick Carlson were Honorable Mention choices on offense, and punter McCoy also earned Honorable Mention recognition.

The defense returns all four starters on the defensive line in senior defensive ends Biezuns and Knapton, junior defensive tackle Mike Purcell and sophomore D-tackle Patrick Mertens. At linebacker, senior Hendricks will be joined by returning starter Devyn Harris (sophomore). Senior Gipson is the lone returning starter in the secondary.

The other defensive starter returning to the team is junior Ghaali Muhammad, but he was moved from linebacker to running back in the spring to add depth at that position.

Biezuns led Wyoming in both quarterback sacks (6.5) and tackles for losses (10.5) in 2010. He ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 59 in the NCAA in sacks. He also ranked No. 5 in the conference in tackles for losses. At the other defensive end spot, Knapton enters his senior season ranked No. 11 on UW's career tackle chart with 287. The converted linebacker led all MW defensive linemen in tackles last year with 67, in his first season playing the position. Hendricks has 204 career tackles and needs 99 more to break into the Top 10 in school history. He has averaged 98 tackles over the past two seasons, and in 2009 ranked No. 12 in the NCAA in tackles. Gipson tied for No. 2 in the conference and No. 26 in the NCAA in passes defended as a junior, averaging 1.00 per game. He has started every game of his Wyoming career — 37 consecutive games. Mertens and Harris had outstanding redshirt freshman seasons, and were both honored with national All-Freshman honors from Phil Steele's Publications. Mertens was named to the Second Team, and Harris was a member of the Fourth Team All-Freshman squad. Add to this mix, senior Schober, who will take over the middle linebacker spot with Hendricks moving outside, and you have a very deep and talented defensive unit returning for defensive coordinator Marty English. English will be entering his third season as Wyoming's defensive coordinator in 2011, and will be entering his ninth season on the Wyoming coaching staff.

"I'm excited about our defense," said third-year head coach Dave Christensen. "We have a number of quality players who can contribute. I think the key to us defensively is going to be playing a lot of guys, keeping guys fresh and being able to play 100 miles an hour every snap."

"We've improved our depth at all positions. We have quality backups across the board, and I believe we have 18 to 20 guys who we can play defensively. We're going to try to utilize them by different personnel groups — nickel, dime, base — and get more guys involved. The philosophy in our program is if you're playing as good as the guy in front of you on the depth chart we're going to try and find a way to get you on the field."

The leading returners on offense are Alexander at running back and Carlson at center. Both will be juniors in 2011. The other returning offensive starters are: wide receiver Chris McNeill (junior); offensive linemen John Hutchins (senior), Clayton Kirven (senior) and Josh Leonard (junior); and H-Back Bryson Studnicka (senior).

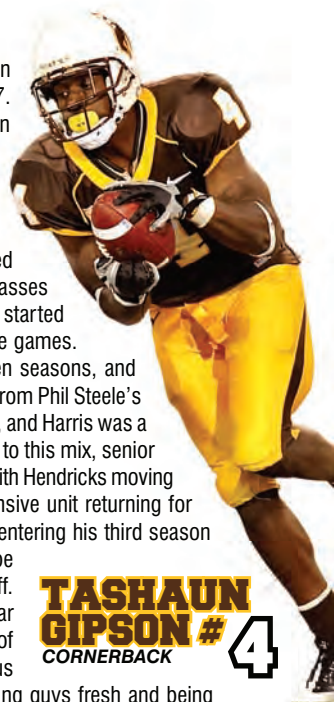

"I believe we're deeper than we've been at a number of positions offensively, but we're still young on that side of the ball," said Christensen. "We're going to have to have some guys mature in a hurry, and those players who do have experience need to have their best years ever."

"Brett Smith graduated early from high school, participated in spring ball and did a good job. He's just young. But he worked extremely hard, and we were pleased with his development. We will add another young talent to the mix when Adam Pittser joins us this summer."

The running back position is deeper than it has been in years. Alexander rushed for over 1,400 combined yards his freshman and sophomore seasons. He netted 792 rushing yards as a sophomore. Alexander also recorded three 100-yard rushing games in 2010 — 123 versus Air Force, a career best 151 at New Mexico and 147 in the season finale vs. Colorado State. He had the second longest run from scrimmage in the nation in the 2010 season, breaking a 94-yard touchdown run against New Mexico. Finally, he set new school records for most rushing touchdowns in a single season (14) and most rushing touchdowns in a single game (5 vs. Colorado State). Alexander was hampered with an injury during spring practice and missed all the spring scrimmages, but he should be back at full strength come fall.

The individual who came out of spring No. 1 on the depth chart at running back was sophomore Brandon Miller, a converted wide receiver. Also on the depth chart at running back is: former starting linebacker Muhammad, a junior; sophomore Nehemie Kankolongo; and true freshman Kody Sutton.

Wyoming's receiving corps is led by junior McNeill, who had 28 receptions for 257 yards in 2010. He has started 19 career games. Senior Mazi Ogonna came on strong toward the end of the 2010 season — his first after transferring from Snow Community College in Utah. Sophomore Herron had the most impressive spring of any receiver. Herron, who played both running back and receiver as a true freshman last year, provides Wyoming with a true breakaway threat. Seniors Jonathan Aiken and DeJay Lester should also fit into the mix, as should converted quarterback Sam Stratton, a redshirt freshman who made a quick adjustment to his new position last spring. A couple sophomores who will provide bigger targets for the Cowboy quarterbacks are tight ends T.J. Smith (6-3, 220) and Spencer Bruce (6-5, 225).

The offensive line unit includes several experienced individuals led by junior Carlson at center. The Cowboy coaching staff experimented with a number of combinations in the spring in an attempt to find the five best lineman to start the 2011 season. Carlson has started 20 of the 21 career games he has played over his first two seasons. Three other Cowboys also have starting experience. Senior tackle Kirven has started 36 games. Fellow senior Hutchins has 13 starts to his credit at tackle and guard, and junior Leonard has started 10 games in his career. Hutchins enters the fall No. 1 at left tackle with Kirven listed No. 2 at that position. Leonard is listed second at right tackle behind the team's most improved offensive lineman of the spring, junior Kyle Magnuson. While the center and tackle spots have experienced starters returning, the two guard positions don't enjoy that luxury. Converted defensive lineman Tyler Strong, a sophomore, had an outstanding spring and is listed No. 1 at left guard. Senior Brandon Self enjoyed the best spring of his career and is slated to start at right guard. Among several other likely competitors for playing time at guard will be first-year junior college transfer Zach Rushing.

Guiding the offensive unit will be first-year offensive coordinator and quarterbacks' coach Brandon, who was an assistant coach at Wyoming from 1987-90 under legendary head coach Paul Roach. The Cowboys won two Western Athletic Conference titles in 1987 and '88 and made three bowl appearances during that four-year span, playing in the '87 and '88 Holiday Bowls and the 1990 Copper Bowl. Christensen also made a couple of changes to his defensive staff in the offseason.

"It was a great opportunity for Marcus (former offensive coordinator Marcus Arroyo) to go to Cal as the quarterbacks' coach, and I think it was an even better opportunity for us to hire Gregg Brandon as our new offensive coordinator," said Christensen. "Gregg is one of the foremost experts on the spread offense. He and his staff at Bowling Green helped us implement this offense at Missouri, and he and I have had a coaching relationship for many years going back to when Gregg was at Northwestern. To be able to bring in a guy with his level of experience, knowledge and maturity to lead our offense is extremely valuable. He's been a huge, huge plus for our young offensive players.

"On the defensive side of the ball, we have Matt Rahl and Danilo Robinson coaching the defensive line. We now have two guys coaching that position, which will give those players more individualized attention. They're both young, energetic guys, and I know they will pick up where Jerry Montgomery left off in developing our defensive line. We wish Jerry all the best in his new opportunity at the University of Michigan.

"As a staff, I think we are as strong as we've ever been. Adding a new director of recruiting in Brent Vernon and a new football ops director in Brian Wilkinson adds to the strength of our staff. I always thought we had an outstanding staff, and now I think we truly have one of the best staffs in America. They all care about kids, are very passionate about what they do in teaching the game of football and they're very knowledgeable."

Christensen and his staff have now had a chance to recruit three classes at Wyoming. The head coach is excited by the way his staff has been able to build on its recruiting success each of the past three seasons.

"Each year, we've worked extremely hard in recruiting," said Christensen. "The first year the recruiting class was done in a month. You know going in that you won't have as good an opportunity to get to know those kids and develop relationships with them in the short amount of time you have to recruit that first class. The second year, I think we went out and recruited an extremely good class, and our third year may be the strongest class we've recruited in our three years.

"We've continued to build the team with the idea that we first wanted to build a strong foundation and then continue to recruit the types of players who we feel best fit our system and our schemes and who have the discipline to meet the demands that we put on our players. We are still building, but we couldn't be more excited about getting these guys back in August and start building for that season opener. This group of kids has as good a work ethic and as much determination as any team I've ever been involved with, and as a coach you can't ask for more than that."

The 2011 season will kick off on Saturday, Sept. 3 with Wyoming hosting Weber State in Laramie. The Cowboys play at home again the following week versus Texas State on Sept. 10 before making their first road trip of the season to Bowling Green on Sept. 17. On Sept. 24, the Cowboys will host what is expected to be the biggest game in school history when Nebraska makes its first-ever appearance in Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium. The Nebraska game will be followed by one of two byes on the season. The Pokes will wrap up the non-conference portion of their schedule on Oct. 8 on the road at Utah State. Mountain West action will begin for Wyoming on Oct. 15 at home versus the UNLV Rebels.

"We have a schedule that is laid out in a positive way for us," said Christensen. "We begin with two home games and then we rotate back and forth between home and away games. We have two byes, which fell at ideal times for us — one after the Nebraska game and the other at the midpoint of the season. I think those are in very good places. The only time we play back-to-back road games is at the end of the season at Boise State and at Colorado State. We like the way the schedule sets up."

Defense

Defensive Line: "I'm very pleased to have all four guys back who started every game for us up front last year," said Christensen.

"Josh Biezuns is a physical presence at defensive end. He's a great pass rusher and a big-time playmaker. Josh has made a lot of big plays since he moved from linebacker to defensive end. Gabe Knapton is a standup guy, who I believe made a big impact for us by moving from linebacker to defensive end a year ago. He has a great motor, plays extremely hard from the first snap to the last, and we're looking for him to have a big year for us.

"We have a number of other guys who are going to make this a deep group at defensive end. Mat Birkeness has a lot of game experience. Mark Willis, who played for us before getting injured last season, is someone we expect will be healthy to start fall camp. Eddie Yarbrough is a highly-recruited true freshman out of Colorado, and is a young player we're excited about. Miraldo Michel is a junior college player (from Ellsworth Community College in Iowa), who missed spring ball due to injury but is a player we're anxious to see what he can do. Sonny Puletasi needs to continue to build on the improvements he's made and needs to continue to get bigger, but we feel he has a chance to get on the field.

"Our two tackles gained valuable experience as young players a year ago, and they are much better now than they were last season. Both Mike (Purcell) and Patrick (Mertens) have great work ethic. They've both gotten bigger and stronger, and we've got some guys behind them.

Ben Durbin has a lot of experience, played a lot last year. Kurt (Taufa'asau) did some nice things in the spring, and we believe he will be able to contribute this season. Riley Lange is a redshirt freshman who is making progress. He just needs to continue to put size on to hold up inside."

Linebackers: "At the WILL linebacker, Brian Hendricks has been a very good player for us. He has a lot of experience. Brian was healthy this spring, and when he is healthy he is a dynamic player. Todd Knight made some nice progress this past spring, and looks like he will be able to help us out this year.

"In the middle, Oliver (Schober) was limited in spring due to injury, but has good experience. He is a great worker and a great leader. Devyn Harris definitely brings us another talented, experienced linebacker there. Alex Borgs got a lot of work his first spring with Oliver being out, and he will be able to contribute in a number of areas for us whether that be on defense or special teams.

"It's a nice problem to have when you have more good players at a position than you have starting spots. At the LEO linebacker, we added two talented individuals to our team in the spring in Mark Nzeocha (from Neusitz, Germany) and Korey Jones (from Garden City Community College in Kansas). They both came in and did some real nice things in the spring. They competed well. They're both very athletic players, and we look at them as equal right now. We expect both of them to play. They both need to continue to learn and continue to improve, but we like their athleticism.

"I think as a group the linebacker position is faster, and hopefully that will show in terms of making plays in space. We've improved the group from an athletic standpoint for sure."

Secondary: "At cornerback, Tashaun (Gipson) and Marqueston (Huff) are very solid performers at corner. James Caraway has made as much improvement as any player on the football team, and has put himself in a position to be able to play for us next year. We feel very good about his progress. Darren White is another good, young prospect that continues to get better each day, and we see him being able to contribute in certain situations next year.

"Tashaun is of course our most experienced defensive back. He's played a lot of snaps against a lot of great players. Tashaun is a good football player. If he continues to have a great summer and does the things we ask of him, he's got a chance to put himself in a position to possibly be drafted next year.

"Quest (Marqueston Huff) will be a first-year starter, but he got on the field for us last season as a true freshman. He knows what it's like to lineup in front of a big crowd, and he knows the pressure of playing in NCAA Division I football. I think that experience is going to pay dividends for us this year.

STRONG SAFETY

"We found out a lot about our safeties in the spring. Kenny Browder made great strides from last season to now. He performed extremely well for us at free safety all spring. Luke Ruff came into spring and did an extremely nice job also. Luke Anderson is a junior college kid who transferred here (from Blinn Community College in Texas) at the semester and had a good spring. Eric Mitchell is a senior who gives us another experienced safety. We think that everyone in this group will contribute for us and continue to compete for starting jobs. We also cross-trained our safeties for both positions to give us more flexibility."

Offense

Quarterbacks: "I thought Brett (Smith) did a nice job in the spring of coming out and leading the offense. He did a good job of executing the offense — his operation of the offense was extremely good for a first-year guy. I was also very pleased with how he took care of the football, made good decisions with the ball and understood the importance of protecting the ball. For a young guy playing against an experienced defense, he really progressed in his ability to read defenses and make good decisions. Adam Pittser, another true freshman, will join the competition in the fall, and I think it's going to be a position where the competition will be as good as any position on our football team."

Running Backs: "Brandon Miller stepped up and had a great spring. Alvester (Alexander) was hampered with an injury and so didn't get much work. We know what he can do when he's healthy, but he needs to come back out in the fall and show that he can play at the same high level he finished last season at. Ghaali Muhammad moved to running back in the spring and did some nice things until he was knocked out with an injury, so we'll have to see how he comes back. Nehemie Kankolongo had a really good spring — improved dramatically. And we're really excited about an incoming freshman, Kody Sutton from Texarkana, Texas, who is an explosive athlete."

H-Backs: "Bryson (Studnicka) and Shane (Sullivan) will be utilized in our power sets, when we want to get into a traditional I-formation or offset I. Shane will also be used in some other formations from the tight end spot. They are valuable guys in those special situations. Both had good springs, are hard workers and will be involved in our gameplan each and every week."

Receivers: "I thought Robert Herron really showed in the Spring Game what he was capable of. He caught the ball very well in the Spring Game. He needs to continue to improve, but he has great speed and has the ability to become a playmaker for us. Chris McNeill is our most experienced receiver. Chris is a very reliable receiver with good ball skills and good route-running ability. Mazi Ogbonna is a kid who played a lot last season for us after transferring from junior college. He stepped up his game toward the end of last season. He is a player who needs to improve his consistency, but if he does that he really has a chance to make an impact for us this coming season. Sam Stratton is a young player with good athletic ability who we moved over from quarterback in the spring. He did a good job of picking up the position, and we believe he will be able to contribute. Jonathan Aiken has big play potential. He could definitely be a big contributor for us if he improves his consistency. DeJay Lester was another JC transfer last year who played some for us. He's a senior who has a chance to compete for playing time. T.J. Smith came on to contribute at the end of last season. He has big-play ability, but missed spring due to injury. We expect him to be ready to go to start fall camp. T.J. is a bigger receiver. We will utilize his size, along with Spencer Bruce, inside. They both have good ball skills, and we hope will help us create some matchup problems due to their size."

"We're getting closer to having the type of personnel we need to run our spread offense the way we want to run it. We have five true freshmen receivers coming in this fall, and we have to see if some of them are in a position to help us. If we can get one or two of them to step in and contribute then I think our receiving corps will become even stronger."

"We would like to have six to seven solid receivers who we can count on to keep guys fresh and run the offense the way we would like."

Offensive Line: "I thought we made some good adjustments in the spring in terms of moving guys to different positions on the offensive line. The competition was good. We had some older kids step up and win starting jobs, beating out returning starters. I think as a unit, we're getting better. This is the best depth we've had since I've been here in terms of having a good number of experienced players who can contribute. We've got work yet to do, but I feel as good now about our offensive line as I have in any of our previous years. We also have a couple of junior college kids coming in this fall that we'll evaluate to see if they can help us."

"Hutch (John Hutchins) is a guy who's played a lot. He's really developed, has bought in and had a great spring. Clayton Kirven is another big kid who has started a lot of games for us. He has to work on eliminating mental errors, but he certainly has the experience to help us again his senior season. I think there will be great competition at that starting left tackle spot once we get into training camp this fall. Daniel Fleischman was a young player we were looking forward to getting a look at in spring, but he suffered an injury that knocked him out of spring practice."

"At right tackle, Kyle Magnuson was voted the Most Improved Offensive Lineman in spring ball. There was good competition between he and Josh Leonard at that spot. Josh has a lot of playing experience, but Kyle was getting the job done in the spring and came out of spring as the projected starter. The competition for who will start there for the first game should be outstanding during training camp."

"Nick (Carlson) is a very solid player for us at center. He has improved every year. Nick had a good year last year, and we expect him to have an even better year as a junior. Travis Bogard is a great young prospect, who we feel will be the next guy in line there for us at the center position. He is a guy who can also play some guard, but we feel very good about him backing up Nick."

"The guard position is an area we're still sorting out. Tyler Strong (at left guard) moved over from the defensive line, where he played as a true freshman, and he had a really good spring, particularly for someone who has never played offensive line. We're very pleased with where he's at. Brandon Self (at right guard) is a young man who's been in the program for a long time. He knows what he's doing. He did some really good things this spring, and we feel good about his improvement. Zach Rushing is a junior college kid joining us in the fall, who is big and physical. We expect him to compete for playing time at one of the guard positions. (Skyler) Hinton and (B.J.) Sumter were backups throughout spring, and we'll see in the fall if they can challenge to move up."

Punters: "It's nice to have a guy like Austin (McCoy) who has been productive for several years. The key for him is to make sure that his senior year is his best year. If he does that, he's going to have an opportunity to play beyond college. He can certainly be a weapon for us in terms of changing field position."

Place-kickers: "We know what Oliver (Schober) can do on kickoffs, and he worked some in the spring on extra points and field goals. Stuart Williams is a walkon who has been in the program and competed well this spring. Then we will have Daniel Sullivan, an All-State kicker from Washington, join us in the fall. We feel he is a young player who can step in and compete for the starting job right away. He was one of the top kickers in the nation, and we recruited him with the expectation that he would compete for that starting job immediately."

Long Snappers: "Zach Ewan was rated the No. 2 long snapper in the country as a high school senior. He played in the Under Armour All-America game. He throws back bullets. He is the most accurate, fastest snapper that I've ever seen in my college career. We're excited about having him here, and he's a guy who is going to have an opportunity to start the day he gets on campus."

DAVE CHRISTENSEN

(Western Washington '85)

Head Football Coach, University of Wyoming

Dave Christensen enters his third season as head coach of the Wyoming Cowboys in 2011.

You couldn't have asked for much more from a head coach in his first season. Dave Christensen's first year as a college head coach in 2009 was filled with highlights. He led the Wyoming Cowboys to a bowl game in his first season, becoming only the second Cowboy head coach to accomplish that feat — the other being Paul Roach in 1987. Christensen became the first UW head coach to win a bowl game in his first season, as his Pokes defeated Fresno State, 35-28 in double overtime, in the New Mexico Bowl. He also guided Wyoming to a road win over archrival Colorado State in the regular-season finale, bringing the Bronze Boot back to Laramie.

For a team that began the season picked to finish last (ninth) in the 2009 Mountain West Conference preseason poll, Christensen's Cowboys ended the season with a 7-6 overall record, a 4-4 league mark and a fifth-place finish in a league that had three teams end the season ranked among the Top 18 in both the Associated Press Media Poll and USA Today Coaches' Poll. And his team accomplished all this while playing a schedule that was ranked as the eighth toughest in the nation and included BCS national runner-up Texas.

While he delivered on his promise to the 2009 senior class that he would do everything he could to get them to a bowl game, he also built a team with an eye toward the future.

In his second season at UW, Christensen's young team faced one of the nation's most difficult schedules. Wyoming playing three teams that were ranked in the Top 5 in the nation at the time the Cowboys faced them (No. 3 Boise State, No. 4 Texas and No. 5 TCU) and played a fourth Top 10 ranked team in No. 10 Utah. Wyoming ended Christensen's second season on a high note, defeating archrival Colorado State, 44-0, in the season finale. Eight Cowboys earned All-Conference recognition at the conclusion of the season — two Second Team selections and six Honorable Mention honorees. Of those eight Cowboys earning All-MWC honors in 2010, seven return in 2011. The only All-Conference performer who doesn't return is free safety Chris Prosinski, who was selected in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft (the 121st overall pick) by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Wyoming Football hired its dynamic and innovative new leader on Dec. 1, 2008, as University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman announced that Christensen, then the Assistant Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator at Missouri, had been selected as the new head coach of the Cowboys.

"We are thrilled to be able to attract a coach with the experience that Coach (Dave) Christensen brings to our program," said Burman at the time of Christensen's hiring. "He is one of the great offensive minds in college football, and he will bring a very exciting brand of football to Jonah Field."

"The plan he presented to us for building a comprehensive program was the best we heard in our search process. I am confident that he will put an outstanding coaching staff together, and that they will hit the ground running. With Dave leading Cowboy Football, I believe our program will make dramatic progress in the coming years and return to a position of prominence in the Mountain West Conference."

After serving as an assistant coach at the college level for 24 years, Christensen expressed the emotions he felt upon earning his first head-coaching position.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to be given the opportunity to lead the Wyoming Cowboy Football program," said Christensen. "The opportunity to become a head coach is something I've been preparing for my entire career."

"This is a great job at an outstanding university. Wyoming has a rich football tradition, and combined with the new, state-of-the-art facilities, I know we can win here."

Christensen became the 31st coach in Wyoming Football history, and was signed to a five-year contract — a contract that was extended in the spring of 2010 to run through Dec. 31, 2014. At the time of Christensen's contract extension, Burman had this to say.

"In his first year, Coach (Dave) Christensen did an outstanding job of returning Wyoming Football to a competitive position in the Mountain West Conference. He led our football program to a winning record and a New Mexico Bowl victory, and it was evident by the large number of fans at the bowl game that he has reenergized our fan base."

"We are excited about the future of Cowboy Football and the leadership that Coach Christensen has provided, and we are pleased to announce this extension of his contract."

While the offensive coordinator at Missouri, Christensen was named the 2007 National Offensive Coordinator of the Year by Rivals.com and was also runner-up for the 2007 Frank Broyles Award, which honors the top assistant coach in the nation each season.

He helped lead the Missouri Tigers to the Big 12 Championship game in both the 2007 and 2008 seasons as champions of the Big 12 North.

In 2008, Missouri ranked No. 4 in the NCAA in passing offense (330.4 yards per game), No. 6 in scoring offense (42.2 points per game) and No. 8 in total offense (484.1 yards per game). The Tigers concluded the 2008 season ranked No. 16 in the final USA Today Coaches' Poll, No. 19 in the final Associated Press Media Poll and were No. 21 in the final BCS Rankings entering the college bowl season.

Missouri defeated Northwestern, 30-23 in overtime, in the 2008 Valero Alamo Bowl.

The 2007 season saw Missouri conclude the season ranked No. 4 in the final Associated Press ranking. That was the highest season-ending ranking in school history for the Tigers. Mizzou finished the season by defeating Arkansas, 38-7, in the Cotton Bowl, giving the Tigers a school record 12th win on the season. His 2007 offense ranked No. 5 in the nation in total offense (490.3 yards per game), No. 8 in scoring offense (39.9 points per game) and No. 9 in passing offense (314.1 yards per game).

Christensen served as an assistant coach under Gary Pinkel from 1992 to 2008 — first at the University of Toledo from 1992-2000 and then at Missouri from 2001-08. Christensen was Pinkel's offensive coordinator from 1997-2008, and coached the offensive line for 17 seasons at Toledo and Missouri.

Beginning in 2005, Christensen devised and implemented one of college football's most exciting, no-huddle, spread offenses.

In 2007, Missouri quarterback Chase Daniel finished fourth in the Heisman Trophy balloting, while Christensen's offense scored a school record 558 points, far surpassing the previous Missouri record of 399 points in a single season.

In addition to Daniel's fourth-place finish in the 2007 Heisman Trophy voting, Christensen's offensive unit had three other Tigers earn national honors that year. Senior tight end Martin Rucker and freshman wide receiver Jeremy Maclin were both Consensus First Team All-America selections, marking the first time in Missouri school history that it had two Consensus First Team All-Americans in the same season. Senior center Adam Spieker was named a finalist for the Rimington Award, which honors the nation's top offensive center each season. Spieker also earned Third Team All-America honors from Associated Press.

Three additional Tiger offensive linemen earned All-Big 12 honors in 2007, including Tyler Luellen (a Second Team selection), Colin Brown (Honorable Mention All-Big 12) and Kurtis Gregory (Honorable Mention All-Big 12).

His final season at Missouri, the Tigers once again had two Consensus First Team All-Americans in Maclin and tight end Chase Coffman. Coffman also was selected as the winner of the 2008 John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, while Maclin was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, which honors the nation's top wide receiver. Joining Coffman and Maclin as All-Big 12 offensive performers in '08 were: running back Derrick Washington (Second Team); offensive lineman Gregory (Second Team); offensive lineman Tim Barnes (Honorable Mention); offensive lineman Brown (Honorable Mention); quarterback Daniel (Honorable Mention) and wide receiver Tommy Saunders (Honorable Mention).

The Tigers finished the 2006 season with the nation's No. 8 ranked offense, averaging 425.6 yards per game, and that included the nation's No. 10 ranked passing attack, at 276.2 yards an outing. Two of Christensen's linemen earned All-Big 12 honors, as senior tackle Joel Clinger earned First Team honors and Spieker was an Honorable Mention selection.

Christensen's offense underwent a major transformation to a spread, no-huddle attack in 2005, and was very successful in the first year running the new system. His attack, executed by record-setting quarterback Brad Smith, ended the 2005 season ranked in the top four in the Big 12, and in the Top 40 nationally in three major categories - rushing (205.3 yards per game - No. 3 in the Big 12 and No. 17 in the NCAA), total offense (429.8 ypg - No. 4 in the Big 12 and No. 24 in the nation) and scoring offense (30.8 points per game - No. 4 in the Big 12 and No. 34 in the country).

Despite going to battle each week with a young offensive line that featured just one senior starter, the offense jelled right away, as the Tigers rolled to 657 yards in the 2005 season opener against Arkansas State. That was just three yards shy of the school record. Three of Christensen's linemen won All-Big 12 honors in 2005, led by senior left guard Tony Palmer, who earned First Team league honors for the first time in his career. He was joined by sophomore center Spieker and junior right tackle Joel Clinger, who both won Honorable Mention acclaim. Palmer also earned Second Team All-Big 12 accolades in 2004, and eventually became a seventh-round draft pick in the 2006 NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams.

In 2003, the Tiger rushing attack proved to be one of the most potent in the nation, as MU led the Big 12 Conference, and ranked sixth nationally with an average of 237.5 yards per game. That marked the first time since 1960 that MU won a conference rushing championship, when the Tigers led the old Big Eight with a mark of 249.3 yards per game. Its 3,087 rushing yards for the season ranked second in school history. Senior center A.J. Ricker and senior tackle Rob Droege each earned First Team All-Big 12 honors for their play in 2003, while sophomore guard Palmer earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12. Ricker and Droege both signed free agent contracts in the spring of 2004 with the Chicago Bears of the National Football League. Scott Paffrath signed a free agent deal with the Washington Redskins following the 2005 NFL Draft.

Under Christensen's guidance, Mizzou featured one of the most potent attacks in school history in 2002. The Tigers averaged 30.0 points per game, and the 360 points scored were the third-most in MU history at the time. Christensen's balanced run-pass attack turned redshirt freshman quarterback Brad Smith into one of the nation's most talked about players, as he became just the second player in NCAA Division I-A history to pass for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a season. Mizzou's emphasis on a disciplined attack also produced an offense that led the nation in fewest turnovers, with just 11 offensive giveaways in 12 games.

In his final seven seasons at the University of Toledo, the Rockets' offense set or reset some 75 school records. During that period, the Rockets posted an undefeated and Mid-American Conference (MAC) championship season in 1995 and won three MAC West titles (1997, 1998 and 2000). They concluded the '95 campaign with a 40-37 overtime win over Nevada to capture the Las Vegas Bowl Championship. In 1999, Toledo was 10th in the country in rushing (239.2) and led the nation in yards per attempt (5.35).

Christensen coached center Andy McCollum while at Toledo. McCollum was a First Team All-MAC selection in 1992, and would later become the starting center for the St. Louis Rams of the NFL. Another Toledo lineman, Colin Westrich, was named Third Team All-American by the Sporting News in 1999.

Christensen came to Toledo from Idaho State University where he coached the offensive line, tight ends and running backs for two seasons (1990-91). Prior to his stint at Idaho State, he served two seasons as a graduate assistant offensive line coach under Don James at the University of Washington in 1988 and '89. Christensen also played football for the Huskies for three seasons from 1980-82.

Christensen earned a bachelor of arts degree in sociology from Western Washington in 1985 and a master of science degree in college instruction and sports science from Eastern Washington in 1988.

He is 50 years old, born Jan. 17, 1961. Christensen and his wife Susie have three children, Katie, D.J. and Emily.

Houston and Southeast Texas

Former University of Wyoming assistant coach and former Bowling Green head coach Gregg Brandon enters his first season as Wyoming's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks' coach in 2011.

Brandon was the head coach at Bowling Green from 2003-08. During that six-year span, he led the Falcons to three bowl appearances and four winning seasons, including an 11-3 season in 2003, a 9-3 mark in 2004 and an 8-5 campaign in 2007. He won 60 percent of his games as a head coach, posting a head-coaching record of 44-30 at BGSU. In four of his six seasons as head coach, his teams averaged over 400 yards of total offense. Bowling Green defeated Northwestern in the 2003 Motor City Bowl, defeated Memphis in the 2004 GMAC Bowl and played Tulsa in the 2007 GMAC Bowl. The Falcons also earned a berth in the 2003 Mid-American Conference Championship game. His teams at Bowling Green recorded impressive non-conference wins: at Purdue (27-26 in 2003); at Minnesota (32-31 in 2007); and at Pittsburgh (27-17 in 2008). Bowling Green had 33 All-MAC selections and one MAC Player of the Year (Omar Jacobs in 2004) during Brandon's time at BGSU.

"I've known Gregg Brandon for a long time," said UW head coach Dave Christensen. "When we decided to implement the spread offense at Missouri, the person I contacted to teach our staff the spread was Gregg. He is one of the foremost experts on this offense in the country. He served as Urban Meyer's offensive coordinator at Bowling Green prior to becoming the head coach there for six seasons. Gregg, of course, also has ties to Wyoming. He coached here for four seasons with Coach (Paul) Roach, during one of the most successful periods in Wyoming Football history."

"I'm really excited to be back at the University of Wyoming," said Brandon. "I have great memories from here. As all Poke fans know, from '87-'90 we had a great run with back-to-back WAC Championships in '87 and '88 and a 16-0 run in conference. Those were great teams and working for Paul Roach was a tremendous experience. I learned so much football from him."

"I think this is a new era for Wyoming Football with Dave (Christensen). Dave and I have a history from when he was at Missouri and I was at Bowling Green. During those years, we had the opportunity to share ideas and share our offensive philosophies. To now be able to coach with him at a place like Wyoming that has great tradition and is a place where we can get great players and compete for a Mountain West Championship is about everything a coach can ask for. And at the same time to live in a great football community and state like Wyoming, I couldn't be happier."

Brandon's 2004 Falcon team set school and Mid-American Conference records for total offense (averaging 506.3 yards per game to rank No. 2 in the country) and scoring offense (averaging 44.3 points per game to rank No. 4 in the NCAA). That 2004 squad also averaged 338.3 passing yards per game to rank No. 3 in the nation, and had a pass efficiency rating of 165.5, ranking No. 4 in the country. His sophomore quarterback, Omar Jacobs, earned All-America honors, led the nation in touchdown passes with 41 and set an NCAA record for touchdown to interception ratio, throwing only four interceptions compared to his 41 TD passes during the '04 season. Bowling Green defeated Memphis, 52-35, in the 2004 GMAC Bowl.

In his first season as a head coach in 2003, Brandon guided the Falcons to a No. 23 national ranking in both the final Associated Press Poll and USA Today Coaches' Poll. Bowling Green was also ranked No. 24 in the 2003 final BCS standings, and was ranked for a school record eight consecutive weeks. The Falcons captured the Mid-American Conference West Division. BGSU's 2003 offense averaged 496.7 yards of total offense per game to rank No. 3 in the nation, 300.4 passing yards to rank No. 9 in the NCAA and 33.6 points per game to rank No. 20. Bowling Green concluded the season with a 28-24 win over Northwestern in the Motor City Bowl.

He was originally hired as Assistant Head Coach and Offensive Coordinator at Bowling Green in 2001 by Urban Meyer. In his two years in that position, he helped the Falcons post a combined 17-6 (.739) record. His 2002 offense ranked No. 3 in the NCAA in scoring offense (40.8 points per game), No. 8 in total offense (448.9 yards per game) and 15th in rushing (219.1 yards per game). BGSU broke 17 school records and seven MAC records that season.

From 1987-90, Brandon was the wide receivers' coach at Wyoming under head coach Paul Roach. During that four-year span, Wyoming won back-to-back Western Athletic Conference Championships in 1987 and '88 and went undefeated in conference play both years. The Cowboys appeared in the 1987 and 1988 Holiday Bowls. In 1990, UW earned an appearance in the Copper Bowl. Wyoming's combined record during Brandon's time as an assistant was 35-15-0 for a winning percentage of .700, and included records of 10-3 in 1987, 11-2 in 1988 and 9-4 in 1990.

After coaching at UW, Brandon was an assistant coach at Utah State (1991), Northwestern (1992-98), Colorado (1999-2000) and Bowling Green (2001-02), before serving as the head coach at Bowling Green (2003-08). In 2009, he was the offensive coordinator at Virginia, and in 2010 he was on the coaching staff of the Las Vegas Locomotives of the United Football League (UFL).

During his college career, he has helped lead nine teams to bowl appearances, including an appearance in the Rose Bowl at the conclusion of the 1995 season while coaching at Northwestern. Northwestern won the Big Ten title outright in 1995, and tied for the conference championship in 1996.

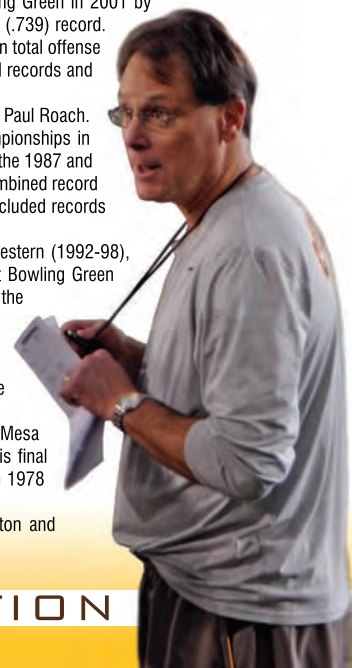

A native of Colorado Springs, Colo., he played his first year (1974) of college football at Mesa State in Grand Junction, Colo., before transferring to Northern Colorado where he played his final three seasons (1975-77) as a defensive back and wide receiver. He graduated from UNC in 1978 with a bachelor's degree in education.

He and his wife, Robyn, have two sons, Nick and Tim. Brandon will recruit Houston and Southeast Texas for the Pokes.

MARTY ENGLISH

(Northern Colorado '86)
Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Marty English will enter his ninth season at the University of Wyoming in 2011. He is the senior member of the Cowboy coaching staff. For the third consecutive season, English will serve as the Cowboys' defensive coordinator. He will be coaching the UW linebackers for the ninth straight season. The 2011 season will mark his 25th as a college coach. English moved up the road to Laramie, Wyo., from Greeley, Colo., in 2003 after serving as an assistant coach for 16 seasons (1987-2002) at his alma mater, the University of Northern Colorado.

The Cowboy defense concluded the 2011 season on a high note, recording a dominating defensive performance in a 44-0 shutout victory over archrival Colorado State. It marked only the second shutout of CSU by Wyoming since 1959. English was also on the defensive staff in 2006 that shutout the Rams, 24-0. Two Cowboy defenders were named Second Team All-Mountain West in 2010. Senior free safety Chris Prosinski and junior defensive end Josh Biezuns both earned Second Team honors. Three other Cowboy juniors earned Honorable Mention All-Conference honors on defense. Those three juniors were: cornerback Tashaun Gipson, linebacker Brian Hendricks and defensive end Gabe Knapton. Prosinski was drafted in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. He was the 121st overall selection in the 2011 Draft, and concluded his career ranked No. 4 in career tackles at UW with 373.

school history, with 343. Senior linebacker Mike Juergens also signed a free-agent contract with the Carolina Panthers following the 2009 NFL Draft.

The 2007 season saw UW's defense rank 22nd in the country in total defense (332.1 yards per game) and quarterback sacks (33 total sacks). The Cowboys also were among the best teams in the nation in defending the run, ranking No. 27 (122.8 yards per game), and against the pass, ranking No. 30 (209.3 ypg). Inside linebacker Ward Dobbs earned Honorable Mention All-Conference honors in '07.

During the 2006 season, the Cowboy defense moved to a 3-4 alignment, and was one of the best defenses in the nation. In total defense, the Cowboys ranked ninth out of 119 NCAA Division I-A teams, allowing opponents only 262.9 yards per game. UW ranked even higher in pass defense, giving up only 156.3 yards passing per game to rank No. 8 in the country. Wyoming also ranked in the Top 25 in rushing defense at No. 23 (106.6 yards per game), and was 36th in the NCAA and No. 2 in the MWC in sacks (2.42 per game). Dobbs earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors in '06.

Wyoming's defense ranked among the Top 40 teams in the nation in two defensive categories in 2005. UW was No. 40 in the nation in pass defense, allowing only 207.4 yards per game through the air, and the Cowboy defense also intercepted 14 passes to rank No. 34 in the NCAA in that category. The 2005 season saw Dobbs earn Honorable Mention All-Conference honors.

The Pokes were very effective at forcing turnovers in 2004, ranking No. 13 in the country in most turnovers gained (28). Wyoming's defense recovered 14 fumbles to rank No. 10 in the NCAA, and intercepted 14 passes to rank No. 34. Senior outside linebacker Guy Tuell ended his career ranked No. 11 on the Wyoming career tackle list with 249.

For three seasons (2000-02), English served as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Northern Colorado. His 2002 defensive unit ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in five defensive categories. UNC ranked No. 8 in total defense, allowing only 249.8 yards per game; was ranked No. 5 in pass defense efficiency, with a rating of 86.9; and ranked No. 9 in three categories — scoring defense (15.0 points allowed per game), rush defense (85.3 yards per game) and turnover margin (+16). Anthony Dunn, a defensive end on the 2002 squad, earned First Team All-America honors, and signed a free-agent contract with the Tennessee Titans of the NFL.

Through his years at UNC, English coached on NCAA Division II National Championship teams in 1996 and '97. He also helped guide the Bears to the NCAA Division II Playoffs in eight different seasons, including advancing to the semifinals of the 2002 NCAA Division II Playoffs.

During his time as a college coach, English has coached eight All-Americans, and nine of his players have gone on to play at the professional level. Included among those pro players were former UNC All-America linebacker Scott Zimmerman, who went on to play for the Carolina Panthers of the NFL. Another future pro was former Wyoming Cowboy Guy Tuell, who joined the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe in 2006.

As a player, English began his career at Idaho State in 1981, the year the Bengals won the NCAA Division I-AA National Championship. English then transferred to Northern Colorado, where he was a three-year letterman at linebacker. His senior season of 1985, he served as a team captain, and received All-North Central Conference honors. He earned his bachelor's degree in recreation management in 1986 and his master's degree in physical education in 1989 — both from Northern Colorado. A native of Lakewood, Colo., he was an All-State football player at Alameda High School.

He and his wife, Suzie, have one daughter, Kelsey, and one son, Tyler. Kelsey is a student at the University of Wyoming. Tyler will be a redshirt freshman football player at Mesa State College in Grand Junction, Colo., in 2011.

English recruits the states of Colorado, Florida and the Panhandle of Texas for the Cowboys.

Alex Grinch enters his third season coaching the Wyoming secondary in 2011. His first two seasons, he coached former Cowboy free safety Chris Prosinski, who was drafted in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Prosinski was the 121st overall pick in the draft and also earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors his senior season of 2010. For the second consecutive season, Prosinski recorded over 100 tackles and led Wyoming in tackles. He was credited with 108 tackles in his senior season, and concluded his career ranked No. 4 in career tackles at UW with 373.

Grinch joined the Cowboy coaching staff in December of 2008 from the University of New Hampshire. He will be entering his ninth season as a college coach in 2011. In his previous eight seasons coaching at the college level, he helped guide six of those teams to postseason play, including Wyoming's victory in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl.

One starter returns to the Wyoming secondary in 2011. That lone starter is senior cornerback Tashaun Gipson, who earned Honorable Mention All-Conference honors in 2010. Gipson ranked No. 2 in the conference and No. 26 in the nation in passes defended in 2010, averaging 1.00 per game. He also ranked No. 4 in the MW and No. 87 in the NCAA in interceptions, with three picks his junior season.

In 2010, all four starters returned to the Cowboy secondary. That group included 2009 Second Team All-Mountain West free safety Prosinski, Gipson and his older brother Marcell at cornerback and 2009 Freshman All-American Shamiel Gary at strong safety. Prosinski ranked 10th in the NCAA in tackles in 2009, averaging 10.8 per game. His 140 total tackles in '09 ranked as the fourth best single-season total in school history. Gary earned First Team Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) in '09. He became the first Wyoming Cowboy to earn that honor since the FWAA established the team in 2001. Gary was one of only 28 freshman in the nation to receive the honor. Of those 28 freshman honored, he was one of only 14 true freshmen named to the team.

Grinch coached at New Hampshire for four seasons from 2005 through 2008. His first two seasons at New Hampshire, he coached the cornerbacks before being promoted to secondary coach and recruiting coordinator for the 2007 and 2008 seasons. In Grinch's final season at New Hampshire, the Wildcats concluded the season ranked No. 7 in the nation in the final Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Coaches' Poll and were ranked No. 8 in the final Sports Network Rankings. UNH advanced to the quarterfinals of the 2008 FCS Playoffs, defeating Southern Illinois, 29-20, on the road in the first round before losing at Northern Iowa, 34-36, in the quarters.

During Grinch's four seasons at New Hampshire, the Wildcats posted records of 11-2 in 2005, 9-4 in 2006, 7-5 in 2007 and 10-2 in 2008. UNH advanced to the FCS Quarterfinals in 2005, 2006 and 2008. The Wildcats also made it to the First Round of the Playoffs in 2007. The 2005 squad was the No. 1 seed entering the FCS Playoffs after capturing the Atlantic 10 Conference Co-Championship. In 2006, UNH defeated Northwestern of the Big Ten in the season opener. The following season, New Hampshire defeated another Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) team in Marshall.

Grinch coached two Second Team All-CAA defensive backs in 2008. Senior John Clements was named Second Team at safety and sophomore Dino Vasso earned Second Team honors at cornerback. In 2007, Grinch coached First Team All-Conference senior safety Jeff Pammer and Second Team All-Conference junior cornerback Clements. The 2006 season saw Clements earn Third Team All-Conference honors as a corner. His first season at New Hampshire, Grinch tutored Second Team All-Conference honoree Corey Graham, a cornerback, who was drafted in the fifth round of the 2007 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. As recruiting coordinator his final two seasons at New Hampshire, Grinch oversaw all of the Wildcats' recruiting efforts.

Prior to his four seasons as an assistant coach at UNH, Grinch was the defensive graduate assistant coach at Missouri for the 2003 and 2004 campaigns, and was an administrative graduate assistant at Mizzou for the 2002 season. The Tiger defense ranked No. 2 in the Big XII Conference in total defense in 2004 and was No. 1 in pass defense. The 2003 season saw Mizzou post an 8-5 record and advance to the Independence Bowl.

Grinch enjoyed an outstanding college playing career at Mount Union College in Alliance, Ohio. He was a member of three NCAA Division III National Championship teams at Mount Union in 1998, 2000 and 2001. Over his four-year career, Grinch's Mount Union teams posted a 54-1 record and won four consecutive Ohio Athletic Conference Championships.

His senior season of 2001, he was named a Third Team All-America safety by D3football.com. He also earned National Defensive Player of the Week honors twice during his career from Don Hansen's National Football Gazette. Not only did he receive All-America honors on the field, but Grinch was a First Team Academic All-Conference selection his senior season.

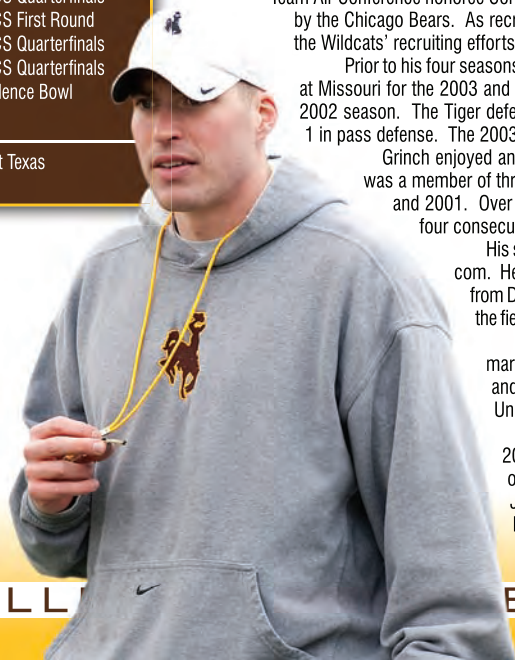

He completed his bachelor's degree in sports management with a focus in marketing and a minor in business administration from Mount Union in May 2002, and earned a master's degree in educational leadership and policy analysis from the University of Missouri in Dec. 2004.

Grinch was married to the former Rebecca Blaser of Alliance, Ohio on June 28, 2003. Their first child, son Tyler, was born during the Grinches' first year at Wyoming on Nov. 23, 2009. Their second child, daughter Corbi Elaine Grinch, was born on July 8, 2011. Grinch recruits the Northeastern United States, the city of Dallas and Northeast Texas for the Cowboys.

JIM HARDING

(Toledo '01)
Offensive Line

Jim Harding will team with Pete Kaligis to coach the offensive line for the Cowboys for the third straight year in 2011. Harding joined the University of Wyoming coaching staff in December 2008. His first season at UW, he helped coach former Cowboy offensive tackle Ryan Otterson, who signed a free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers following the 2010 NFL Draft. In the 2010 season, Harding helped coach sophomore Nick Carlson, who earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors at center. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Preseason Watch List in the summer of 2011. The Rimington Trophy honors the nation's top center each season.

The 2011 season will be Harding's sixth as a college coach. Two of his first six seasons as a college assistant coach, Harding was part of programs that reached postseason play. Missouri participated in the 2003 Independence Bowl, losing to Arkansas, 27-14, and Wyoming captured the 2009 New Mexico Bowl Championship over Fresno State, 35-28 in double overtime.

Nicholson Award, which is presented each year to the Toledo player who contributes most toward the success of the team. The award is named for Toledo's first full-time football coach, Jim Nicholson, who coached the Rockets from 1930-35. Harding shared the 2000 award with teammate DeJuan Goulde, a senior defensive end.

Toledo won or shared three Mid-American Conference (MAC) divisional titles in the four seasons Harding played. The Rockets won the 1997 and 1998 MAC West Division and were co-champions of the MAC West in 2000. Over that four-year span, Toledo posted a record of 32-14 (.696), including single-season marks of 9-3 in 1997, 7-5 in 1998, 6-5 in 1999 and 10-1 in 2000. The Rockets' four-year conference record during that time was 24-7 (.774).

Following his college playing career, Harding signed a free-agent contract with the Miami Dolphins and went to camp with the Dolphins.

A year later, Harding began his coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Missouri, where Christensen was then the offensive coordinator. Harding served in that role for the 2002, 2003 and 2004 seasons.

From the fall of 2005 through the fall of 2008, he was a high school football coach for the Troy School District in Troy, Mich. He served as defensive coordinator for the 2006, 2007 and 2008 seasons, and was the head coach in 2008.

Harding completed his bachelor's degree in secondary education from Toledo in May 2001, and achieved a master's degree in career and technical education from Missouri in December 2004.

A native of Maumee, Ohio, Harding and his wife, Meredith, now make Laramie their home. Their first child, son Colton James Harding, was born on Aug. 3, 2010.

Harding will recruit the Midwest, including the states of Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio and Wisconsin. He will also recruit Northern Wyoming.

When he was hired by Wyoming head coach Dave Christensen, Harding renewed a relationship he began with Christensen at the University of Toledo back in the late 1990s. Harding was an offensive tackle at Toledo from 1997-2000, while Christensen was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach for the Rockets.

Harding enjoyed an outstanding college career for Toledo. He was a four-year starter, setting a school record with 46 consecutive starts. He was a First Team All-Conference selection as a senior in 2000 and was also elected a team captain that year. As a senior, he helped lead Toledo to a 10-1 record and a No. 25 ranking in the final Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN Coaches' polls. One of Toledo's 10 wins during the 2000 season with a season-opening road win at Penn State by a score of 24-6. The 2000 Toledo offense also set a school record for scoring offense, averaging 36.4 points per game.

At the conclusion of his senior season, Harding was named the co-recipient of the Jim

The 2011 season will mark Pete Kaligis' 17th season as a college coach. For the third consecutive year, he will team with fellow Cowboy assistant Jim Harding to coach the Wyoming offensive line.

In 2010, Kaligis coached sophomore center Nick Carlson, who went on to earn Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference honors. Carlson was named to the Rimington Trophy Preseason Watch List in the summer of 2011. The Rimington Trophy honors the nation's top center each season. Kaligis will welcome back five offensive linemen in 2011 who gained starting experience for the Cowboys in 2010.

One of Kaligis' 2009 Cowboys, offensive tackle Ryan Otterson, signed a free-agent contract with the San Diego Chargers following the 2010 NFL Draft.

During his first 16 seasons coaching at the college level, Kaligis has been a part of 11 teams that advanced to postseason play, including four bowl appearances with NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision teams. In addition to the Cowboys win in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl, Kaligis was a strength and conditioning coach at Washington when the Huskies played in the 1999 Holiday Bowl (losing to Kansas State, 24-20), won the 2000 Rose Bowl (defeating Purdue, 34-24) and played in the 2002 Sun Bowl (losing to Purdue, 34-24).

Kaligis came to Wyoming from the University of Montana, where he coached the previous four seasons. He helped lead Montana to the 2008 National Championship game where the Griz concluded the season as the national runner-up in the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS). Montana ended the season ranked No. 2 in the nation in both the final FCS Coaches' Poll and the Sports Network's FCS Poll. The Grizzlies earned a spot in the FCS Playoffs all four years Kaligis coached in Missoula. He coached the Grizzly offensive line for three seasons (2006-08). His first season at UM he worked with tight ends and offensive tackles. He also served as UM's recruiting coordinator for three years.

In 2008, Kaligis coached senior offensive guard Colin Dow at Montana. Dow was named First Team All-American by the Walter Camp Football Foundation in '08. Dow also earned First Team All-Big Sky Conference honors, while Montana offensive linemen Levi Horn, Brent Russum and J.D. Quinn all earned Second Team All-Big Sky honors and O-linemen Chris Dyk and Terran Hillsland were named Honorable Mention All-Big Sky in '08.

The 2007 season saw junior tackle Brent Russum and junior guard/center J.D. Quinn receive First Team All-Big Sky Conference recognition, while center Colin Dow was a Second Team selection. Senior tackle Cody Balogh and junior guard Dan Carter were named Honorable Mention All-Conference.

Before joining the Grizzly coaching staff, Kaligis was the head strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater, the University of Washington, from 2002-2004. From 1999-2001, he was the assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Huskies.

After graduating from Washington in 1994, Kaligis was an assistant football coach at Western Washington University in his hometown of Bellingham, Wash. He was the assistant tight end and strength coach there from 1994-95, and was the assistant defensive line and strength coach at WWU from 1996-97. During his tenure at WWU, he coached two All-America defensive ends, and his team advanced to the NAIA Division II title game in 1996.

He was a teacher and coach at Meridian Middle School in Bellingham in 1998-99.

An outstanding college football player and track athlete, Kaligis started all 12 games at offensive guard for the Washington Huskies and former head football coach Don James when they captured the 1991 National Championship. The Huskies posted a perfect 12-0 record and defeated Michigan, 34-14, in the Rose Bowl on Jan. 1, 1992, to win the national title. He was a member of the Husky Football team from 1990-94.

He was an All-American in track and field in the shot put. His personal best in the shot put in college was 62' 8". He won the gold medal at the 1995 U.S. Olympic Festival, and placed third in the 1995 University Games. He participated in the 1996 Olympic Trials in track and field in the shot put, where he had a throw of 64' 8".

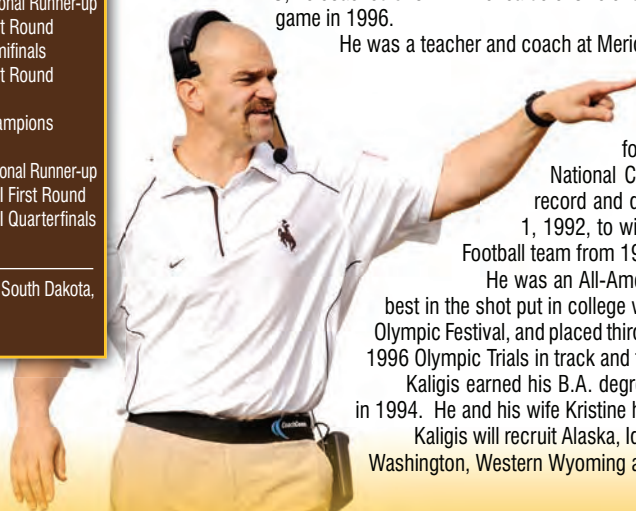

Kaligis earned his B.A. degree in sociology and law enforcement at Washington in 1994. He and his wife Kristine have a daughter, Harlie Grace, and a son, Cooper.

Kaligis will recruit Alaska, Idaho, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Oregon, Washington, Western Wyoming and Canada.

MATT RAHL

(Missouri Southern '03)
Defensive Line

Matt Rahl moves into a coaching role this season after serving as Wyoming's Director of Recruiting the past two years. He will coach the defensive line, along with new Wyoming assistant coach Danilo Robinson. Rahl is entering his 10th year in college football in 2011.

He assumed his coaching duties during 2011 spring practice, giving him a chance to work with an experienced returning defensive line unit that welcomes back all four starters and several other veteran players.

In 2010, 11 of Wyoming's regular starters were members of Wyoming's first two recruiting classes under Rahl's direction. Also in 2010, 14 members of those two recruiting classes started at least one game during the season.

The Rahl Family
Carrie, Hattie and Matt

Wyoming's 2009 recruiting class featured 12 true freshman who played for the Cowboys. That ranked Wyoming ninth in the nation for most true freshmen played by an NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision team. A total of eight true freshmen started at least one game for the Pokes in 2009, which ranked UW third in the country.

With Wyoming's win in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl, Rahl has been a part of bowl championship teams in three of the past four seasons, and he has helped lead teams to postseason play six of the last eight seasons.

He came to Wyoming from the University of Missouri where he was the offensive graduate assistant for the 2007 and 2008 seasons. Rahl was hired as the offensive graduate assistant coach at the University of Missouri in January of 2007. He assisted in coaching the offensive line, prepared scouting reports and practice plans for the Tiger offense and assisted with on-campus recruiting during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

The 2008 season concluded with Mizzou ranked No. 16 in the final USA Today Coaches' Poll, No. 19 in the final Associated Press Media Poll and were No. 21 in the final BCS Rankings. Missouri defeated Northwestern, 30-23, in the 2008 Valero Alamo Bowl. Statistically, the Tigers ranked No. 4 in the NCAA in passing offense (330.4 yards per game), No. 6 in scoring offense (42.2 points per game) and No. 8 in total offense (484.1 yards per game).

In 2007, the Tigers had their most successful season in Missouri school history. They ended the season with a school record 12 wins and were ranked No. 4 in the final Associated Press rankings, which was the highest season-ending ranking in school history. Mizzou played in the 2008 AT&T Cotton Bowl on Jan. 1, 2008, and defeated Arkansas, 38-7, to capture the Cotton Bowl Championship. Rahl worked with a Missouri offense that ranked No. 5 in the nation in total offense, averaging 490.3 yards per game. The 2007 Tiger offense also ranked No. 8 in the NCAA in scoring offense (39.9 points per game) and No. 9 in passing offense (314.1 yards per game).

A graduate of Missouri Southern in 2003, Rahl played tight end there from 1999-2001. He moved into a student assistant coaching position in 2002, and coached the tight ends and assisted with the offensive line for the 2002 season.

Upon graduation in 2003, he accepted a graduate assistant coaching position at Winona State University in Winona, Minn., in June of 2003. Rahl coached the tight ends, assisted in recruiting and handled a number of administrative duties for the 2003 and 2004 seasons. He was elevated to a full-time coaching position in January of 2005, serving as the offensive line coach and special teams' coordinator for the 2005 and 2006 seasons. During his four seasons at Winona State, his teams won three conference championships and advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs three times (2003, 2004 and 2006). The Warriors reached the quarterfinal round in 2003.

Rahl completed his bachelor's degree in physical education at Missouri Southern in 2003, and earned a master's degree in educational leadership in 2005 from Winona State.

A native of Union, Mo., Rahl and his wife Carrie have one daughter, Hattie.

Rahl will recruit the states of Arizona, New Mexico and Utah. He will also recruit Southeast Wyoming and Central and East Texas, including the cities of Austin and San Antonio.

Where He Recruits

Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri and Oklahoma

Jason Ray began his college coaching career in 2009 with the Wyoming Cowboys. He will coach the Cowboy running backs for the third consecutive season in 2011.

Ray will welcome back junior running back Alvester Alexander in 2011. Alexander earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2010 as he ranked No. 5 in the Mountain West and No. 80 in the nation in rushing, averaging 66.0 yards per carry. Alexander also ranked No. 5 in the MW and No. 74 in the NCAA in scoring, averaging 7.0 points per game. Alexander set new UW records for rushing touchdowns in a single season (14 in 2010) and a single game (5 vs. Colorado State in 2010).

Wyoming's 35-28 win over Fresno State in the New Mexico Bowl was Ray's first bowl appearance as a coach. He was a member of four bowl teams during his five years as a student-athlete at Missouri.

Immediately prior to coming to Wyoming, Ray served as a Development Associate with the Tiger Scholarship Fund at his alma mater, the University of Missouri. Ray was also an intern in the Missouri marketing and development departments. He played wide receiver on the Tiger Football team from 2003-07.

Ray was elected a team captain his senior season of 2007 in what was the most successful season in Missouri school history. The Tigers ended the season with a school record 12 wins and were ranked No. 4 in the final Associated Press rankings, which was the highest season-ending ranking in school history. He was part of a Missouri offense that ranked No. 5 in the nation in total offense, averaging 490.3 yards per game. The 2007 Tiger offense also ranked No. 8 in the NCAA in scoring offense (39.9 points per game) and No. 9 in passing offense (314.1 yards per game).

During his five years as a player at Missouri, the Tigers made four bowl appearances. His senior season, the Tigers defeated Arkansas, 38-7, in the Cotton Bowl. In 2006, Missouri played in the Sun Bowl, losing to Oregon State, 38-39. Following the 2005 season, Mizzou captured the Independence Bowl Championship with a 38-31 win over South Carolina, and in Ray's true freshman season of 2003 Missouri also played in the Independence Bowl, losing to Arkansas, 14-27.

Ray was a Second Team Academic All-Big 12 selection during his career. He also was named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll, and was voted president of the Mizzou Student-Athlete Advisory Committee his senior year of college.

A native of Porter, Okla., his younger brother Michael was a strong safety for the Wyoming Cowboys from 2004 to 2008, completing his eligibility just as the elder Ray was hired as an assistant coach for the Pokes. Michael Ray has since returned to the University of Wyoming, and is currently an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach at Wyoming.

Jason Ray completed his bachelor's degree in marketing from Missouri in December of 2007.

He will recruit the states of Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma for the Cowboys.

DANILO ROBINSON

(Utah State '97)
Defensive Line

Danilo Robinson (pronounced duh-NEEL-o) joined the Wyoming coaching staff in February 2011. He will coach the defensive line, along with fellow Wyoming assistant coach Matt Rahl. Robinson is entering his 13th year as a college football coach in 2011.

Robinson was able to work with his Cowboy defensive line group during 2011 spring drills. Robinson will benefit from an experienced returning defensive line unit that welcomes back all four starters and several other veteran players.

The Robinson Family
Sydney, Danilo, Shelley and Dylan

Robinson coached at Navy from 1998-2001 under another former Wyoming assistant coach Charlie Weatherbie, who was head coach of the Midshipmen.

Robinson rejoined Weatherbie at Louisiana-Monroe for the 2003 and '04 seasons. From 2005-08, he returned to Logan, Utah, to serve as the defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at his alma mater, Utah State. Robinson's most recent college coaching position was as the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at Southwest Minnesota State for the 2010 season.

"Danilo Robinson has several years experience coaching at the Division I level," said UW head coach Dave Christensen. "He played his college football at Utah State, and has coached at Navy, Utah State and Louisiana-Monroe. Danilo brings a wide-range of experience both as an outstanding position coach and as a recruiter."

"This is a great opportunity to coach at an outstanding University and work for a great coach in Coach Christensen," said Robinson. "Wyoming has had a lot of success through the years. I remember the great teams here in the mid-90s when I was playing at Utah State. I also see this as a great place for my wife and I to raise our children. I can't wait to become a part of this great program and state."

Robinson completed his bachelor's degree in political science from Utah State in 1997. He is also working on completing his master's degree in education from Azusa Pacific University. He and his wife, Shelley, have one son, Dylan, and one daughter, Sydney. Shelley was an outstanding sprinter on the track and field team at Utah State. Robinson is a native of Panama.

He will recruit: Illinois, including the city of Chicago; Iowa; Nebraska; Northern California; and the city of Denver.

He brings to Wyoming 12 previous years of college coaching experience. He began his college football career as an outstanding defensive end at Utah State, where he played from 1993-96. He helped lead the Aggies to two Big West Conference Championships in 1993 and 1996. He was twice elected a team captain, and earned Second Team All-Big West honors in 1995 and '96. He also was part of USU's 1993 Las Vegas Bowl Championship team.

After completion of his college playing career, he became a strength and conditioning coach at his alma mater in 1997. In 1998, he became an assistant football coach at Navy.

Derek Sage will be coaching the Wyoming receiving corps for his second season in 2011. He joined the Wyoming Football coaching staff on Jan. 14, 2010. The 2011 season will mark Sage's 10th as a college coach.

In 2010, Sage coached former Cowboy wide receiver David Leonard, who concluded his career ranked No. 8 in career receptions at UW with 153. Leonard ranked No. 4 in the Mountain West in receptions in 2010, averaging 3.9 catches per game.

The five seasons prior to coming to Wyoming, Sage helped coach an outstanding University of New Hampshire football program. The UNH Wildcats ended the 2009 season ranked No. 7 in all three Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) national polls — the Sports Network Poll, the FCS Coaches' Poll and "The Any Given Saturday Poll". UNH posted a 10-3 record in '09, and captured the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) North Division for the second consecutive year. The Wildcats advanced to the quarterfinals of the 2009 FCS Playoffs before losing to eventual National Champion Villanova, 46-7. Earlier in the season, New Hampshire had defeated Villanova, 28-24, handing the eventual national champion its only loss of the season. UNH earned bids to the FCS playoffs each of Sage's five seasons at the Durham, N.H., school, advancing to the quarterfinals in 2005, 2006, 2008 and 2009 and making it to the first round of the playoffs in 2007.

During his coaching career, Sage has worked with some outstanding coaches. From 2003-04, he coached under head coach Chris Ault at Nevada. Ault was inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame in 2002. From 2005-09, Sage served as an assistant under head coach Sean McDonnell at New Hampshire. During two of those seasons (2005-06), he worked with current Oregon head coach Chip Kelly, who was then the offensive coordinator at New Hampshire before becoming the offensive coordinator at Oregon and eventually taking over as head coach of the Ducks.

In 2009, Sage completed his fifth season as coach of the New Hampshire wide receivers. While at New Hampshire, Sage coached some of the great receivers in UNH history, including, All-America wide receiver David Ball. Ball set New Hampshire receiving records for career receptions (304) and career receiving yards (4,655). He also became the NCAA career leader in TD receptions, with 58 in his career, breaking Jerry Rice's previous record of 51 at Mississippi Valley State.

Sage coached 2007 First Team CAA selection Keith LeVan, who ranks second on UNH's career reception list, with 201, and led the CAA in touchdown receptions in '07. Sage also mentored 2008 First Team CAA selection Mike Boyle, who led the CAA in touchdown receptions in '08 and finished his career with a 16.0 yard-per-catch average.

Sage came to UNH from the University of Nevada, where he assisted coaching the defensive backfield as a graduate assistant in 2003 and helped coach the wide receivers as a graduate assistant in 2004. Former Nevada receiver Nicheron Flowers ranked sixth in the nation in receiving with 91 catches for 1,136 yards and six touchdowns in 2004.

A native of Nevada, himself, Sage played tight end for Sacramento City College for two years (1998-99), helping win conference and bowl championships at the junior college level. He completed his college career at Cal State Northridge, where he was a two-year letterman at tight end in 2000 and '01.

Sage earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Northridge in 2002. While completing his undergraduate degree, he also helped coach at Moorpark Community College (Calif.), working with the offensive line and tight ends. Moorpark won a conference title and a bowl championship that season.

He was married to the former Mandy Jeskey on July 17, 2010. Their first child, daughter Piper, was born March 30, 2011. Sage will recruit Southern California, Nevada, Central and West Texas for the Cowboys.

BRENT VERNON

(Missouri '08)
Director of Recruiting

Brent Vernon takes over as Wyoming's Director of Recruiting this year after serving as the Cowboys' offensive graduate assistant the past two seasons.

In his new role, Vernon will be responsible for coordinating all recruiting efforts for Cowboy Football, including: implementing Wyoming's recruiting plan for the year, scheduling recruiting travel, organizing recruiting weekends, assuring compliance with NCAA rules relative to recruiting and managing the recruiting budget.

As Wyoming's offensive graduate assistant in 2009 and 2010, Vernon assisted with practice preparation, scout team coordination and a variety of other administrative and coaching duties for the Cowboy Offense. He also was involved in signaling plays from the sideline on game days. Vernon of course shared in Wyoming's 2009 New Mexico Bowl Championship, as the Cowboys defeated Fresno State 35-28 in double overtime.

Brent Vernon

He came to Wyoming in the winter of 2009 from the University of Missouri where he was an intern with the Mizzou Football program for five seasons from August 2004 to December 2008. At Missouri, he assisted the tight ends' coach, broke down practice and game film and prepared scouting reports. During that five-year span, Missouri enjoyed unprecedented success, appearing in four consecutive bowl games from 2005 to 2008. The Tigers won the 2005 Independence Bowl over South Carolina, played

Oregon State in the 2006 Sun Bowl, won the Cotton Bowl over Arkansas at the conclusion of the 2007 season and defeated Northwestern in the 2008 Alamo Bowl.

He completed his bachelor of science degree in business administration, with an emphasis in management, at Missouri in December of 2008. Vernon achieved Dean's List honors all four years of college. He was also named the University of Missouri Athletics' Student Assistant of the Year in 2008.

In coming to Wyoming, he rejoined former Missouri offensive coordinator and current Wyoming head coach Dave Christensen.

Brian Wilkinson joined the Wyoming Football program in March of 2011 as Director of Football Operations. Wilkinson comes to Wyoming from the University of California-Berkeley where he was the Assistant Director of Football Operations.

In his new role at Wyoming, he will be coordinating team travel, overseeing the day-to-day administrative operations of the Wyoming Football program and monitoring budgetary and compliance issues relating to Cowboy Football.

Wilkinson has eight years experience working in college athletics at the University of California and Sacramento State University. Twice he served as Assistant Director of Football Operations at Cal — first from July 2005 to March 2008 and then again from August 2010 until accepting his current position at Wyoming. In between his two tours of duty at Cal, he was the Director of Football Operations at Sacramento State from March 2008 to August 2009.

"Brian (Wilkinson) brings a great deal of experience to our staff," said head coach Dave Christensen. "He is an individual who has a lot of energy, pays attention to detail and is a great fit for our staff. With his experience, I know that he will implement the detailed planning necessary to help make our program run as smoothly as possible. We're very happy to have Brian join the University of Wyoming football program."

"I am very appreciative for the opportunity that Coach (Dave) Christensen and Mr. (Tom) Burman have given me," said Wilkinson. "I'm really excited to be part of an athletic department that has such a rich tradition as the University of Wyoming, and I'm elated to be able to work with a great coaching staff."

As the Assistant Director of Football Operations at Cal, Wilkinson was involved in organizing all aspects of team travel. He produced the daily schedules for the football program. Wilkinson also assisted in hosting recruiting visit weekends for potential recruits, as well as assisting with all aspects of football recruiting.

During his time at the University of California, he was involved in preparation for the Bears' appearances in the 2005 Las Vegas Bowl and 2007 Armed Forces Bowl.

Also while at Cal, Wilkinson was the Director of Softball Operations from 2005-06. Prior to that, he was an Assistant Equipment Manager for the Bears from 2003-05.

The Bears played in four bowl games during Wilkinson's time at Cal, winning three. They won the 2003 Insight Bowl, participated in the 2004 Holiday Bowl, won the 2005 Las Vegas Bowl and won the 2007 Armed Forces Bowl.

From 2008-09, Wilkinson was the Director of Football Operations at Sacramento State University. He coordinated the daily practice schedule at Sac State, coordinated all team travel, was involved in managing the football budget, supervised the equipment room, organized the football team's community relations program, assisted in football recruiting and served as the director of summer football camps.

Wilkinson served in the United States Air Force from 1991-94. After the military, he served as a minor league clubhouse manager and equipment manager for the Oakland Athletics.

He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Belford University in 2009.

Wilkinson and his wife, Tami, have two sons, Bryce and Tyler.

TRENT GREENER

(Wyoming '90)

Director of Strength and Conditioning

Trent Greener was named the Director of Strength and Conditioning and Head Football Strength Coach at the University of Wyoming in December 2008. He will be entering his 13th season as a head strength and conditioning coach at the NCAA Division I level in 2010 and his 22nd year overall as a strength coach. He came to Wyoming after serving in a similar position at the University of Washington since 2005. Greener was a football letterman for the Wyoming Cowboys in 1987 and 1988. In his first season back at Wyoming as head strength and conditioning coach in 2009, he was part of the Cowboys' New Mexico Bowl Championship team.

In addition to overseeing the entire strength and conditioning program at the University of Washington, as the Head Coach for Sports Performance, Greener also worked directly with the Husky Football Team for four seasons (2005-08).

The Greener Family

Trent and Tina

as a graduate assistant strength coach at Purdue from 1990-92. He moved into a full-time position as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Northern Illinois in 1992, before returning to Wyoming. From 1993-99, Greener was an assistant strength coach at UW, working primarily with the sports of men's and women's basketball, baseball, men's and women's golf and assisting with football. During his time as an assistant at UW, the Cowboys appeared in the 1993 Copper Bowl and the Inaugural Western Athletic Conference Championship game in 1996.

He is both a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and a USA Weightlifting (USAW) certified club coach. Greener has also been a presenter at numerous seminars and coaching clinics, as well as having had several articles published on a variety of training techniques.

He has coached teams that have made eight postseason appearances during his coaching career, including seven bowl games. Greener has trained over 20 individuals who went on to sign with NFL teams. The most recent individual to move on to the NFL was former Wyoming free safety Chris Prosinski, who was selected in the Fourth Round of the 2011 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Four Wyoming Cowboys signed free-agent contracts with NFL teams following the 2009 season. Senior defensive tackle John Fletcher signed with the Baltimore Ravens. Linebacker Weston Johnson signed as a free agent with the Atlanta Falcons. Offensive tackle Ryan Otterson joined the San Diego Chargers as a free-agent signee, and defensive end Mitch Unrein signed a free-agent contract with the Houston Texans and has since signed with the Denver Broncos.

A defensive tackle for the Cowboys, Greener was part of two Western Athletic Conference Championship teams his junior and senior seasons of 1987 and '88. Those two teams went undefeated in league play, winning 16 consecutive WAC games, and appeared in the 1987 and '88 Holiday Bowls.

A native of New Albany, Ind., Greener completed his bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science at Wyoming in 1990, and earned his master's degree in physical education, also from UW, in 2002.

Greener is married to the former Tina Wheeler, who lettered for the Wyoming Cowgirl Basketball program from 1986-89.

BOB WALLER

Head Athletics Trainer

Bob Waller was hired as head athletics trainer for Wyoming Athletics on May 29, 2009. Waller came to Wyoming from the University of New Mexico where he was the associate athletics trainer for the Lobo Football program from 2003-09.

Waller is the athletic trainer for the Cowboy Football team, and also oversees the athletic-training unit.

In addition to serving as the associate athletics trainer at New Mexico from 2003 to 2009, Waller spent four summers, from 2002-2005, working in NFL Europe. He was an assistant athletics trainer for the Rhein Fire of NFL Europe in 2002. During the summer of 2003, he was hired as the head trainer for the Barcelona Dragons. In the summer 2004, Waller was head athletics trainer for the Scottish Claymores, and his final year in NFL Europe he was the head trainer for the Hamburg Sea Devils.

He has served internships with ESPN's X-Games and with the Arizona Cardinals of the NFL. Waller also has worked with the Justin Sports Medicine Team at rodeo events since 1999.

Waller holds a certification from the National Academy of Sports Medicine as a corrective exercise specialist. He has been certified by the National Athletic Trainers Board of Certification, and has completed his American Heart Association Basic Life Support Certification.

Waller was an accredited clinical instructor at the University of New Mexico, teaching among other things therapeutic modality, therapeutic rehabilitation exercises and athletic training mock/muscle testing. A former college baseball player at California State University Chico, Waller earned his bachelor's degree in exercise physiology from Chico State in 1995. He then completed a second bachelor's degree in athletic training from New Mexico in 2001, and received his master's degree in sports administration from UNM in 2004.

After graduating from Chico State in '95 and prior to pursuing his studies at New Mexico, Waller worked at the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopaedic clinic in Los Angeles as a research assistant from 1995-98. Waller and his wife Addie have three children — daughter Harlee was born March 26, 2009, and twins Ashtyn, a girl, and Trace, a boy, were born Dec. 6, 2010.

TUCKER READDY, PH.D.

Sport Psychology Consultant

Tucker Readdy joined the University of Wyoming in 2010 as an Assistant Professor of Exercise and Sport Psychology in the Division of Kinesiology and Health. Shortly thereafter, Coach Dave Christensen invited him to join the football program to support the continuing growth and improvement of the organization by providing sport psychology services.

Dr. Readdy's area of expertise and current research is related to understanding coach and athlete motivation within the sport context, including how coach-athlete interactions can optimize player performance through enhancing their autonomy, competence, and relatedness to others. In addition to being the Director of the Endeavor for Optimal Wellness and Performance, he teaches undergraduate and graduate courses in Sport Psychology, Exercise Psychology, Critical Issues in North American Sport, and Women in Sport. He is also an Adjunct Faculty member in the Gender and Women Studies Program. Tucker also consulted for UW Tennis, UW Cross Country, and multiple individual student-athletes throughout the 2010-2011 academic year.

Professionally, Dr. Readdy has been a member of the Association for Applied Sport Psychology since 2003, as well as the American Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance since 2007. He has presented at multiple national conferences, and is published in Research Quarterly for Exercise and Sport, Measurement in Physical Education and Exercise Science, and Journal of Nutrition Education and Behavior. Readdy's current and previous research has been funded by over $40,000 in grants.

Dr. Readdy came to UW from Oregon State University, where he completed his Ph.D. in Exercise and Sport Sciences in 2009. In addition to his teaching responsibilities, he provided performance psychology presentations and workshops to the OSU crew, wrestling, and Air Force ROTC programs. He was also recognized with the Herbert Frolander Outstanding Graduate Teaching Assistant Award in 2007.

Previous to his time at Oregon State, Tucker earned his B.A. in Molecular and Cellular Biology from the University of California, Berkeley in 2000 and M.A. in Physical Education from San Diego State University in 2004. Readdy is originally from Sacramento, Calif.

AMY TUETING

Assistant Director of Football Operations and Executive Assistant to the Head Coach

Amy Tueting is in her second year as a member of the Cowboy Football support staff. In the spring of 2011, she added the title of Assistant Director of Football Operations. She began with Cowboy Football in the spring of 2010 as an office associate. This year, she will serve as head coach Dave Christensen's executive assistant, as well as handling a variety of administrative duties for the Cowboy coaching staff.

Included in her responsibilities will be: helping coordinate team travel for away football games and coaches' travel, reconciling expenses for Cowboy Football, assisting with practice preparation, maintaining coaches' schedules and aiding with recruiting.

Tueting joined the Wyoming Football program after working at Wells Fargo Bank in Laramie, Wyo., from August 2009. She began at Wells Fargo Bank as a teller and was promoted to a personal banking position in October 2009.

She completed her bachelor's degree in interior design at Baylor University in August of 2008. She received a Presidential Merit Scholarship and earned dean's list honors during her college career at Baylor. In 2006, Tueting participated in Baylor's Study Abroad program in Great Britain. Following graduation, she worked as an interior designer for The Neenan Company in Fort Collins, Colo. She also has experience as a graphic designer, working for Precision Terrain LLC in Plano, Texas. Tueting graduated from Fort Collins High School.

Her husband, Brooks Tueting, completed his second year at the University of Wyoming College of Law in the spring of 2011. The couple was married on June 20, 2009, and is expecting their first child.

HALEY DALLES

Cowboy Football Office Manager

Haley Dalles joined the Wyoming Football program in June of 2011.

As one of the first staff members that visitors to the Wyoming Football program meet, Dalles is an important contributor in projecting a positive image for Cowboy Football. Included in her responsibilities will be: coaches' travel, assisting with practice preparation, maintaining coaches' schedules and aiding with recruiting.

Dalles came to the Cowboy Football program from the University of Wyoming Foundation where she worked from October of 2009 until June 2011. While at the UW Foundation, she was an administrative assistant to the major gift officers. Prior to that, she worked for the City Engineer in Sheridan, Wyo. for one year, and worked at the Albany County Clerk's Office from 2003-08 as an election clerk.

A 2001 graduate of Laramie High School, she grew up on the Dalles family ranch west of Laramie.

CHRIS MILLER

Cowboy Football Audio-Visual Coordinator

Chris Miller returned to the University of Wyoming, his alma mater, in the summer of 2011 to become the audio-visual coordinator for Wyoming Football. As the audio-visual coordinator, he helps produce video content for a variety of uses including: the shooting and breakdown of practice and game video for use by UW coaches, highlight videos and recruiting materials. He also supervises a staff of student assistants.

Miller previously served as an intern in the UW Athletics marketing department. Another of his previous roles at Wyoming was assisting the football video crew in filming practice and game action and providing that video to the Cowboy coaching staff for analysis.

A native of Gillette, Wyo., he completed his bachelor's degree in communications from Wyoming in 2010.

NICK FULTON

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Nick Fulton joined the Wyoming Football program in the summer of 2010 as a graduate assistant. A native of Laramie, Wyo., Fulton returned to Wyoming after serving as an assistant football coach at Doane College in Crete, Neb., since August 2006.

Fulton coached the offensive line and tight ends at Doane. He also held positions as video coordinator, interim director of football operations, head junior varsity coach and offensive coordinator for the junior varsity team at Doane. During his time at Doane, he coached nine All-Conference offensive linemen.

From July 2004 to August 2006, Fulton was an admissions counselor at his alma mater, the University of Sioux Falls in Sioux Falls, S.D. During his last year at USF, he was a volunteer assistant coach from March 2005 to August 2006, working with the offensive line.

He completed his bachelor's degree in communications at Sioux Falls in 2003, following an outstanding college career as an offensive linemen. Fulton earned All-Conference and Honorable Mention All-America honors from NAIAFootball.net. He played on three conference championship teams in 2001, '02 and '03. Sioux Falls was the NAIA National Runner-up in 2001. Both the 2002 and 2003 teams advanced to the Semifinals of the National Playoffs. He was voted a co-captain of the 2003 team.

WESTON JOHNSON

Defensive Graduate Assistant

A great Cowboy returned to the Wyoming Football program this past winter, as Weston Johnson joined the Cowboy coaching staff as the defensive graduate assistant in January of 2011.

Johnson was the emotional leader of the Wyoming defense in 2009. His teammates showed the confidence they had in Johnson when they voted him a team captain for the '09 season. He ranked fourth on the team in tackles, with 106. That also ranked him No. 6 in the Mountain West and No. 66 in the nation. He led UW in tackles for losses with 13.0, tying him for sixth in the MWC and 81st in the nation. Johnson also tied for the team lead in interceptions, with three. He ranked 10th in the conference in that category. Johnson recorded four double-figure tackle games in '09. He had 11 vs. No. 2 Texas, 10 vs. New Mexico, 11 on the road at Air Force and 12 vs. No. 4 ranked TCU. He concluded the regular season with a nine-tackle performance at Colorado State, including 1.0 sack and 2.0 tackles for losses, and a five-tackle performance versus Fresno State in the New Mexico Bowl victory. Johnson also recovered a fumble in the New Mexico Bowl. His three interceptions came against Texas, New Mexico and Weber State. Johnson entered the season as the Cowboys' most experienced linebacker, and he provided a unique blend of athleticism and intelligence.

During the spring of 2009, Johnson was recognized by the UW College of Business as its top Senior Marketing Student. In the fall of 2009, he was named a Second Team ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VII selection as he achieved a 3.44 cumulative gpa in marketing. Johnson was honored as an Academic All-Mountain West Conference selection four consecutive years.

After graduating from UW with his bachelor's degree in marketing in 2009, he signed a free agent contract with the Atlanta Falcons following the 2010 NFL Draft and went to camp with the Falcons in 2010.

JARED WOODRUFF

Administrative Graduate Assistant

Jared Woodruff joined the Wyoming Football program as a graduate assistant in the spring of 2011. He came to Wyoming from Jefferson High School in El Paso, Texas, where he was the quarterbacks coach from 2010-11.

Woodruff will assist the Wyoming offensive and defensive coaching staffs in practice preparation and during practices. He will help prepare scouting reports on opponents and will also assist in hosting recruiting weekends.

Prior to coaching at Jefferson High School, Woodruff coached the defensive backs and outside linebackers at Shepherd High School in Shepherd, Texas.

After graduating from UTEP, Woodruff coached one season of junior college football at College of the Siskiyous in Weed, Calif. He was the linebackers and defensive backs coach at Siskiyous.

Woodruff has worked numerous football camps through the years. He worked the Sonny Detmer Passing Camp in 2006, the UTEP Football Camps in the summers of 2009 and 2010 and the Wyoming Football Camp in the summer of 2011.

He earned a bachelor's degree in multi-disciplinary studies from UTEP in 2007. As an undergraduate, he served as a student assistant with the Miner Football program from 2005-07. In 2005, he was part of a UTEP program that earned a bid to the GMAC Bowl versus Toledo.

Woodruff is the grandson of former University of Washington football coach Don James.

JONATHAN AIKENWide Receiver*6-3, 206, Senior*Fort Lauderdale, Fla.*(Ellsworth CC, Iowa)

UW This Season: Jonathan Aiken will enter the fall No. 2 on the depth chart at wide receiver behind returning starter Chris McNeill. 2010: In his first year in the Wyoming program, Aiken appeared in six games as a backup wide receiver and made three catches for a total of 16 yards. He hauled in two catches for nine yards at Texas and had one catch for seven yards versus San Diego State. Junior College: Under the guidance of coach Mike Virden, Aiken was a steady performer for one of the top junior college programs in the nation at Ellsworth Community College. The team posted back-to-back 8-3 seasons in 2008-09 to claim two straight region championships and victories in the Graphic Edge Bowl. As a sophomore in 2009, Aiken earned All-Region and All-Midwest Conference honors after finishing third on the team with 449 receiving yards on 31 catches. He also caught six touchdown passes, while averaging 14.4 yards per catch. Aiken was also All-Region as a freshman in 2008. He made 39 catches to finish second on the squad with 670 yards and four touchdowns. High School: Aiken attended Piper High School under coach Harold Pearson where he was a teammate of UW defensive end Miraldo Michel. As a senior in 2007, he helped the team qualify for the first round of the state playoffs by catching 24 passes for a county-high 466 yards and six touchdowns. He was named the MVP of his team and an All-American by the Orlando Sun Sentinel. He was invited to two all-star games, including the Under Armour game. Personal: The son of Barbara Roberts, Jonathan was born on April 19, 1988, and has seven siblings. He was also recruited by Florida State, Miami, Louisville, Texas Tech and Georgia. He is majoring in sociology.

ALVESTER ALEXANDER

Running Back

5-11, 204, Junior

Houston, Texas

(C.E. King)

UW This Season: Alvester Alexander has proven he is a game changer during his first two years in the program and should be one of the top running backs in the Mountain West Conference in 2011. After assuming UW's starting role at running back, the junior enters the fall ready to write his name in the Cowboy record book. He's amassed 21 rushing touchdowns to rank No. 7 in school history and 1,432 career rushing yards to sit 585 yards short of UW's career Top 10. 2010: During his sophomore season, he earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference after leading the Cowboys with 792 rushing yards and 14 touchdowns on 189 carries in 12 starts. His 66.0 yards per game average ranked fifth in the MWC and No. 80 in the nation, while his 7.0 points per game was also fifth in the conference and No. 74 nationally. His 66.0 yards per game of total offense was No. 14 in the MWC. During the season, he set new UW school records for rushing touchdowns in a season (14) and in a game (5). Alexander saved his best performance for last, when he notched a school-record five touchdowns along with 147 rushing yards on 23 carries in UW's season-finale victory over Colorado State. The effort earned him MWC Offensive Player of the Week. He also posted 151 yards and three touchdowns on 19 carries at New Mexico. His 94-yard run against the Lobos was the second-longest run from scrimmage in the NCAA during the season and second-longest run in UW history. Alexander also topped the 100-yard mark with a 123-yard effort versus Air Force and scored two touchdowns against the Falcons. At the team's year-end banquet, he was named UW's Offensive Back of the Year. 2009: For the season, Alexander led Wyoming in rushing attempts (136), rushing yards (640) and rushing touchdowns (7). He carried the ball eight times for 81 yards against Weber State in his first college game, including a 44-yard touchdown run on his first carry. His season high in carries was 17 at Florida Atlantic in a game in which he rushed for 50 yards and three touchdowns — also a season high. He ended his true freshman season on a high note by rushing for a season-high 137 yards in the New Mexico Bowl win over Fresno State. Alexander scored Wyoming's first touchdown in the New Mexico Bowl on a 68-yard gallop. He made a critical play in Wyoming's 30-27 fourth-quarter, come-from-behind victory at San Diego State late in the season. As part of that comeback, Alexander had a 33-yard TD run in the fourth quarter to pull the Cowboys to within one touchdown at 20-27 on way to a 30-27 road victory. He carried the ball 15 times for 73 yards versus the Aztecs. Alexander also had 16 carries for 66 yards and 1 TD in a 37-13 win over New Mexico. High School: Alexander had an outstanding senior season at C.E. King High School in Houston, Texas. Alexander was a unanimous First Team All-District 19-4A selection as a senior. He rushed for 1,348 yards and 29 touchdowns during his senior season, and averaged 8.0 yards per carry. Alexander recorded seven 100-yard rushing games his senior season. He scored three touchdowns in four different games in '08. As a team captain, he led his high school team to a 7-3 record in 2008 and a spot in the 4A State Playoffs before losing a one-point, 34-35, game to Nederland. Alexander was timed at 10.56 seconds in the 100 meters in high school. He won his District Championship in the 100 meters as a junior. Individually, he was a Regional qualifier in the 100 meters, as well as being part of 4x100 and 4x200 Regional qualifying relay teams. He played for head football coach Mike Malkowski. Personal: Born Oct. 17, 1990, he is the youngest of three children of Katharine and Joe Alexander, his older brother Joe Alexander II played college football at McMurry University in Abilene, Texas. The younger Alexander was also recruited by Houston. He is majoring in criminal justice at UW.

JOSH BIEZUNS*44

Defensive End
6-2, 260, Senior
Prior Lake, Minn.
(Prior Lake)

Pronunciation: buh-ZOONS

UW This Season: Playing his third position in three seasons, Josh Biezuns found a home on the UW defense in 2010 and excelled. The defensive end earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference accolades from the MWC coaches and media. The senior enters the fall with 16 consecutive starts and 27 career starts, and is one of UW's defensive honors candidates. He and fellow senior defensive end Gabe Knapton should be two of the top defensive ends in the conference and the nation in 2011. 2010: Biezuns started in all 12 games at left defensive end for the Cowboys. He ranked sixth on the team with 61 tackles, including 40 solo stops, while leading the Cowboys with 10.5 tackles for a loss of 60 yards and 6.5 sacks for 48 yards. He ranked second in the MWC in sacks per game and No. 59 nationally, while his tackles for loss per game was fifth in the conference. Biezuns saved his best performance of the season for last when he notched a dominant performance against rival Colorado State to earn MWC Defensive Player of the Week. Against the Rams, he made seven tackles, 3.5 sacks and four tackles for loss to go with a forced fumble and pass breakup. The previous week, he notched a season-high nine tackles and one sack at UNLV and also recorded seven tackles against Air Force earlier in the season. At the team's year-end banquet, he was named UW's Defensive Lineman of the Year and also received the Gen. Pete Schoemaker Special Forces Award. 2009: Biezuns moved from offense to defense in the spring of '09. He took the physical style of play that made him a devastating blocker as a fullback on offense in 2008 and used that to become a starting outside linebacker for the Cowboy defense in 2009. Biezuns started 12 of 13 games at linebacker as a sophomore. He ranked third on the team in sacks, with 3.5 for a -15 yards. Biezuns was also third among the Cowboys in tackles for losses, with 9.5 for a -35 yards, and he was seventh in total tackles for the Pokes, with 65. Biezuns played a key role in helping the Wyoming defense mount a memorable goal-line stand in the New Mexico Bowl victory. He had one double-figure tackle game, making 11 tackles versus BYU. Biezuns had seven tackles against No. 2 ranked Texas, including 1.0 sack. He matched that total in the bowl game versus Fresno State, with seven tackles and 2.0 tackles for losses. He recorded six tackles at Air Force and at No. 16 ranked Utah. He concluded the 2009 regular season with four tackles, 1.0 sack and 2.0 tackles for losses in a 17-16 road win at archrival Colorado State. As a former high school linebacker, he made a smooth transition to the defensive side of the ball in '09. 2008: Biezuns played in eight games as a fullback, starting three his redshirt freshman season. He proved effective as a receiver out of the backfield, catching five passes for 35 yards. He had one rushing attempt on the season. Biezuns had one of the most impressive springs of any young player on the Cowboy roster during 2008 spring practice. With the implementation of a fullback position in Wyoming's new offense, Biezuns fit the new position perfectly. He was an outstanding fullback and linebacker at Prior Lake High School in Prior Lake, Minn. Biezuns was listed No. 2 on the Cowboy depth chart behind junior Greg Genho entering the 2008 season. 2007: Redshirted. High School: Biezuns earned All-Conference honors at both fullback and linebacker his senior season at Prior Lake High School, and was chosen as his team's Most Valuable Player. He led Prior Lake High School in tackles, with 74 total tackles, in 2006. He also carried the ball 44 times for 237 yards and had four rushing touchdowns his senior season. He averaged 5.3 yards per carry and 8.6 tackles per game as a senior. His best defensive performance came against Hutchinson High School as he made 19 total tackles, including 12 solo tackles and seven assists. Biezuns helped lead Prior Lake High to a 6-4 record and the second round of the Minnesota Class 5A Playoffs. He played for head coach Matt Gegenheimer at Prior Lake High School. In addition to football, Biezuns was captain of his high school baseball team, where he was a first baseman, and he played center in hockey. Biezuns was also recruited by Minnesota-Duluth and Minnesota-Mankato. Personal: Born Dec. 30, 1988, he is the son of Sharon and John Biezuns. His father played football at the University of South Dakota. Biezuns is studying sociology at UW.

MAT BIRKENESS

Defensive End

6-4, 256, Junior

Littleton, Colo.

(Columbine)

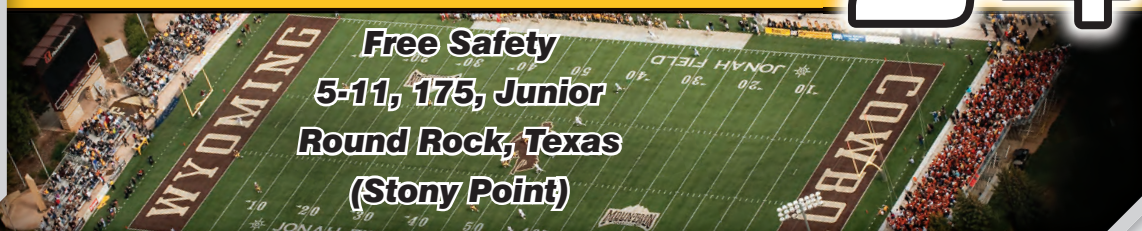

UW This Season: A solid contributor on the defensive front last season, Mat Birkeness will help solidify a line that will anchor the defense this fall. Birkeness has appeared in all 25 games over the last two years as a reserve and will continue to backup All-Mountain West Conference defensive end Josh Biezuns this season. 2010: Birkeness was a solid backup at defensive end during his sophomore campaign, as he appeared in all 12 games. He finished the season with 22 tackles, including 12 solo stops, to go with 4.0 tackles for loss for seven yards and 1.5 sacks. He also had two pass breakups. Birkeness' top performance was a four-tackle effort at UNLV in which he also recorded a tackle for loss. The previous week at New Mexico, he posted three tackles and a sack. 2009: As a redshirt freshman, Birkeness saw action in all 13 games. He played a great deal on special teams. He recorded one assisted tackle in UW's game against Texas on Sept. 12. 2008: Redshirted. High School: Birkeness was named First Team All-State in Class 5A by the Rocky Mountain News as a tight end following his senior season of 2007. He also earned Honorable Mention All-State by the Denver Post. Birkeness was ranked by Scouts.com as the No. 89 best tight end prospect in the nation. He also earned All-State honors his junior season. As a tight end and outside linebacker, he helped lead Columbine High School to the 2006 Class 5A State Championship. In 2007, Birkeness was part of a Columbine team that entered the state playoffs as the No. 1 seed, and advanced to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs, posting a 10-1 record. He caught 16 passes for 250 yards and three touchdowns his senior season. He also had 56 tackles, nine sacks, one interception, forced four fumbles and recovered four fumbles on defense. Birkeness was a First Team Academic All-State selection as a senior. His high school teams posted a combined record of 44-5 in his four years of high school. He played for head coach Andy Lowry at Columbine High. He concluded his high school career in the Colorado High School Coaches' Association All-Star game played in Greeley, Colo. He was also recruited by Air Force, Boise State, Colorado, Colorado State and Utah. Personal: Born Oct. 4, 1989, he is one of four children of Stacy and Arne Birkeness. He is majoring in communications.

KENNY BROWDER*24

UW This Season: A key reserve in the defensive secondary and on special teams the past two seasons, Kenny Browder is projected to step into a starting role at free safety this fall to replace departed senior Chris Prosinski. He gained valuable experience serving as Tashaun Gipson's backup at cornerback in 2010, but made the move to free safety this past spring and finished 2011 spring drills No. 1 on the depth chart. 2010: Browder appeared in 11 games during his sophomore season as a reserve cornerback and special teams player. He finished with 12 tackles and one pass breakup. His top performance of the season was five tackles at TCU, while he also notched two tackles and a pass breakup against Colorado State. 2009: Browder played in all 13 games as a freshman. He was credited with 16 tackles, four pass breakups and a fumble recovery in his first season of college football. His first college game versus Weber State saw Browder record a personal best five tackles. He had three tackles and one pass breakup in a home win over New Mexico. But the biggest play Browder made during his freshman season was the recovery of an onside kick at San Diego State. Wyoming had come back to tie the Aztecs at 27-27 with 2:07 remaining in the game, after overcoming a 21-point deficit late in the third quarter. It appeared likely the game would go to overtime, when UW squibbed a kickoff that hit an SDSU player and was recovered by Browder at the San Diego State 44-yard line. Browder's recovery allowed the Pokes to go on a seven-play drive that resulted in a 43-yard, game-winning field goal and kept Wyoming's bowl hopes alive. UW would of course earn a bid to the New Mexico Bowl where they would defeat Fresno State. He was awarded his first varsity letter. High School: Browder was a First Team All-District 16-5A selection his senior season at Stony Point High School in Round Rock, Texas. He recorded 49 solo tackles and 19 assists for a total of 68 tackles his senior season. He also had 12.0 tackles for losses, 1.0 sack, 11 pass breakups, two interceptions and one forced fumble. As a team captain, Browder helped lead Stony Point to a 13-2 record and the semifinals of the 5A State Playoffs. His junior season, Browder helped his high school team post a 9-3 record. In his final two seasons of high school, Browder's team posted a combined 22-5 (.815) record. He also was an outstanding track and field athlete at Stony Point, earning four letters. He played for head football coach Craig Chessher. Personal: Born May 16, 1991, he is the only child of Octavia and Kenneth Browder. He was also recruited by Colorado State, Ohio, Toledo, UTEP and Western Michigan. He is majoring in communications.

Tight End
6-5, 225, Sophomore
Gillette, Wyo.
(Campbell County)

UW This Season: After spending most of his first two seasons in the UW program as a defensive lineman, Spencer Bruce made the move to receiver late in the 2010 season. Bruce will be utilized as a tight end this season in Wyoming's spread offense. He enters the fall No. 2 on the depth chart behind fellow sophomore T.J. Smith. A big receiver with good ball skills, it is hoped that Bruce's size can be used to create matchup problems for opposing defenses. 2010: Bruce played in the last two games of the season. 2009: Redshirted. High School: Bruce led Campbell County High School of Gillette, Wyo., to the 2008 Wyoming 5A State Football Championship. Bruce was named to the 2008 Casper Star-Tribune Super 25 team his senior season as a defensive end/wide receiver. He was also a First Team All-State Class 5A selection both as a defensive end and as a wide receiver. Bruce was selected to play for the North Team in the 36th Annual Wyoming North-South Shrine Bowl which was played in Casper, Wyo., on June 13, 2009. He was credited with 42 total tackles from his defensive end position. Bruce led Gillette in both tackles for losses (13.5 TFLs) and sacks (6.0 sacks), as well as leading Class 5A in both categories. He also broke up two passes and blocked one kick. Bruce was part of a Gillette defense that ranked No. 1 in Class 5A in total defense (182.7 yards allowed per game), rushing defense (104.2 yards allowed per game) and passing defense (78.5 yards allowed per game). On offense he led the Camels in receptions (25), receiving yards (440) and yards receiving per game (40.0). He ranked No. 5 in Class 5A in receiving yards per game. Bruce caught four touchdown passes in '08. His senior season, he was elected a team captain of both his football and basketball teams. He was a member of Campbell County's State Championship basketball team as a junior. That team posted a 23-3 record, and Bruce earned All-State honors. His sophomore season, Bruce was part of a Campbell County team that captured the 5A State Football Championship. He was also a member of the National Honor Society. Bruce played for head football coach Vic Wilkerson at Campbell County High School. Personal: Born Sept. 29, 1990, he is the son of Sally and Steven Bruce. He has one older brother, Scott, who swam at the University of Wyoming. The younger Bruce was also recruited by Southern Mississippi. Bruce is majoring in kinesiology and health promotion.

Cornerback
5-11, 185, Junior
Topeka, Kan.
(Highland Park)

UW This Season: A solid contributor on special teams and as a reserve defensive back in 2010, James Caraway enters this fall No. 2 on the depth chart at cornerback behind sophomore Marqueston Huff. Caraway was one of the most improved players on the Cowboy roster in 2011 spring camp. In addition to playing cornerback, he will compete for a starting spot returning kickoffs for the Pokes again this season. Caraway has played in 24 games over his first two seasons in the Cowboy program. 2010: Caraway appeared in all 12 games during his sophomore campaign as a reserve behind senior cornerback Marcell Gipson. He also played on special teams returning kickoffs. Caraway finished the season with two tackles and one fumble recovery. He also returned four kickoffs for 71 yards, with a long of 26 yards. 2009: Caraway played in 12 games as a redshirt freshman, with his primary contribution coming on special teams. He recorded four tackles on special teams. Offensively, he had one carry for one yard at Colorado and one reception for 12 yards versus Texas. His best game came in UW's come-from-behind victory at San Diego State where he recorded two solo tackles. He earned his first varsity letter.

2008: Redshirted. High School: Caraway earned All-City honors as a senior from the Topeka Capital-Journal. His senior year he rushed for 839 yards, had 220 receiving yards and 400 combined return yards, while making 59 tackles on defense. His junior year, he rushed for 638 yards, had 200 receiving yards and over 300 return yards and 30 tackles. He played multiple positions in high school at Topeka's Highland Park High. Caraway was the Scots leading rusher, played cornerback on defense and was his team's top return specialist. At the conclusion of his senior season, he played in the Scout.com Bowl, a national high school all-star game. Caraway was a National Honor Society member both his junior and senior seasons. He was also recruited by Kansas, Kansas State and Missouri. Caraway played for head coach Tony Canacari. Personal: Born Sept. 10, 1989, he is the son of Annette and James Caraway Sr. Caraway is majoring in criminal justice.

NICK CARLSON

Center

6-4, 292, Junior

Arlington Heights, Ill.

(Prospect)

UW This Season: Nick Carlson should be one of the top centers in the Mountain West Conference in 2011. As a sophomore, he was an Honorable Mention All-MWC selection, and he was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List in the summer of 2011. The Rimington Trophy honors the top offensive center in college football each season. Carlson will be counted upon to anchor the offensive front for the Cowboys in 2011. He enters the fall having started 20 of his 21 career games and started all 12 games at center for the Cowboys last season. 2010: Carlson earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference as a sophomore. He helped block for UW running back Alvester Alexander, who gained 792 yards and scored 14 touchdowns on the season. Carlson was one of only two offensive linemen to start all 12 games during the season. At the team's year-end banquet, he was named UW's Offensive Lineman of the Year. 2009: Carlson started the first eight games of his freshman season at right guard for the Cowboys. He played in nine of Wyoming's 13 games, and earned his first varsity letter. Carlson was a grayshirt signee by the Wyoming Cowboys in the spring of 2008, meaning he didn't join the Cowboy Football program until the spring semester of '09. But from the first practice of 2009 spring drills to the conclusion of spring practice, Carlson made the most dramatic climb up the Wyoming depth chart of any other Cowboy. He rose from a true freshman to starter at right offensive guard entering the 2009 season. He earned Academic All-Conference honors as a freshman in 2009. 2008: Carlson signed with the Cowboys in the spring of 2008 as a grayshirt, and so didn't join the program until the spring semester '09. High School: An athletic center, he earned First Team All-Mid Suburban League honors as a senior at Prospect High School in Arlington Heights, Ill. He led his Prospect High School squad to an 11-2 record and the semifinals of the state playoffs his junior season. In four years of high school, his football teams combined for a 33-9 (.786) record. A multi-sport athlete at Prospect High, he also played basketball and volleyball in high school. Carlson was a four-year honor student and a high school Academic All-Conference selection in Illinois. Carlson was also recruited by Northern Illinois and Western Michigan. He played for head coach Brent Pearlman. Personal: Born March 30, 1990, he is the son of Lauren and Craig Carlson. He is majoring in geography.

BEN DURBIN*15*Defensive Tackle*6-3, 272, Junior*Gilbert, Iowa*(Gilbert)

UW This Season: Ben Durbin proved to be a valuable contributor on the defensive line in 2010 after making the move from linebacker prior to the start of the '10 season. In 2011, he'll once again help solidify the defensive front, rotating with returning starter Patrick Mertens at right defensive tackle. 2010: With UW's move from a 3-4 defense to a 4-3, Durbin moved from linebacker to defensive tackle and established himself as a key member of the D-line. He played in all 12 games during the season and made 16 tackles, including seven solo stops. He also was credited with 2.0 sacks for 12 yards. Durbin's top performance was a five-tackle effort against Air Force, while he recorded his sacks against Southern Utah and Utah. 2009: As a redshirt freshman, Durbin was a backup inside linebacker but did not see any game action. 2008: Redshirted. High School: Durbin was one of the top linebackers in the state of Iowa in 2007. He brought a very impressive resume to the University of Wyoming football program. He was named First Team All-District three times, First Team All-State twice and was also selected as a District MVP. He was ranked as the best linebacker and the ninth best overall prospect out of the state of Iowa by Rivals.com. He was also the 81st ranked inside linebacker in the nation by Scouts, Inc. His senior season, he recorded 143 tackles, 18 tackles for loss, six sacks and two blocked kicks. As a junior, he recorded 107 tackles, 17 of which were for a loss. He also had seven sacks, intercepted one pass and blocked one punt as a junior. Besides playing linebacker on defense, he contributed to the offense as a running back, tight end and offensive lineman. Durbin not only excelled at football, he was a four-sport standout at Gilbert High School in Gilbert, Iowa. He ran the 400 and 800-meters in track, was an All-District soccer goalie and was a two-time state qualifying wrestler. As a junior, he compiled a 35-3 record in the 205-pound weight class. Durbin was also recruited by Iowa, Iowa State and Kansas State. Durbin played for head coach Scott Auderer at Gilbert High School. Personal: Born Aug. 15, 1989, he is the youngest of two sons of Jinjer and Gregg Durbin. His father wrestled at the University of Iowa in 1982-83, and his older brother, Jake, wrestled at the University of Dubuque. Durbin is majoring in psychology.

TASHAUN GIPSON

Cornerback
6-0, 208, Senior
Dallas, Texas
(Kimball)

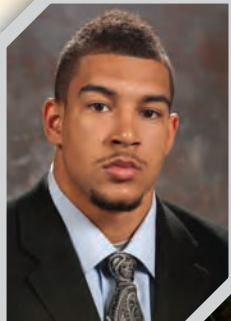

Pronunciation: tuh-SHAWN

UW This Season: The Cowboys will look to Tashaun Gipson to be a leader in the secondary during the 2011 campaign, after the departure of seniors Marcell Gipson, his older brother, and Chris Prosinski. With a team-high 37 consecutive starts under his belt, Gipson has led Wyoming in pass breakups and interceptions as a cornerback the last two seasons, and is a candidate for postseason honors as a senior this fall. 2010: Gipson continued to be one of UW's top defensive backs in his junior campaign, as he started all 12 games and earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors from MW coaches and media. He finished the season with 40 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss, nine pass breakups and three interceptions. His average of 1.0 passes defended per game tied for second in the league and No. 26 nationally, while his three interceptions ranked fourth in the MWC and tied for No. 87 in the NCAA. Gipson notched 77 interception return yards on the season with returns of 32 against Utah, 26 against Colorado State and 19 against San Diego State. He recorded a season-high six tackles at BYU and had five against Colorado State. 2009: Gipson intercepted three passes his sophomore season to tie for the team lead and tie for 10th in the Mountain West Conference. In addition to his three interceptions, he recorded six pass breakups for a total of nine passes defended, which led the team and tied him for No. 9 in the MWC. Two of his interceptions came against UNLV, tying him for the NCAA's 11th best single-game interception total for the '09 season. Gipson's other interception came in the season opener versus Weber State. His top single-game tackle performances of the year came on the road at Colorado (10 tackles, one forced fumble), at San Diego State (nine tackles) and in the New Mexico Bowl vs. Fresno State (seven tackles). 2008: The younger Gipson excelled in the starting lineup, ranking sixth on the team in tackles, with 56, and tying with his brother Marcell for the team lead in pass breakups, with 10. Gipson began the season in strong fashion, recording a season high nine tackles in a season-opening win over Ohio. He also had seven tackles on two occasions — versus Air Force and at UNLV. Gipson also broke up three passes against UNLV. His other top performance of 2008 came at BYU, where he recorded six tackles, broke up three passes and forced one fumble. High School: Gipson was a three-sport star at Kimball High School in Dallas, playing football and basketball while also running track. He had an outstanding career and especially an outstanding senior year on the gridiron. He was named the Most Valuable Player of the 4A District 14 Dallas City League and also earned First Team All-District honors both as a cornerback and as a returner. On defense, Gipson made 35 tackles, broke up nine passes and recovered two fumbles. On offense and special teams, he accumulated more than 1,400 all-purpose yards and scored 14 touchdowns while serving as an offensive team captain. During his career, he played quarterback, wide receiver, free safety and returned punts and kicks. Gipson was coached in high school by Darrell Jordan. He was also recruited by Baylor, Louisville, Fresno State and Idaho. Personal: He is one of six children of Kimberly Roberson-Gipson and Michael Gipson. His father played football at Arizona State University. Tashaun has one son of his own, Damari Tashaun Gipson. Gipson is majoring in communications.

DEVYN HARRIS*43

Linebacker
6-3, 225, Sophomore
Fountain, Colo.
(Fountain-Fort Carson)

UW This Season: Devyn Harris started eight of 12 games at the outside linebacker position as a redshirt freshman in 2010, but makes the move to middle linebacker this year and is a candidate to start. The sophomore finished the spring No. 2 on the depth chart behind senior Oliver Schober. 2010: Splitting time with senior Keith Lewis at outside linebacker, Harris played in all 12 games and started eight of the last nine contests. Harris made 47 tackles on the season to rank ninth on the team, while also collecting three tackles for loss, one fumble recovery and four pass breakups. Harris made a season-high eight tackles versus Air Force and at TCU, while also recording seven stops at New Mexico. His efforts earned him a place on Phil Steele's All-Freshman team as a Fourth-Team Freshman All-American. 2009: Redshirted after suffering a knee injury in fall camp. Prior to the injury, it was thought that Harris would have a good opportunity to play as a true freshman for the Cowboys. High School: Harris was honored as an All-Colorado selection for all classifications by The Denver Post as a senior in 2008. Harris was also named First Team All-State Class 4A by both The Denver Post and the Rocky Mountain News. He was credited with 101 tackles as an outside linebacker and 804 rushing yards as a running back his senior season. As a team captain, he helped lead Fountain-Fort Carson to a 10-2 record and the quarterfinals of the 4A State Playoffs as a senior. His junior year, Harris earned Second Team All-State honors, while recording 94 total tackles and intercepting four passes. During his three years at Fountain-Fort Carson, his high school team compiled a 30-6 (.833) record and advanced to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs all three seasons. A three-sport standout, he was a three-year letterman in basketball and a four-year letterwinner in track and field. Harris also earned First Team Academic All-State honors. He played for head football coach Mitch Johnson at Fountain-Fort Carson. Personal: Born Nov. 10, 1990, Harris is the oldest of three children of Valarie and Keith Harris. He was also recruited by Air Force, Colorado State and New Mexico. Harris is studying mathematics at UW.

Linebacker

6-0, 222, Junior

Rock Springs, Wyo.

(Rock Springs)

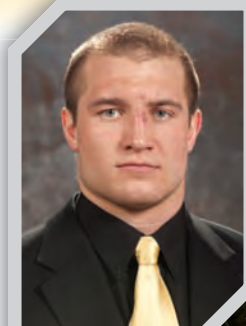

UW This Season: Patrick Hartford begins his second season as a linebacker in 2011, after entering the Wyoming Football program as a strong safety. A contributor on special teams and as a defensive reserve last season, he will look to earn more playing time this fall. 2010: Hartford played in all 12 games during the season as a backup linebacker and special teams' performer. He made seven tackles, including four solo stops. 2009: Hartford did not play in any games during his redshirt freshman season.

2008: Redshirted. High School: Hartford was an outstanding two-sport athlete at Rock Springs High, playing football and wrestling. He was a three-year starter at cornerback, and was elected a team captain his senior season. He helped lead Rock Springs to the semifinals of the state playoffs his senior year. He was honored as the Marine Corps Senior Athlete of the Year at Rock Springs High in 2007. An outstanding student, he was also a member of the National Honor Society. Hartford was also recruited by Carroll College of Montana and Jamestown University of North Dakota. He played for head football coach Tony Yerkovich at Rock Springs High School. Personal: Born on the 4th of July in 1989, he is the youngest of three children of Audrey and Murray Hartford. Hartford is majoring in management at Wyoming.

BRIAN HENDRICKS*8

Linebacker
6-1, 228, Senior
Burlington, Colo.
(Burlington)

UW This Season: A two-time All-Mountain West Conference honoree, Brian Hendricks has been a rock solid linebacker the last two seasons, and will once again be one of UW's leading candidates for postseason honors this fall. After playing the majority of his time at the middle linebacker position last season, Hendricks was moved to the weakside (outside) linebacker position in 2011 spring drills. The move should allow him to utilize his athleticism and speed on the outside of Wyoming's outstanding defense. Hendricks was limited by some nagging injuries in 2010 after being a preseason First Team All-Conference selection to start the season. The senior has 22 starts and nine double-figure tackle games under his belt, and is quickly approaching UW's Top 10 in career tackles. He enters his senior season with 204 career tackles, and is currently 99 away from the UW Top 10. 2010: Hendricks finished third on the team in tackles in 2010, despite missing one game due to injury. He made 80 stops in 11 starts. He added half a sack, one fumble recovery and one pass breakup to earn Honorable Mention All-MWC honors by the coaches and media. He averaged 7.3 tackles per contest to rank No. 11 in the MWC, while recording four double-figure tackle games during the season. His top performance was a 13-tackle effort against Air Force. He also notched 12 stops versus Boise State and 10 at New Mexico. At the team's year-end banquet, he was named the Cowboys' Linebacker of the Year. He was also named Preseason First-Team All-MWC by the conference media. 2009: A Second Team All-MWC selection, Hendricks' 10.5 tackle-per-game average not only ranked 12th in the nation, but ranked No. 3 in the MWC. He was named MWC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his 23 tackles at Air Force, which was the best single-game performance in the nation in 2009 and set a new UW single-game record. Hendricks had a total of five double-figure tackle games in '09 including: 14 vs. No. 2 Texas, 18 on the road at Colorado, 11 vs. UNLV and 12 at No. 16 Utah. The captain missed two games during the '09 campaign, at San Diego State and versus TCU, due to a sprained ankle, but he returned to action against Colorado State in the regular-season finale, being credited with nine tackles, 1.0 sack and 2.0 tackles for losses. At the team's year-end awards banquet, Hendricks was named his team's Linebacker of the Year for 2009. He earned the starting spot at the weakside linebacking position for the Cowboys in the spring of 2009, taking over for 2008 First Team All-Mountain West Conference linebacker Ward Dobbs, who was a senior. 2008: Despite suffering an injured right knee versus North Dakota State that caused him to miss two games at BYU and against Bowling Green, Hendricks battled back to return against New Mexico at midseason. He recorded eight total tackles for the season, playing behind Weston Johnson at the strongside linebacking position. 2007: Redshirted. High School: Hendricks was the recipient of the prestigious 2007 Fred Steinmark Colorado Athlete of the Year Award presented by the Rocky Mountain News in the spring of each year. The Steinmark Award honors the top male and female high school student-athletes in the state of Colorado each year based on athletics, academics and citizenship. He was selected to the All-Colorado Team for all classifications as a linebacker by The Denver Post and was named All-Colorado as an overall athlete by the Rocky Mountain News his senior year. He was also named the 1A Player of the Year by The Denver Post and was a First Team All-State running back selection by the Post. The Rocky Mountain News named Hendricks its Class 1A Defensive Player of the Year, as well as selecting him a First Team

All-State 1A linebacker. Hendricks was also named The Denver Post Student-Athlete of the Week on Nov. 19, 2006. He helped lead Burlington to a 10-2 record his senior season of 2006. Burlington advanced to the second round of the Class 1A State Playoffs before losing to Akron. As a senior, he rushed for 2,132 yards on 237 carries to average 9.0 yards per carry and scored 29 rushing touchdowns. Hendricks tallied 87 tackles as a senior, including 61 solos. He also intercepted four passes for 111 yards, and returned two for TDs. He set school records for career rushing yards (6,206 yards) and career touchdowns (89 TDs). He ran the ball a total of 644 times during his four-year career as a starter, and averaged 9.6 yards per carry. On defense, Hendricks was credited with 321 career tackles — the second most in school history. A multi-sport athlete, Hendricks won the 2A State Wrestling Championship at 215 pounds as a senior with a perfect 25-0 record, and was ranked 18th in the nation in his weight class by Wrestling USA Magazine. As a junior, he captured the 3A State Championship in the 215-pound division, posting a perfect 37-0 mark. He missed his sophomore season in wrestling, due to a knee injury suffered in football, but posted a 40-1 record as a freshman and placed third in state at 189 pounds. His combined wrestling record in high school was 102-1. He also was a three-time state qualifier in track and field as a freshman, junior and senior. His junior year, he placed second in state in the 400 meters, seventh in the 200 meters and was a member of the third-place 4 x 400-meter relay team. He pulled a hamstring three weeks prior to the state meet his senior year, but took up the shot put and placed fifth in state. As a junior, he earned Honorable Mention All-State honors in the 400 meters from The Denver Post. His junior and senior years, Hendricks was a member of the National Honor Society. He played for head football coach Glynn Higgs at Burlington High School. Hendricks was also recruited by Colorado, Colorado State, Kansas State, Stanford and Utah. He was offered wrestling scholarships by Nebraska and Oklahoma State. Personal: Born April 6, 1988, he is the son of Nancy and Michael Hendricks. His father, Mike, was a fullback at Colorado State from 1978-81, and his grandfather, John, also played at CSU in the 1950s. Hendricks is from the hometown of former Cowboy All-America place-kicker Cory Wedel. Hendricks is majoring in agricultural business.

Wide Receiver
5-10, 187, Sophomore
Los Angeles, Calif.
(Dorsey)

Pronunciation: HUR-on (Like the word Her, no HAIR-un)

UW This Season: After splitting time as a running back and wide receiver as a true freshman in 2010, Robert Herron made the move strictly to wide receiver this past spring and has earned a No. 1 spot on the depth chart entering the fall of 2011. Herron provides UW with an explosive, breakaway threat as a receiver. He showed signs of his ability as a true freshman, and continued to shine through spring drills. He enjoyed an outstanding spring game. Herron will also compete for one of UW's kickoff return spots. 2010: Herron split time at wide receiver and running back, as he appeared in 10 of 12 games during the season and averaged 23.5 yards of total offense per game. In the backfield, he carried the ball 40 times for 235 yards, but earned more playing time as the season progressed. Herron made at least six carries each of the last five games, including notching a season-high nine carries for 122 yards at New Mexico. He also posted a season-long 68-yard rush against the Lobos. As a receiver, Herron had six catches for 57 yards, including at least one reception in five contests. His longest catch of the season was a 38-yarder at TCU.

High School: Herron lettered during his junior and senior seasons as a running back and wide receiver under coach Paul Know at Dorsey High School. As a senior, Herron helped guide his team to a 9-4 record and an appearance in the semifinals of the state playoffs. He finished second on the team with 24 catches for 600 yards and six touchdowns, while adding 15 carries for 171 yards and three touchdowns on the ground. His efforts earned him First Team All-City and All-League honors. Herron also lettered as a sprinter in track and field his final two years. As a senior, he qualified for the state meet in four events, after helping win city titles in the 4x400-meter relay and 4x100-meter relay. He owned personal bests of 20.99 in the 200 meters and 10.50 in the 100 meters. In the classroom, Herron volunteered as a peer mediator. Personal: The son of Nicole Brame and Terri Herron, Robert has two sisters and one brother. He is majoring in communications.

TRAVIS HILLEN*64

Offensive Tackle
6-5, 295, Senior
Thornton, Colo.
(Thornton)

UW This Season: A fifth-year senior, Travis Hillen will offer experience and depth at the offensive tackle position for the Cowboys this fall. 2010: Hillen made the move to offensive tackle from center, but did not play in any games during the season. 2009: Hillen was the backup to senior captain Russ Arnold at center, but did not play in any games. 2008: Hillen played behind senior starter Tim Bond and junior Russ Arnold at center in 2008. He didn't appear in any games, but gained valuable experience in his redshirt freshman season. 2007: Redshirted. High School: Travis Hillen was selected Honorable Mention Class 5A All-State by The Denver Post at the conclusion of the 2006 football season. Rivals.com ranked Hillen as the No. 23 overall recruit in the state of Colorado in its Colorado Top 25 Prospects as of January 2007. Very athletic for a big man, he has been timed at under 4.8 seconds in the 40-yard dash. In addition to football, he was an outstanding track and field athlete. He lettered in both football and track his sophomore, junior and senior seasons, and was a team captain in football his senior year. Hillen also earned First Team Academic All-State recognition. Hillen played for head coach Jeff Priestly at Thornton High School. He was also recruited by Colorado State and Colorado. Personal: Born March 28, 1989, he is the son of Sharon and Randy Hillen. Hillen is majoring in criminal justice.

MARQUESTON HUFF

Cornerback

6-0, 189, Sophomore

Texarkana, Texas

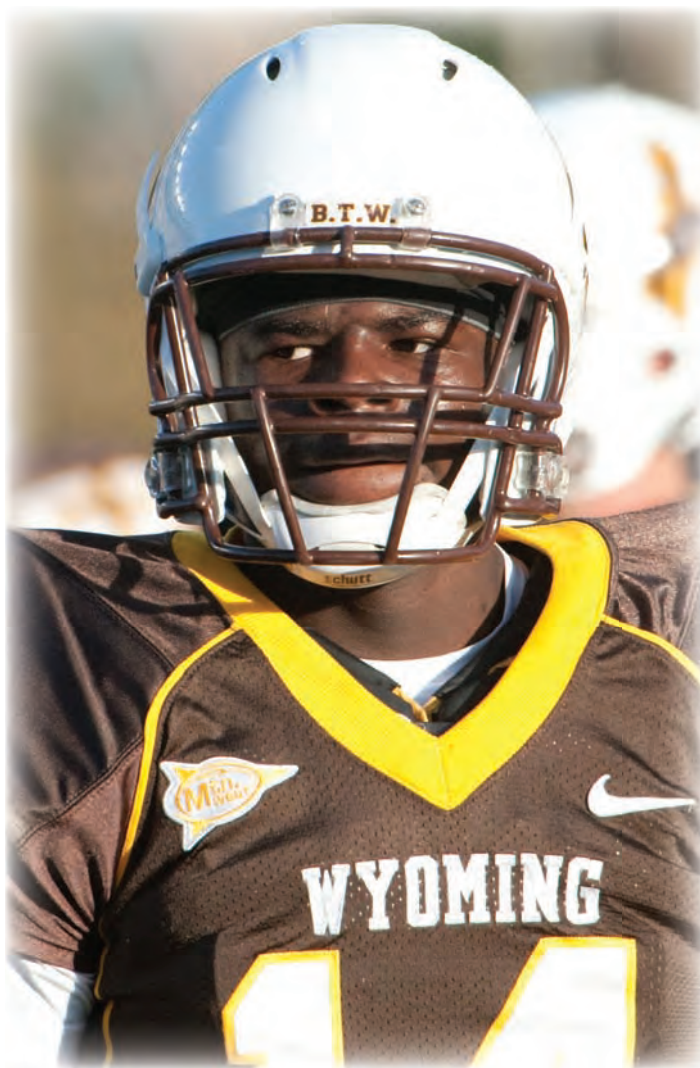

(Liberty-Eylau)

UW This Season: After making an impression on the coaching staff in his first year with UW, Marqueston Huff is a leading candidate to replace departed senior Marcell Gipson as a starting cornerback. Huff played some of his best games toward the end of last season and sits atop the depth chart at one cornerback spot entering the 2011 season.

2010: Huff appeared as a nickel back in the secondary, and played on special teams. He appeared in all 12 games during his true freshman season with the Cowboys. He finished with 18 tackles, one interception and one pass breakup. Huff's top performance came at UNLV when he recorded five tackles. He posted an interception and pass breakup to go with two tackles against Utah. High School: Huff was named All-Northeast Texas and All-District his senior season at Liberty-Eylau High School in Texarkana, Texas. He also achieved All-District honors as a junior, and was named All-State in track and field as a sprinter and high jumper his junior season. Huff intercepted three passes, was credited with 85 tackles, forced three fumbles, recovered one fumble and blocked one punt his senior season. His junior year, he intercepted two passes, made 53 tackles, forced one fumble and blocked two field goals. He was voted a team captain in football both his junior and senior seasons. He played for head coach Pat Brady. Personal: Born April 6, 1992, Huff's aunt and uncle are Rhonda and Richard Carson. He was also recruited by Baylor, Missouri and New Mexico. He is majoring in communications.

JOHN HUTCHINS*69*Offensive Tackle*6-5, 295, Senior*Inver Grove Heights, Minn.*(Simley)

UW This Season: After making 10 starts last season (seven at right guard and three at left tackle), John Hutchins will enter the 2011 season as the projected starter at left tackle courtesy of a strong spring campaign. He has 22 games of playing experience and 13 career starts to his credit over the last three seasons. His ability to play multiple positions will be an added plus for the UW offensive line unit. 2010: Hutchins appeared in all 12 games during the season and made 10 starts along the offensive line, including starting the final seven contests. He helped block for UW running back Alvester Alexander, who gained 792 yards and scored 14 touchdowns on the season. Hutchins started the first three games of the season at right guard, came off the bench in the next two games, moved to left tackle for his next three starts and finished the season with four starts at right guard. 2009: Hutchins played in eight games, starting three as a sophomore. He started against Weber State, at Utah and against BYU. He was UW's starting right tackle against Weber State, and started at left guard against both Utah and BYU. 2008: Hutchins appeared in two games during his redshirt freshman season — against TCU and San Diego State. 2007: Redshirted. High School: Hutchins was ranked by Rivals.com as the No. 15 overall recruit in the state of Minnesota in its Minnesota Top 15 Prospects as of January 2007. A three-time All-Conference football player, Hutchins played both offensive and defensive line in high school. He also was named a team captain in football both his junior and senior seasons. His all-around athletic ability was evidenced by the fact that he was an outstanding basketball player, earning all-conference honors as a sophomore, junior and senior. He was voted his basketball team's most valuable player as a junior and senior, and played for the Minnesota Magic Elite AAU Basketball Team. The Minneapolis Star-Tribune named him its Athlete of the Week for the week of Jan. 7-13, 2007, for his basketball performance. He was elected a team captain in basketball both his junior and senior seasons. Hutchins played football for head coach Ray Belton at Simley High School. Hutchins was also recruited by the University of Minnesota. Personal: Born Aug. 27, 1988, he is the son of Denise and Craig Hutchins. His older brother Corey played football at the University of Delaware, while his older sister Vanessa played basketball at Concordia St. Paul. He has another older sister, Alison. Hutchins is studying criminal justice.

CLAYTON KIRVEN

Offensive Tackle
6-6, 305, Senior
Buffalo, Wyo.
(Buffalo)

UW This Season: Clayton Kirven should once again play a significant role on UW's offensive line as he enters his senior season in 2011. The senior has started 34 of the 36 career games he has played at Wyoming. He has experience playing both left and right tackle positions, including starting nine games at left tackle and two at right tackle in 2010. Kirven ended 2011 spring drills No. 2 on the depth chart at left tackle behind fellow senior John Hutchins. 2010: Kirven was a solid contributor on the offensive line during the season, as he started 11 of the 12 games he played. He helped block for UW running back Alvester Alexander, who gained 792 yards and scored 14 touchdowns on the season. He started the first five games at left tackle, came off the bench versus TCU, started the next two games at right tackle and concluded the season with four starts back on the left side. For the third consecutive year, he was named to the Academic All-Conference team in 2010. 2009: Kirven developed into an outstanding offensive tackle for the Wyoming Cowboys, as he played in 13 games and started the final 12 of the season on the left side of the line. At the team's end-of-season banquet, Kirven was named the team's Top Offensive Lineman. He moves well for an offensive lineman, and he provides good size to go with his mobility. He was named to the Academic All-Conference team for the second time in his college career in 2009. 2008: He earned the starting right tackle position as a redshirt freshman and started 11 of 12 games in '08. The only start he missed was against New Mexico due to an injury. He developed rapidly as a college football player. In the spring of 2008, the Wyoming coaching staff experimented with moving senior Kyle Howard from right tackle to right guard, his original position in college, and placing Kirven in the starting lineup at right tackle. Kirven proved to the coaches that their confidence in him was deserved as he held down that starting spot the entire season. He helped the Wyoming offense rank No. 34 in the nation in rushing offense (178.3 yards per game). Kirven also helped pave the way for former Cowboy running back Devin Moore to rush for 1,301 yards on the season, and break the UW career rushing mark with 2,963 rushing yards. Kirven earned Academic All-Conference honors for the first time as a Cowboy. 2007: Redshirted. High School: Kirven was named to the Casper Star-Tribune Super 25 Team following his senior season of 2006. He also was named First Team All-State in Class 4A by the Casper Star-Tribune both as a junior in 2005 and a senior in '06. WyoPreps.com named Kirven an All-State and 4A East All-Conference selection in '06. Rivals.com ranked Kirven as the No. 1 overall recruit in the state of Wyoming in its Wyoming Top Prospects as of January 2007. Kirven helped lead Buffalo High School to back-to-back Wyoming 4A State titles in 2004 and 2005 and a 27-game winning streak beginning his sophomore season and ending his senior season. His senior season, he helped Buffalo win a third consecutive 4A East Conference Championship and advance to the semifinals of the state playoffs for a third consecutive season before falling to eventual 4A State Champion Powell. He was credited with 77 total tackles as a senior, and had 16 tackles for losses. During his high school career, Buffalo High School posted a 29-3 record in football. Kirven was selected to play for the North squad in the 2007 Wyoming Shrine Bowl Game. He also participated in basketball and track and field in high school. Buffalo High won the State Basketball Championship his junior year, posting a 23-2 record. His senior year, Buffalo placed third at state and his sophomore season finished fourth. He was an Honorable Mention All-State selection in basketball as a senior. A team captain in both football and basketball at Buffalo High, Kirven played for head football coach Pat Lynch. Kirven was also recruited by Colorado State. Personal: Born May 22, 1989, he is the son of Tina and Larry Kirven. Kirven is majoring in kinesiology and health promotion.

GABE KNAPTON*52

Defensive End
6-3, 263, Senior
Mead, Colo.
(Skyline)

Pronunciation: NAP-ton

UW This Season: Gabe Knapton has been one of the top defensive performers in Wyoming Football history. He enters his senior campaign ranked No. 11 in UW history in career tackles, with 287. Knapton needs only 16 tackles to tie for 10th on UW's career tackle chart. He has 13 career double-figure tackle games and 36 career starts to his credit. Knapton will once again team with Josh Beizuns to anchor an outstanding defensive line this fall. Knapton has continued to excel on the field after making the move to the D-line from linebacker last season. 2010: As a junior, Knapton led all UW and MWC defensive linemen with 67 tackles to earn Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference honors in his first year playing defensive line. The performance ranked fifth on the team and No. 25 overall in the MWC. He also finished second on UW's squad with 7.0 tackles for loss and 4.0 sacks to go along with two pass breakups and a fumble recovery. Knapton notched a season-high 13 tackles, including one tackle for loss, against Air Force and also posted 10 stops, including three sacks, at New Mexico for his No. 12 and 13 career double-figure tackle games. At the team's year-end banquet, he received the Iron Man Award as UW's top performer in the strength and conditioning program. 2009: Knapton was a leader of the Wyoming defense as a sophomore in 2009. His 128 tackles in '09 ranked No. 2 on the team to Chris Proinski, and ranked No. 9 all-time in school history for most tackles in a single season. Knapton averaged 9.8 tackles per game, which ranked No. 4 in the Mountain West Conference and No. 19 nationally. He had nine double-figure tackle games in '09. At one point in the season, he had recorded seven consecutive double-figure tackle games. His best single-game performance of the season was 17 tackles versus UNLV. That tied him for 18th in the nation for best single-game tackle performances. Knapton also had 12 tackles each vs. No. 2 Texas and No. 16 Utah. He was credited with 11 tackles in four different games (New Mexico, Air Force, Colorado State and in the New Mexico Bowl versus Fresno State), and made 10 tackles in two other games (Colorado and Florida Atlantic).

2008: Knapton ranked second on the team in tackles as a redshirt freshman, totaling 92 tackles. That ranked him No. 13 in the MWC, and tied him for No. 100 nationally in tackles per game. Knapton took over as one of the starting inside linebackers in 2008 in his first season competing at the collegiate level. He teamed with fellow inside linebacker Ward Dobbs for a total of 193 tackles. Knapton also recorded 2.5 tackles for losses, and showed he could be as effective in pass coverage as he was against the run, recording three pass breakups during the season. Against UNLV in the second to last game of the 2008 season, Knapton was credited with 18 tackles, which tied for No. 5 on the UW single-game tackle chart. In the second game of his college career, Knapton recorded 16 tackles versus Air Force. That was the 23rd best individual performance in school history at the time. Knapton had nine tackles on two other occasions — at BYU and versus Colorado State. He made the most dramatic move of any player on the Wyoming roster during 2008 spring drills. He entered the spring as a redshirt freshman, but he emerged a few weeks later as the starting middle linebacker. 2007: Redshirted. High School: Knapton was named both All-Colorado for all classifications and First Team All-State Class 4A by the Rocky Mountain News following his senior season of 2006. He was also an Honorable Mention All-State selection by The Denver Post, and was named All-Area Defensive Player of the Year. Rivals.com ranked Knapton as the No. 15 overall recruit in the state of Colorado in its Colorado Top 25 Prospects as of January 2007. That was the highest Rivals.com ranking of any of UW's six '07 signees from the state of Colorado. Knapton was Wyoming's first commitment in the 2007 recruiting class. As a senior, he recorded 175 tackles, including 3.0 sacks, and he intercepted three opponent passes. As a junior, he was credited with 155 total tackles, 2.0 sacks and one interception. By coming to Wyoming, he follows in the footsteps of his uncle, Jeff Knapton, who lettered four years for the Cowboys from 1984-87. As a senior at Wyoming in 1987, Jeff Knapton earned First Team All-Western Athletic Conference honors as a defensive lineman. He was a team captain of Wyoming's WAC Championship Team that posted a 10-3 overall record, a perfect 8-0 WAC record and earned a bid to the 1987 Holiday Bowl. The younger Knapton was also an outstanding baseball player at Skyline High School in Longmont, Colo. During his career, he played for two head football coaches, one being his father Bob and the other Travis Lease at Skyline. He was also recruited by Colorado and Colorado State. Personal: Born May 10, 1989, he is the son of Sandy and Bob Knapton and has one younger brother, Luke. His father played football at Northern Colorado. In the summer of 2008, his dad was named the new head football coach at Laramie High School. Knapton is majoring in sociology.

JOSH LEONARD

6-4, 296, Junior
Helena, Mont.
(Helena)

UW This Season: Josh Leonard will provide another experienced player to the UW offensive line this fall, after starting 10 of 12 games as a sophomore at right tackle. He finished 2011 spring drills No. 2 on the depth chart at right tackle behind fellow junior Kyle Magnuson. 2010: Leonard stepped into the starting role at right tackle his sophomore season. He started the first six games of the season and the last four at right tackle. Leonard helped block for UW running back Alvester Alexander, who gained 792 yards and scored 14 touchdowns on the season. 2009: Leonard played in two games as a freshman — at Florida Atlantic and at home against New Mexico. He originally signed as a grayshirt in February 2008, meaning he didn't join the Cowboy Football program until January of 2009, and he didn't go on scholarship until then. High School: Leonard earned All-Conference honors in football as an offensive lineman and defensive end his senior season. His Helena High team posted an 8-4 record and advanced to the semifinals of the state playoffs in Class AA — the largest classification in the state of Montana. Leonard was credited with 80 tackles, 14 tackles for loss and two sacks as a senior. Also as a senior, he placed fourth in the state wrestling championships, earning him all-state recognition. Leonard was an all-conference selection his junior year, as well, as his team went 9-3 and made it to the semifinals of state. He made 40 tackles, 12 TFLs, four sacks and blocked one punt as a junior. Leonard was elected a team captain in football both seasons. He played for head coach Tony Arnston at Helena High School. Personal: Born Dec. 8, 1989, his guardians are Katie and Dustin Temple. He was also recruited by Idaho State, Montana and Montana State. Leonard is majoring in criminal justice.

UW This Season: A senior, who came to Wyoming as a junior college transfer from Snow Community College in 2010, DeJay Lester enters his second season in the Wyoming program in 2011. He played in seven games last fall and should add depth to a balanced receiving core this season. He finished the spring of 2011 second on the depth chart behind his former junior college teammate and fellow senior Mazi Ogbonna. 2010: Lester played in seven games as a reserve wide receiver during the season. He had two catches for 18 yards at Texas for his only receptions of the year. Junior College: He caught 27 passes for 456 yards during the 2009 season and scored two touchdowns. He also returned eight kickoffs for 195 yards, which was an average of 24.4 yards per return. Snow College finished 10-2 overall and 7-1 in the Western States Football League this past season. Snow CC earned a 41-37 victory over Grand Rapids Community College to capture the Zions Bank Top of the Mountains Bowl. They ended the season ranked No. 5 in the final NJCAA National Poll. Snow College ranked No. 16 in the nation in total offense, averaging 397.3 yards per game. Snow ranked No. 8 in the nation in passing offense, averaging 267.8 yards passing per game. He was coached by Steve Coburn while at Snow College. Lester played his high school football at Layton Christian in Layton, Utah. He was also recruited by Middle Tennessee, Utah and Utah State. He is majoring in sociology.

AUSTIN MCCOY

Punter/Place-kicker

6-3, 208, Senior

Winter Haven, Fla.

(Winter Haven)

UW This Season: A four-year starter with 35 consecutive starts under his belt, Austin McCoy has been a steadfast performer for the Cowboy program during his career. He's earned Honorable Mention All-Conference honors the past two seasons by regularly ranking among the best in the nation in punting average and should be one of the Mountain West's and nation's best as a senior this fall. 2010: McCoy earned his second consecutive Honorable Mention All-Mountain West Conference accolade by ranking third in the league and No. 32 in the country with a 42.8 yard-per-punt average. He punted 68 times during the season for 2,911 yards and placed 17 kicks inside the opponent's 20-yard line with just eight touchbacks. He booted 18 kicks more than 50 yards and forced 12 fair catches. McCoy's most valuable performance of the season came at Toledo when he earned MWC Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He punted eight times versus Toledo, forced two fair catches and placed two punts inside Toledo's 20-yard line. His biggest play of the day was a fake punt, which resulted in him completing a 34-yard pass to senior cornerback Marcell Gipson. That play later led to the Cowboys scoring what proved to be the game-winning field goal on that drive. At TCU, McCoy averaged 46.4 yards per punt on eight punts, forced two fair catches, placed three punts inside the 20-yard line and had three punts of over 50 yards. His top average of the season was against Boise State when he averaged 53.4 yards on seven kicks, including a career-long 74-yard boot. 2009: McCoy earned Honorable Mention All-MWC honors for the first time in his career. He averaged 43.3 yards per punt his sophomore season to rank No. 3 in the MWC and No. 20 in the nation. That was over five yards more than his freshman punting average of 37.9 yards. He also helped the Cowboys rank No. 2 in the MWC and No. 15 nationally in net punting (38.2 yards per punt), and he contributed to Wyoming ranking No. 2 in the conference and No. 19 in the country in punt coverage, allowing opponents on average only 5.6 yards per punt return. He was named the Gen. Pete Schoomaker Special Forces Co-Player of the Year at the Cowboys' year-end awards banquet, sharing the award with freshman defensive back Luke Ruff. McCoy helped keep UW in games throughout the 2009 season with the way he affected field position. He placed 29 of his 80 punts (36.3 percent) inside the opponents' 20-yard line. He forced opponents into 13 fair catches, recorded 17 punts of 50 yards or more and did not have a single punt blocked. His longest punt was a 72-yarder against TCU. McCoy was named as the MWC Special Teams Player of the Week against Weber State. He averaged a season-high 53.2 yards per punt versus UNLV, including four punts of over 50 yards and one punt placed inside the opponent's 20-yard line. He punted 11 times versus Texas for a 42.9-yard average, and he placed five punts inside the Texas 20-yard line. Versus San Diego State, he punted only three times, but he placed all three inside the Aztec 20-yard line and averaged 44.7 yards per punt. 2008: McCoy averaged 37.9 yards per punt on 69 punts as a true freshman. He placed 13 punts inside the opponents' 20-yard line, and forced opponents to fair catch 19 punts. McCoy had six punts of over 50 yards, with a season long 68-yarder. He had his best day of the season in the final game of the year, averaging 54.0 yards per punt on four punts versus Colorado State. He also averaged 42.7 yards per punt on nine punts at BYU and 41.8 yards per punt on eight punts versus Utah, including his season long of 68 yards. High School: He was the leading punter in his county as a junior and senior, carrying respective averages of 41.6 and 43.7 yards per punt. As a senior, he also excelled as a place-kicker and converted five of six field goals and 35/36 PATs. He earned All-County honors as both a punter and place-kicker. He was also the Winter Haven High School special teams MVP as both a junior and senior. His high school coach was Charlie Tate. McCoy is also a very accomplished race car driver. In 2006, he was an Eastern Regional Champion in shifter cart racing and also won the 2006 USA Road America shifter cart national championship race. He has raced in many prestigious raceways including Daytona, Seabring and Homestead-Miami Raceway. He was also recruited by Florida Atlantic and Western Kentucky. Personal: Born Dec. 18, 1989, McCoy is the son of Dawn and Eric McCoy. He is majoring in communications.

Wide Receiver
6-1, 180, Junior
Simi Valley, Calif.
(Notre Dame)

UW This Season: Chris McNeill has established himself as a consistent and reliable performer in his first two seasons at Wyoming. With 19 career starts to his credit, he is Wyoming's most experienced returning receiver entering the 2011 season. The junior caught a combined 45 passes for 374 yards his first two seasons as a Cowboy. 2010: McNeill started all 12 games at wide receiver in his sophomore campaign. He finished with 28 catches for 257 yards and three touchdowns. That ranked him second on the team in receptions and third in receiving yards. His long reception of the season was a 50-yard TD catch at New Mexico. His other scoring grabs of the season came at Toledo (37 yards) and BYU (16 yards). McNeill's top performance came against Southern Utah when he caught five balls for 44 yards. He also had four receptions for 25 yards at Texas, and four catches for 21 yards versus San Diego State. McNeill caught at least one pass in 11 of the 12 games he played in 2010. 2009: McNeill became a significant contributor to the Wyoming offense in his true freshman season. He started seven of the last nine games of the '09 campaign and played in all 13 games. McNeill caught 17 passes, tying him for fifth-best on the team, and he had 117 receiving yards, seventh best for the Cowboys. He caught a season high four passes against UNLV, had three catches at Florida Atlantic and had a season high in receiving yards, with 25 yards at San Diego State. High School: McNeill was an All-CIF selection his senior season, and was also an All-CIF Academic honoree. He earned All-Serra League honors as a wide receiver, catching 42 passes for 806 yards and eight touchdowns in 2008. On defense, he intercepted four passes and returned one for a TD as a defensive back. McNeill played for one of the top teams in the state of California in 2008. His Notre Dame High School team in Sherman Oaks, Calif., went through the regular season undefeated, posting a 10-0 record and capturing the Serra League Championship. Notre Dame entered the California Interscholastic Federation (CIF) Southern Section Division II Playoffs ranked No. 2 and advanced to the quarterfinals before falling to Orange Lutheran. The Knights finished with an 11-1 record. His teammate, junior quarterback Ryan Kasdorf, was named the Gatorade California Football Player of the Year. McNeill's junior season, he caught 23 passes for 381 yards, and earned All-CIF Academic honors for the first time. His team finished 8-3 his junior season before losing in the first round of the CIF Southern Section State Playoffs. McNeill is also a three-year letterwinner in track and field. He played for head football coach Kevin Rooney. Personal: Born March 15, 1991, he is one of two children of Robin and Lenny McNeill. McNeill has one sister, Jennifer. His father played college football at UC Riverside. McNeill was also recruited by Arizona State and Nevada. McNeill plans to study communications at UW.

ANDREW MEREDITH

UW This Season: Andrew Meredith will provide depth at the free safety position for the Cowboys in 2011. He is listed No. 3 on the depth chart entering the 2011 season. Meredith will back up junior Kenny Browder and senior Eric Mitchell.

2010: Meredith played in six games on special teams as a redshirt freshman, including the last three of the season, but did not make any tackles. 2009: Redshirted. High School: Meredith had a tremendous high school career at Green River High School. He was a Wyoming All-State selection as both a junior and senior and was named to the Casper Star-Tribune's Super 25 team as a senior. The Super 25 team recognizes the top 25 high school football players in the state of Wyoming. Meredith was also named all-conference as a sophomore, junior and senior and was a second team all-conference selection as a freshman. He was a team captain as a sophomore, junior and senior. Green River compiled a record of 25-12 during his career and advanced to the Wyoming State Championship game his senior year. He played for head coach Rich Carroll. In addition to football, he also lettered in basketball four times and in track as a freshman and sophomore. He was also a very good student and was on the honor roll all four years of high school. Personal: Born July 5, 1990 in Rock Springs, Wyo. He is the son of Allen Meredith. He has two younger sisters Alex and Allison. He is majoring in criminal justice.

PATRICK MERTENS*95

Defensive Tackle
6-5, 280, Sophomore
Sterling, Colo.
(Sterling)

UW This Season: Patrick Mertens enters his second season as one of UW's starting defensive tackles this fall. The sophomore, along with fellow tackle Mike Purcell, will anchor a line that returns all four starters from last season. Mertens was one of UW's and the nation's top freshmen during the 2010 campaign. 2010: Mertens took advantage of UW's change from a 3-4 base defense to a 4-3 to earn the nod as one of the Cowboys' starters at defensive tackle. He made the most of the opportunity by collecting 39 tackles, three tackles for loss and two sacks in 12 starts. Mertens' top showing of the season was a seven-tackle effort versus Air Force, while he also collected five stops against Boise State and San Diego State. He notched his two sacks of the season versus Colorado State. At the team's year-end banquet, Mertens was named UW's Freshman of the Year. He also earned a spot on Phil Steele's Second Team Freshman All-America squad. 2009: Redshirted. High School: Mertens had a stellar high school career at Sterling High School. As a senior, he earned all-state and all-conference honors and was Sterling High's Defensive MVP. As a junior, he also earned both all-state and all-conference honors, while being selected as his team's offensive and defensive MVP. As a sophomore, he earned honorable mention all-conference accolades. His football coach was Mark Bauder. Mertens' athletic ability was also showcased on the basketball floor where lettered all four years of high school. He was an honorable mention all-conference selection following both his junior and senior seasons. He was also named to the honor roll throughout high school. Personal: Born Oct. 20, 1990 in Sterling. He is the son of Deb and Darrel and has an older sister, Lindsey. He is majoring in agricultural business.

Running Back

6-0, 187, Sophomore

Parker, Colo.

(Mountain Vista)

UW This Season: Brandon Miller spent his first two years in the Wyoming Football program as a wide receiver, but made the move to running back this past spring. Miller made the most of his opportunity and impressed the coaching staff enough to end spring drills as UW's No. 1 running back. He should combine with returning starter Alvester Alexander, who missed spring practice due to injury, and a number of other talented running backs to form a potent group this fall. 2010: Miller played in seven games as a wide receiver during his redshirt freshman season, including playing in each of the last three games of the season. He didn't have any receptions, but did rush five times for 22 yards against Colorado State in the season finale, as the coaches utilized him in the spread formation on running plays. 2009: Redshirted. High School: Miller put together some impressive statistics during his high school career at Mountain Vista. As a senior, he rushed for 1,300 yards, had 600 receiving yards and scored 25 touchdowns. He also returned a pair of kickoffs for touchdowns. As a junior, he rushed for 600 yards and four touchdowns and had 200 receiving yards. As a sophomore, he rushed for 250 yards and scored two TDs. He was an Honorable Mention All-State and All-League selection as a senior, and was named Honorable Mention All-League as a junior. He was a team captain his senior year. In addition to football, he earned letter awards in basketball as a junior and track as a senior. He was also recruited by Colorado and Colorado State. Personal: Born on Aug. 28, 1990, in Denver, Colo. He is the son of Diane and Rick and has a younger sister, Kristin. He is majoring in communications.

ERIC MITCHELL*36*Free Safety*6-0, 200, Senior*Highlands Ranch, Colo.*(Highlands Ranch)

UW This Season: A three-time letterwinner, Eric Mitchell adds depth and experience at free safety, and is a leader on UW's special teams. With 36 games of experience, he enters his senior season No. 2 on the depth chart at free safety. 2010: Mitchell played in 11 of UW's 12 games during the season as a reserve free safety and on special teams. He made two tackles at TCU. 2009: Mitchell played in all 13 games for the Cowboys as a sophomore and started his first career game on Nov. 21 as the Cowboys hosted TCU. He was the Pokes' starting strong safety versus the Horned Frogs. He recorded two solo tackles and two assists for a total of four tackles on the season. He also contributed as a member of several special teams. 2008: As a redshirt freshman, Mitchell played in all 12 games as a backup safety and as a significant special teams contributor. He recorded three assisted tackles on the season. 2007: Redshirted. His work ethic earned him Co-Scout Team Player of the Year in 2007 from his coaches and teammates. High School: At Highlands Ranch High School in Highlands Ranch, Colo., Mitchell was a standout in both football and basketball. A three-year starter at quarterback, he earned All-State honors as a senior from the Colorado High School Coaches' Association, The Denver Post and the Rocky Mountain News. He also was awarded All-Continental Conference honors at three positions — quarterback, defensive back and punter. Mitchell led Highlands Ranch High in passing yards, rushing yards, touchdowns and interceptions as a senior. Highlands Ranch was ranked No. 12 in Colorado Class 5A his senior season. He played point guard in basketball and led Highlands Ranch in assists and steals throughout his three-year career as a starter. He helped lead his high school team to the "Sweet 16" of the state playoffs as a junior. Mitchell was voted a team captain in both sports his junior and senior seasons. During his senior year, he was selected the Highlands Ranch High School "Outstanding Athlete of the Year". Personal: Born Sept. 30, 1988, he is one of two sons of Susie and Greg Mitchell. He is studying communications.

Running Back

6-0, 221, Junior

St. Joseph, Mo.

(Central)

(Pronunciation: GOLLY)

UW This Season: A starting outside linebacker last season, Ghaali Muhammad made the move to the offensive side of the ball this past spring and will play running back this fall. He showed his athleticism at running back early in spring ball, but he missed the majority of spring practice after suffering an injury in the first scrimmage, which forced him to have surgery. Muhammad should combine with several talented UW running backs for a formidable backfield in 2011. 2010: Muhammad earned the starting nod at outside linebacker and made eight starts in 11 appearances, despite being hampered late in the season by an injury. He finished fourth on the team with 75 tackles, including 44 solo stops. His six tackles for losses of 15 yards was good for third on the squad. He also was credited with 1.0 sack, forced one fumble and had two pass breakups. Muhammad notched three double-digit tackle games during the season, including a season-high 12 tackles against Southern Utah. Another top performance of the season saw him make 10 tackles, two tackles for loss, a sack and saw him force a fumble versus Toledo. 2009: Muhammad made a dramatic entrance into college football when, in the second week of his true freshman season, he scored a touchdown on a blocked punt versus No. 2 ranked Texas. Muhammad picked up a punt blocked by fellow true freshman Luke Ruff, and ran it into the end zone from six yards out. Muhammad also concluded the regular season with another dramatic play, picking off a Colorado State pass to seal Wyoming's 17-16 win in the "Border War". For the season, Muhammad played both on special teams and at linebacker on defense. He earned two starts late in the 2009 season — at San Diego State and versus TCU. His best single-game performance came against TCU as he recorded eight tackles. He was credited with 21 tackles on the season, including 1.5 tackles for a losses, 0.5 sacks, one interception and one pass breakup. At the team's awards banquet, Muhammad shared the Hammer Award, for the most big hits during the season, with 2009 senior John Fletcher. High School: Muhammad earned All-City, All-Conference and All-District honors both his junior and senior seasons at Central High School in St. Joseph, Mo. He rushed for over 1,400 yards and 14 touchdowns, while recording 246 receiving yards and two receiving TDs. He was selected his team's Offensive Player of the Year. His high school football coach was Tony Dudik. Personal: Born Dec. 29, 1990, he is the eldest of two children of Jamma and Marcell Jackson. He was also recruited by Kansas, Missouri, Northwestern and Wisconsin. His cousin Martin Rucker was an outstanding tight end at Missouri from 2004-07. His cousin Mike Rucker was a talented defensive end, who played for Nebraska from 1995-98. Muhammad is majoring in sociology at UW.

MAZI OGBONNA*2

Wide Receiver
6-1, 200, Senior
Westbury, N.Y.
(Snow CC, Utah)

Pronunciation: MAH-zee, ahg-BON-uh

UW This Season: Mazi Ogbonna had a solid first season at Wyoming in 2010 after transferring from Snow Community College in Utah. UW will look to the senior to step into a more prominent role this fall with the departure of several seniors. Ogbonna finished the spring season as one of UW's starting wide receivers. 2010: Ogbonna appeared in 11 games and made three starts as a wide receiver during his first season in the Wyoming program. He had 18 catches for 183 yards and one touchdown, while averaging 10.2 yards per catch. He posted a season-high six catches for 54 yards and a touchdown in the season opener against Southern Utah. He also hauled in five grabs for 65 yards in the season finale versus Colorado State. His longest catch of the season was a 29-yard reception at Texas. He caught a pass in six of the 11 games he played in during the season. Junior College: Ogbonna was named First Team All-Western States Football League (WSFL) as a wide receiver at Snow Community College in 2009. He was also selected Second Team All-WSFL as a return specialist. He caught 40 passes for 827 yards, averaged 20.7 yards per catch and scored 11 receiving touchdowns. As a kick returner, he averaged 30.3 yards per return with 21 returns for 637 yards. He helped lead Snow College to a 10-2 overall record and a 7-1 mark in the WSFL. They earned a 41-37 victory over Grand Rapids Community College to take the Zions Bank Top of the Mountains Bowl Trophy. Snow ended the season ranked No. 5 in the final NJCAA National Poll. Snow College ranked No. 16 in the nation in total offense, averaging 397.3 yards per game. Snow ranked No. 8 in the nation in passing offense, averaging 267.8 yards passing per game. He was coached by Steve Coburn. Ogbonna played his high school football at Hicksville High School in Hicksville, N.Y. He was also recruited by Rutgers, Utah and Utah State. He is majoring in sociology.

MIKE PURCELL

Defensive Tackle

6-3, 286, Junior

Highlands Ranch, Colo.

(Highlands Ranch)

UW This Season: Mike Purcell, along with fellow starting defensive tackle Patrick Mertens, will help anchor a defensive line that returns all four starters this fall and should be a strength for the Cowboy defense. Purcell earned the starting nod at defensive tackle as a sophomore last season and could be a breakout performer this year as a junior. 2010: Purcell started all 12 games at defensive tackle for the Cowboys and showed improvement each week. The sophomore finished seventh on the team with 57 tackles and fifth in tackles for loss with 4.0 for 10 yards. Purcell's top performances of the season came against San Diego State and at UNLV, recording eight tackles in each of those two games. Three of his top four performances of the season came in the final four games, including a seven-tackle performance at New Mexico to go with his two eight-tackles games. He also recorded 1.5 tackles for loss and half a sack to go with six tackles against Southern Utah in the season opener. 2009: Purcell began his true freshman season with the intentions of redshirting. However, that redshirt was pulled prior to the sixth game of the season against New Mexico due to injuries in the defensive line. Purcell then played in the next six games and started two, versus BYU and San Diego State, before suffering a season-ending shoulder injury against TCU. That injury forced him to miss the final two games of the season at Colorado State and in the New Mexico Bowl. While healthy, Purcell contributed greatly to the defensive line. He recorded nine tackles on the year, including a season-best five against BYU. High School: Purcell was selected Second Team All-State Class 5A by the Rocky Mountain News and Honorable Mention All-State Class 5A by The Denver Post in 2008. He was also ranked by Rivals.com as the No. 17 best recruit in the state of Colorado. That ranking included all recruits in the state of Colorado, regardless of position. Purcell recorded 60 solo tackles from his defensive line position as a senior, including 10.0 sacks. As a team captain, he helped lead his Highlands Ranch team to a No. 16 seed (out of 32 qualifying teams) in the Colorado Class 5A State Playoffs before losing to Denver East in the first round. As a junior, Purcell and his Highlands Ranch squad advanced to the second round of the 5A playoffs. He also wrestled, ran track and played rugby in high school. Purcell played for head football coach Darrel Gorham at Highlands Ranch. Personal: Born April 20, 1991, he is one of five children of Ariane and Gordon Purcell. He was also recruited by Boise State, BYU, Colorado State, Hawaii, New Mexico, UCLA, Utah and Utah State. He is majoring in criminal justice.

LUKE RUFF*29

Strong Safety
5-11, 195, Junior
Castle Rock, Colo.
(Douglas County)

UW This Season: A leader on special teams the past two seasons, Luke Ruff finished 2011 spring practice as UW's projected starter at strong safety. Ruff was a key reserve in the secondary before taking over as the starting strong safety in the final two games of 2010. 2010: Ruff appeared in all 12 games for the Cowboys in 2010 on special teams, and started the final two contests at strong safety. He finished the season with 27 tackles, including one tackle for loss, one forced fumble and one blocked kick. Ruff's top performance was a six-tackle effort against Colorado State. He also forced a fumble against the Rams. He was credited with five stops at TCU. His blocked punt came versus San Diego State. Ruff continued to excel academically, earning First Team ESPN Academic All-District VII honors as a sophomore, achieving a 3.56 cumulative-grade-point average in mechanical engineering. He also earned Academic All-Mountain West Conference honors and MWC Scholar-Athlete recognition for the second straight season. 2009: Ruff had an exceptional true freshman season, especially with his contributions to the Cowboy special teams. At the year-end football awards banquet, he was selected the Gen. Pete Schoomaker Special Forces Co-Player of the Year, sharing the award with sophomore punter Austin McCoy. Ruff recorded 12 tackles on the season, six of which were solo tackles. His highest-profile play of the season came against Texas on Sept. 12. With 1:32 remaining in the first half and Texas clinging to a 6-3 lead, Ruff blocked a Texas punt and fellow true freshman Ghaali Muhammad returned it six yards for a touchdown. That score gave the Pokes a 10-6 lead and ignited a sold out War Memorial Stadium crowd.

He had three multi-tackle games on the season — two against Texas, Florida Atlantic and TCU. He also excelled in the classroom, earning Academic All-Mountain West Conference honors as a true freshman. Ruff also earned MWC Scholar-Athlete recognition for achieving a cumulative gpa above 3.50. High School: Ruff was one of the most highly-decorated high school football players in the state of Colorado in 2008, being named to the All-Colorado team for all classifications as a defensive back by both The Denver Post and Rocky Mountain News. He was also a First Team All-State Class 5A selection by both publications. He captained his Douglas County team to an 8-4 record and the quarterfinals of the 2008 5A State Playoffs. Ruff was credited with 115 tackles, recovered four fumbles, intercepted one pass and blocked three kicks his senior season. He also rushed 45 times for 514 yards and scored 11 touchdowns in '08. His junior season, he helped lead Douglas County to an 11-3 record as Douglas County finished as the runnerup for the 5A State Championship. He made 70 tackles, intercepted two passes and recovered two fumbles. He also was an All-Conference lacrosse player. Ruff played for head coach Jeff Ketron at Douglas County. OLIVER SCHOBER

UW This Season: The 2011 campaign could be a breakout season for senior Oliver Schober, who displayed his potential during his first season playing college football in 2010. Schober proved his worth in the linebacking core while also handling kickoff duties in 2010. He is listed No. 1 at middle linebacker entering this fall and will again handle kickoffs.

2010: Schober was a useful reserve linebacker during his first year in the UW program, as he appeared in all 12 games and made three starts against Toledo, San Diego State and New Mexico. He finished with 46 tackles, including 20 solo stops, to go with one tackle for loss and one fumble recovery. His three pass breakups ranked fourth on the team. He also handled kickoff duties for the Cowboys. He kicked 47 times to average 63.0 yards per boot with eight touchbacks. At the team's year-end banquet, he earned UW's Hammer Award, recognizing the player with the most big hits during the season. Schober was also honored with his first Academic All-Conference award. Prior to UW: Schober came to Wyoming in the fall of 2010 from Munich, Germany, where he learned to play the American game of football. His connection to the University of Wyoming coaching staff came through David Odenthal, a former college player of Wyoming head coach Dave Christensen. Odenthal played for Christensen at the University of Toledo, and coached in the league that Schober played. Schober played his amateur football for the Munich Cowboys and for National Team Germany. Personal: Schober is the youngest of two sons of Elsa and Hans-Joerg Schober. Elsa is a native of Jamaica. His older brother, Daniel, played for the Cologne Centurions in NFL Europe. Oliver is majoring in business administration at UW.

RECORDS & HISTORY

(The NCAA only recognizes regular-season totals, which are reflected here. School records throughout the rest of this section include bowl-game statistics.)

MARCUS HARRIS (#23) became the greatest receiver in NCAA history during his career from 1993-96. Harris set NCAA records for most yards receiving (4,518) and most 100-yard receiving games (24). He also became the only receiver in NCAA history to amass 1,400 yards receiving in three different seasons. For his performance, Harris was named the recipient of the 1996 Biletnikoff Award, signifying the top receiver in the country. Harris currently ranks No. 2 in NCAA history in career receiving yards.

LARRY BIRLEFFI PRESS ROOM

In 1992 the University of Wyoming Athletics Department honored long-time newspaper, radio and TV personality Larry Birleffi, by naming the working press area in the War Memorial Stadium media facility after him.

For over 50 years, and 1200 events, Birleffi covered the Cowboys and Cowgirls for newspaper, radio and television. While coaches, players and fans have come and gone, Birleffi was there. He was the one common thread through the tapestry that is Wyoming tradition. He carried the word of Wyoming athletics longer, and more effectively, than any other. He was inducted into the University of Wyoming Athletics Hall of Fame in 1996.

Born in Hartville, Wyoming's first incorporated town on April 17, 1918, Birleffi graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1942. He had begun covering the Cowboys for the UW student newspaper the Branding Iron in 1937.

Birleffi died on September 27, 2008.

LARRY BIRLEFFI,
flanked by former UW Athletics Director Paul Roach (on left) acknowledges the crowd on Oct. 17, 1992, the day UW dedicated the press area in the War Memorial Stadium Press Box as "The Larry Birleffi Press Room".

THE BILETNIKOFF AWARD

Honoring the Nation's Top Receiver

MARCUS HARRIS, 1996

Marcus Harris is presented with the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver in 1996.

One of Wyoming's most decorated football players, Marcus Harris was a consensus All-American in 1996, being selected First Team All-American by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, and Football News. In 1996, he won the Biletnikoff Award (named after former Oakland Raiders receiver Fred Biletnikoff), symbolic of the nation's top receiver. He also finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1996. During his college career, Harris became the NCAA's all-time leader in receiving yards with 4,518 career yards, and he remains the only receiver in NCAA history to have three 1,400 yard receiving seasons. With his 1,650 yards in 1996, Harris led the nation in receiving yards, earned First-Team All-Western Athletic Conference honors for the third straight year, and was named the WAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

MOUNTAIN WEST CONFERENCE

This is the Mountain West

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 13th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

2010-11 in Review

From the gridiron to the diamond, Mountain West teams enjoyed an outstanding year in 2010-11. For the third consecutive year, the MW sent a record five football teams to bowl games, posting the best win percentage among the 11 FBS conferences for the fourth time in seven years. The Mountain West finished with a 4-1 (.800) mark in postseason play and claimed the 2010-11 Bowl Challenge Cup, becoming the only conference to win the trophy four times since the award's inception in 2002-03. Two MW teams were ranked in the final BCS Standings and USA Today/ESPN Coaches polls for the third straight year.

Three men's basketball teams represented the Mountain West in the 2011 NCAA Tournament, marking the 11th time in the last 12 years the Conference has sent multiple teams to the Big Dance. Regular season co-champion San Diego State captured the MW Tournament title to earn the league's automatic bid, while MW co-regular-season champion BYU was joined by UNLV in receiving at-large invitations. San Diego State and BYU advanced to the Sweet Sixteen, the first time the league had multiple teams make the round. The 2010-11 season marked the second straight year the Mountain West had two teams ranked in the final Top-25 polls. Overall, the league had three different teams ranked in the national Top-25 polls at some point during the season for the second straight year.

In women's basketball, BYU won the MW regular-season title, while Utah captured the MW Tournament crown and earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The league had four teams participate in postseason action, as BYU, TCU and Wyoming advanced to the Women's National Invitation Tournament.

The league secured at least one at-large bid to the NCAA women's volleyball tournament for the 12th consecutive year, as New Mexico joined MW regular-season champion and automatic bid representative Colorado State in the postseason. The Rams finished the season with a No. 16 ranking in the AVCA Top 25 poll. Volleyball also set a league attendance record with over 137,000 fans coming to matches for a new league average of 1,000+ fans per match.

In women's soccer, BYU and New Mexico earned bids to the NCAA Tournament. The Cougars earned the league's automatic bid after clinching their sixth MW Tournament title, while the MW regular-season champion Lobos made their first NCAA appearance by virtue of an at-large invitation.

Commissioner Craig Thompson

Craig Thompson was the Mountain West Conference's first employee when he was named Commissioner on Oct. 15, 1998. Ever since, Thompson has navigated the newest NCAA Division I conference through the ever-changing landscape of intercollegiate athletics. As the league enters its 13th season of competition in 2011-12, Thompson continues to create and improve the opportunities for Mountain West institutions and student-athletes to be successful both academically and athletically.

Since the Mountain West opened its doors on January 4, 1999, Thompson has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW has flourished under the guidance of Commissioner Thompson and continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. He has been instrumental in negotiating nearly $230 million in television revenue and has been an innovator in the postseason bowl structure as MW teams have participated in five inaugural bowl games. Thompson also has positioned the Mountain West for the future with the additions of Boise State University on July 1, 2011 and California State University, Fresno and the University of Nevada, Reno on July 1, 2012. The University of Hawai'i will join the league as a football-only member beginning July 1, 2012.

His leadership and vision have helped the conference enhance its television revenue and exposure through revolutionary agreements with CBS Sports Network and Comcast to become the first major collegiate athletic conference to launch a dedicated sports channel featuring exclusive programming around its athletic programs, as well as conference news. This vision has guaranteed greater levels of television exposure for all MW sports and has resoundingly met the fundamental goals of preferred start times, competition on select days of the week and enhanced revenue. In the summer of 2006, the centerpiece of this historic relationship was realized with the launch of The Mtn. – MountainWest Sports Network - the first sports network dedicated to serving a single collegiate athletic conference. The Mtn. is jointly owned by CBS Sports Network and Comcast and operated by Comcast SportsNet.

Thompson has been instrumental in strengthening the position of the Mountain West in the current Bowl Championship Series (BCS) structure. In 2006, he spearheaded an effort that resulted in better access for the MW and more than doubled the annual BCS revenue on an annual basis for non-automatic-qualifying conferences. The MW has been steadfast in its efforts to find a way to make the BCS system fair for all universities.

Through its first 12 years of competition, the Mountain West has participated in 46 bowl games. The MW claimed the 2010 Bowl Challenge Cup after sending five teams into postseason action and finishing with a 4-1 (.800) mark. It was the fourth time in seven years the MW posted the best win percentage among the 11 FBS conferences. The MW claimed the 2009 and 2007 Challenge Cups after finishing both seasons with a 4-1 (.800) records. The league earned its first Cup after registering a 2-1 mark in bowl competition during the 2004 season. The Mountain West is the only conference to win the Bowl Challenge Cup four times since the award's inception in 2002.

Thompson and his wife, Carla, have a son (Ted) and a daughter (Emma).

UW ADMINISTRATION

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING PRESIDENT TOM BUCHANAN

Tom Buchanan's career in higher education has spanned more than 35 years, as a student, teacher, and administrator.

A native of New York, Buchanan attended the State University of New York at Cortland where he graduated with his undergraduate degree in 1973. He earned his master's of science from the University of Wyoming in 1975 and a Ph.D. from the Institute for Environmental Studies at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign in 1979.

After completing his doctorate, Buchanan returned to Wyoming as an assistant professor in the Department of Geography at the University of Wyoming. Over the next 30 years, he rose through the faculty ranks to full professor, and has held various administrative positions including department head, associate dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, and vice president for academic affairs. On July 1, 2005, he was appointed the 23rd president of the University of Wyoming.

As UW president, Buchanan's priorities for the University have included excellence in academics, promoting access to higher education in Wyoming, and enhancing economic and workforce development in Wyoming.

Buchanan is the recipient of numerous awards recognizing excellence in teaching and administration, including the Ellbogen Meritorious Classroom Teaching award and the Seibold Professorship in the College of Arts and Sciences. He serves on the governing boards of the Mountain West Athletic Conference, the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education, and the Western Cooperative for Educational Telecommunications. He is Wyoming's representative to State Higher Education Executive Officers (SHEEO).

Buchanan is married to Jacque, whom he met while a student at UW. They are the proud parents of Eric and grandparents of Bradley.

TOM BURMAN UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING, DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

From the time Tom Burman was named Athletics Director at the University of Wyoming on Oct. 9, 2006, the Wyoming Athletics program has enjoyed some of its most memorable moments in school history. From the Wyoming Cowgirl Basketball Team capturing the WNIT National Championship in 2007 to the Wyoming Football Team's dramatic, double-overtime victory in the 2009 New Mexico Bowl, Wyoming Athletics has experienced numerous successes on and off the field of competition.

Fundraising and season-ticket sales have reached record levels in Burman's five years directing the UW Athletics Department. Numerous facility projects have also been completed under Burman's direction.

In the 2010-11 Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, which measures each NCAA Division I University's competitive rank among its peer universities, Wyoming recorded its highest rank since the 2003-04 season.

Before becoming A.D. at Wyoming, Burman had previously served as an Associate Athletics Director at UW from 1995-2000. He served as Athletics Director at Portland State University from September 2000 through March 2006. Burman returned to UW in March 2006 as Associate Vice President for Institutional Advancement with the UW Foundation, before being tabbed by President Tom Buchanan as the eighth athletics director in UW history.

"I care deeply about this University, the success of UW Athletics and the well-being of our student-athletes," Burman said upon his hiring. "We will build a program that wins championships, is a source of great pride to our alumni and generates enthusiasm across the state. The future starts now."

Some of the accomplishments that have been achieved during Burman's tenure as Director of Athletics at the University of Wyoming include:

Student Services

- Resources dedicated toward academic success and student-athlete welfare since 2006 have increased nearly 100 percent.
- During the 2010-11 academic year, a total of 115 UW student-athletes earned Academic All-Mountain West Conference honors. In addition, 62 student-athletes earned Mountain West Conference Scholar-Athlete honors which is the largest number of student-athletes to earn the Scholar-Athlete award in the past 10 years.
- Also in the 2010-11 academic year, 10 out of UW's 17 NCAA athletic teams earned a cumulative team grade-point-average of 3.00 or higher. Those 10 teams were: women's basketball, women's volleyball, men's swimming and diving, women's swimming and diving, men's golf, women's golf, women's tennis, men's cross country, women's cross country and women's track and field.
- In the most recent APR (Academic Progress Rate) information released by the NCAA in the summer of 2011, 16 of Wyoming's 17 sports exceeded the 925 benchmark set by the NCAA. Wyoming men's basketball was the only UW team that did not meet the 925 benchmark, but Cowboy Basketball's most recent score of 905 marked an improvement from 892 in 2010 and marked the fourth consecutive year the score had improved. Wyoming had 14 of its 17 sports either maintain or increase their APR scores in 2010-11.

Revenue Generation/Facilities

- Cowboy Joe Club revenue grew from $2.1 million in 2006 to $4.2 million in 2011.
- Ticket revenue has dramatically grown, including a 63 percent growth in football season tickets since 2007.
- In the summer of 2011, season-ticket sales for Wyoming Football surpassed the 10,000 season-ticket mark for the first time in school history.
- The overall UW Athletics Department budget grew from $21 million to $26 million for the 2011-12 budget year.
- In the spring of 2010, UW Athletics completed a $38 million athletics facility campaign under Burman's direction as athletics director.
- Burman spearheaded over $50 million in facilities projects in five years, including: construction of a new $11 million Indoor Practice Facility; construction of the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites addition to War Memorial Stadium; extensive renovations to the east side of War Memorial Stadium; significant upgrades to the UniWyo Sports Complex for volleyball and wrestling; and development of a new Indoor Tennis Facility.
- The Indoor Practice Facility contains over 80,000 square feet, including a full-size, 100-yard by 50-yard football field.
- The Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites opened for the start of the 2010 football season, and features 12 luxury suites and 256 club seats. The suites were sold out months before the opening, and club seats were over 90 percent sold.
- Renovations to War Memorial Stadium have focused on modernizing areas of the stadium that benefit fans, specifically new and improved concession areas, bathrooms and seating.
- Wyoming's volleyball and wrestling programs have benefitted from new and improved seating, lighting and competition surfaces in the UniWyo Sports Complex.
- In the June of 2010, ground was broken on a new $3 million Indoor Tennis Facility for the Cowgirl Tennis program. That facility opened in the spring of 2011.

Competitive Excellence

- Burman hired head coach Dave Christensen prior to the 2009 season, which drew high marks from several national and local media reviews. Christensen led Wyoming to the 2009 New Mexico Bowl Championship with a thrilling 35-28, double-overtime victory over Fresno State. Christensen became only the second Wyoming coach to lead his team to a bowl game in his first season — the other being Paul Roach in 1987 — and Christensen became the first Cowboy head coach to win a bowl game in his first season. His first two Cowboy squads also won back-to-back victories in the annual "Border War" game versus archrival Colorado State.
- In the spring of 2011, Burman lured Larry Shyatt away from his position as Associate Head Coach at the University of Florida to return to Laramie and take over as head coach of the Cowboy Basketball program. Shyatt had been part of two National Championships with the Gators and had previously served as Wyoming's head coach in the 1997-98 season. Burman's hiring of Shyatt received numerous positive reviews, including an "A" rating from ESPN.com. Of the 19 coaching hires that ESPN.com rated, Wyoming received one of only five "A" ratings.

- Cowgirl Basketball has achieved unprecedented success over the past five years. Wyoming won the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT) National Championship in the 2006-07 season, defeating Wisconsin, 72-56, in the championship game in Laramie. The next season, 2007-08, the Cowgirls earned the program's first-ever NCAA Tournament berth. In 2009-10, Wyoming again received a bid to the WNIT where it advanced to the third round, and in 2010-11 the Cowgirls again advanced to the third round of the WNIT.

The Burman Family
Nathan, Kathy, Tom and Drew

- Burman hired Mark Branch as Wyoming's new wrestling coach prior to the 2008-09 season. The former two-time national champion at Oklahoma State University, Branch led Wyoming to a share of the Western Wrestling Conference (WWC) dual title in his first season at Wyoming and a second-place finish in the NCAA West Regional. Branch was selected WWC Coach of the Year. He also earned West Region Coach of the Year honors from D1CollegeWrestling.net and was named the Top Rookie Coach in the nation by Amateur Wrestling News. In Branch's second season, he led the Cowboys to the outright WWC dual title and Wyoming captured its first-ever NCAA West Regional title. The 2010-11 season saw the Pokes repeat as NCAA West Regional Champions. UW placed 28th at the NCAA Championships, and had two All-Americans in juniors Shane Onufer and Joe LeBlanc, who finished fifth and sixth respectively at the 2011 NCAA Championships.

Personnel

- Burman attracted head soccer coach Danny Sanchez to UW in the summer of 2008. Sanchez came to Wyoming from Metro State College in Denver, Colo., where he led the Roadrunners to two NCAA Division II National Championships in 2004 and 2006. Sanchez was named the NCAA Division II National Coach of the Year following the 2004 season.
- Carrie Yerty was also hired in the summer of '08 as head women's volleyball coach at UW. Yerty came to Wyoming after becoming the winningest volleyball coach in University of Memphis history, building a 232-174 (.572) record in 13 seasons with the Tigers.
- The other young, successful coach hired by Burman is head tennis coach Kati Gyulai. In only her second season after returning to her alma mater, Gyulai led the Cowgirls to unprecedented success at UW. Her 2009-10 squad posted the best overall record (14-8), best conference record (5-3) and best conference finish (third place) in school history, and concluded the season ranked No. 73 in the nation out of 323 NCAA Division I women's tennis programs. Her team followed that performance up with another outstanding season in 2010-11, earning a final season ranking of No. 74 after reaching a school best ranking of No. 68 in late March 2011.

Scheduling

- The University of Wyoming hosted its greatest home football schedule in school history in 2009 when the then No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns made their first-ever appearance in War Memorial Stadium. The Longhorns went on to play for the 2009 National Championship.
- That 2009 Texas game will be surpassed in 2011 when new Big Ten member Nebraska makes its first-ever appearance in Laramie.
- In addition to Texas (2009, 2010 and 2012) and Nebraska (2011, 2013 and 2016), Burman has also negotiated future football contracts with Oregon (2014 and 2015) and Missouri (2017 and 2018) that will bring each of those teams to Laramie at once in future seasons.

From 1997-2000, Burman was Wyoming's Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs. During that time period, he was instrumental in raising funds for the $9.4 million Rochelle Athletics Center. His first position at his alma mater was as Associate Athletics Director for Development, serving as Executive Director of the Cowboy Joe Club from 1995-97. He began his intercollegiate athletics career as Director of Marketing and Promotions (1993-95) at the University of Idaho in Moscow. From 1990-92, Burman worked as a project manager for the sports management company DeWilder & Associates in McLean, Va. Burman earned a bachelor of science degree from Wyoming in 1988 and an M.B.A. from Robert Morris University in Coraopolis, Pa., in 1991.

Burman is 45 years old, born Jan. 4, 1966. He and his wife, Kathy, have two sons, Drew and Nathan.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING MISSION STATEMENT & CORE VALUES

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the University of Wyoming Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to provide an environment in which student-athletes complete their undergraduate college education and achieve athletics success at the highest possible level. As Wyoming's only four-year University, we are committed to offering a first-class competitive athletics program at the NCAA Division IA level that promotes the values of the state and assists in carrying out the overall University of Wyoming mission.

CORE VALUES

- We must maintain a proper balance between academics and athletics.
- We support the student-athlete as a whole person – academically, athletically, in career development, community service, and related to personal well being. We believe college athletics develops discipline, character, and teamwork...all necessary ingredients for individual leadership and achievement.
- Our student-athletes, coaches, and staff must uphold a sense of character, honesty, and integrity as they serve as University and state ambassadors on a local, regional, and national level.
- We believe we can achieve athletic success on a regional and national level. We must accomplish this without compromising any of our other core values.
- We believe long-term athletic success increases exposure for the University's academic and research mission and provides regional and national exposure for the state of Wyoming across the United States.
- We must operate in a fiscally sound manner. We strive to balance state, university, and self-generated resources to create a competitive and appropriate budget.
- We believe first-class facilities are an important part of our ability to compete at the highest level. We are committed to building and renovating the facilities necessary to be successful as well as maintaining the great facilities we already have.
- We are committed to recruiting Wyoming students prepared for Division IA competition.
- We are committed to being a positive campus partner. We will strive to strengthen and build relationships with students, faculty, administrators, and staff from other areas of campus.
- We are committed to being a positive city, county, and state partner. We strive to strengthen and build relationships with the Laramie City Council and the Laramie City operating departments, Albany County government, The Wyoming Legislature, and Wyoming state elected officials and state agencies.
- We believe in empowering individuals (student-athletes, coaches, and staff) to make decisions that will lead to their success. With that privilege comes responsibility and accountability.
- We are committed to excellence in customer service. Every UW alumnus, ticket holder, fan, or contributor must be treated with the utmost respect. We strive to communicate openly and honestly with every constituent.
- We will promote good sportsmanship in all athletic endeavors.
- We are committed to fair and equitable treatment of student-athletes and staff. We will maintain an environment that promotes gender equity and embraces diversity.
- Our work environment will be positive, enjoyable, and family friendly.

Welcome to the University of Wyoming, and Cowboy Football. The information on these pages is presented to assist the working media in its coverage of the 2011 season. The Wyoming Media Relations Office will be available throughout the year to assist you.

Credential Requests

Requests for press box and photo credentials should be directed to the University of Wyoming Media Relations Office. To ensure consideration, requests should be submitted on company letterhead — either by fax or mail — two weeks prior to the game. Requests made the week of the game will be handled as space allows. No requests will be processed later than noon on the day prior to the game. Credentials will either be mailed, or will be held at Will Call, located on the northwest corner of the Arena-Auditorium at the Athletics Ticket Office.

Media Parking at Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming's Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium is located on the north side of Grand Ave. at the intersection of Grand and 22nd Street in Laramie, Wyo. Most media members will be assigned parking in the FA lot on the west side of War Memorial Stadium and the Arena-Auditorium. The FA lot can be accessed by taking Willett Drive, which runs on the north side of War Memorial Stadium. On the west side of the Arena-Auditorium turn south off of Willett Drive into the FA parking lot.

Media Facilities

The War Memorial Stadium Press Box facility is located on the top of the Stadium's West Stands. Working media are accommodated in the main "Larry Bireleff Media Area", while broadcast personnel are assigned booth space as available. The Press Box is accessible via an elevator, located in the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium.

Photographic Services

Photographers can either shoot from designated areas on the sidelines or from the camera deck that is located in front of the press box and is accessible from the main press area. Wireless internet access is available in the press box. There is also a room available to photographers during and after games on field level in the former Stadium Club room located underneath the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium. Wireless internet and high speed data lines will also be available in this room.

Media Services

Complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play and postgame coach and player quotes are provided for working media. A media folder including flip-card, updated statistics and game-day notes will be provided pregame. An internal public address is provided for updated information and notes throughout the game. A pregame meal is served through the first quarter, and coffee, soft drinks and snacks are available during and following the game. For radio, ISDN lines, as well as regular land lines are available. Ample phone lines and wireless internet are available in the press box.

Ticket Information

Tickets to all University of Wyoming Athletics' events can be purchased through the UW Athletics Ticket Office. Tickets may be ordered over the phone by calling 1-800-922-9461 or 307-766-4850, or online at www.wyomingathletics.com, and go to the ticket links on the front page.

Postgame Procedures

Members of the Media Relations staff will escort media representatives to the respective team interview areas with two minutes remaining in the game. Requested Cowboy players and Head Coach Dave Christensen will be escorted to the Rochelle Athletics Center (RAC) Weight Room following the 10-minute cooling off period. Opponent players and head coach will meet with media members in War Memorial Fieldhouse following the cooling off period.

Practice

Media members are required to check with the Wyoming Media Relations Office prior to attending a practice session.

Dave Christensen Press Conference and Interviews

Wyoming head coach Dave Christensen will be available on a weekly press conference each Monday during the season from 3:00-3:30 p.m. The press conference will be held in the Rochelle Athletics Center. Christensen will also be available via teleconference during the press conference. Contact the UW Media Relations Office for details regarding the weekly press conference.

Christensen will be available on the Mountain West Conference teleconference each Tuesday at approximately 10:52 a.m., Mountain Time.

During the season, Coach Christensen will also be available after practice on Tuesdays and Wednesdays to talk with the media.

Player and Assistant Coach Interviews

Wyoming football players and assistant coaches will be available to the media for individual interviews each Monday from 3:30-5:00 p.m. following Coach Christensen's press conference.

Media need to submit specific player and assistant coach interview requests to Tim Harkins of the UW Media Relations Office by phone or e-mail no later than 1 p.m. on Sundays for the Monday interviews.

It is requested that media conduct their interviews on Mondays. If there are student-athletes and assistant coaches unable to meet an interview request on Monday due to a scheduling conflict, those student-athletes and coaches will be made available Tuesday after practice.

Video Services

Media in need of assistance with video may contact the UW Athletics Media Relations Office.

Media Teleconferences

A teleconference will be included as a part of Dave Christensen's Monday press conferences during the season, giving those media, unable to attend, an opportunity to phone in and ask questions of the Cowboy head coach.

The Mountain West Conference will also conduct its weekly teleconference each Tuesday.

Real Time Data Rights Policy

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgment of the University of Wyoming's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and your agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Wyoming may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the University of Wyoming may result in revocation of press credentials. The University of Wyoming reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet.

Media Relations Office

The Wyoming Media Relations Office is located at the north end of the Intercollegiate Athletics Building in the Fieldhouse North Addition. The office is located on the second floor, Room 206. The phone number is 307-766-2256.
